

REAPPORTIONMENT.

Some recent material in the Indiana State Library.

- Council of State Governments      Legislative reapportionment in the states. Chicago, The Council, 1964.
Review of significant action by Governors, legislatures, State and federal Courts and the voters in the four year period from June, 1960 to June, 1961.
- David, Paul Theodore      Devaluation of the urban and suburban vote; a statistical investigation of long-term trends in State legislative representation. Bureau of Public Administration, University of Virginia, 1961-1962.
- David, Paul Theodore and Ralph Eisenberg      State legislative redistricting. Public Administration Service, Chicago, 1962. 34 p.
Major issues in the wake of judicial decisions.
- DeGrazia, Alfred      Apportionment and representative government. N.Y. Praeger, 1963.
Argument is advanced that equal population district is only one of several methods of representation.
- Hacker, Andrew.      Congressional districting: the issue of equal representation. Washington, Brookings Institution, 1963. 132 p.
The author believes that rural voters are grossly over-represented, and that the principle of "one man, one vote" works best in the large cities outside of the South.
- Harvard Law Review, LXXI (1958) 1057-1098.      Legislative apportionment and the Federal Courts, by Anthony Lewis.
Excellent analysis of the judicial aspects of apportionment prior to the Baker v. Carr decision.
- Indiana League of Women Voters.      Reapportionment of the Indiana General Assembly, Indianapolis, Indiana, 1963. var. pag.
Supplement, Jan. 1964.
Studies of the inequality of representation prepared by the League of Women voters of Indiana.
- Jewell, Malcolm E.      Politics of reapportionment. N.Y. Atherton Press, 1962. 334 p.
Seventeen case studies of recent struggles for legislative reapportionment and congressional redistricting.
- Lamb, Karl A.      Apportionment and representative institutions: the Michigan experience. Washington, Institute for Social Science Research, 1963, 408 p.
This study of the recent experience in Michigan has great relevance to the study of reapportionment problems throughout the country.
- Larson, James E.      Reapportionment and the Courts. Bureau of Public Administration, University of Alabama, 1962. 92 p.
A survey of recent decisions of both state and Federal Courts affecting reapportionment legislation of a dozen states.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY
APR 20 1965
LIBRARY

- Law and Contemporary Problems. XVII (Spring 1952) 253-469
- National Municipal League
- Silva, Roth C.
- Steiner, Gilbert Y. and Gove, Samuel K.
- Twentieth Century Fund
- U.S. Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations.
- U.S. Supreme Court.
- Congressional Quarterly, Weekly Report, Feb. 21, 1964.
- Congressional Quarterly, Weekly Report, Aug. 14, 1964.
- Congressional Quarterly, Weekly Report, June 19, 1964.
- Legislative reapportionment.
Comprehensive treatment covering legal, statistical and political aspects of apportionment.
- Compendium on legislative apportionment; a collection of statistics and appraisals from local non-official authorities in 50 states relating to inequalities in legislative and congressional representation of voters. 2nd ed. N.Y. 1962. Unpaged.
- Selected bibliography on legislative apportionment and districting. National Municipal League, 1963. 51 numbered leaves.
- Legislature redistricts Illinois. University of Illinois Bulletin, Institute of Government and Public Affairs, Urbana, 1956. 32 p.
A case study of legislative redistricting of the State, including problems of reorganization and their solution.
- One man - one vote. New York, 1962. 17 p.
Basic principles of legislative apportionment as agreed upon at a Conference of research scholars and political scientists.
- Apportionment of State legislatures: a Commission report. U.S. Government Printing Office, 1962.
Describes the state legislatures as they existed when the Baker v. Carr decision was handed down. Analyzes various approaches to reapportionment and suggests a series of guiding principles for use by public officials, state and federal courts.
- ...Tennessee legislative reapportionment. Opinion of the Supreme Court of the U.S. in Charles W. Baker, et al. app. v. Joe E. Carr, et al. (Committee Print) Washington, D.C. 1962. Various paging.
- Court opinions on Congressional apportionment.
- Senate opens debate on legislative apportionment rider.
- Supreme Court opinion on state legislative apportionment.

Reference Division
Indiana State Library (ME 3-6811)
December 1964