The News-Letter.

BLOOMINGDALE, SATURDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 30th.

FOR PRESIDENT IN 1830.
HENRY A. WISE.
FOR THE PRESIDENCY.
JESSE D. BRIGHT.

Mr. Martin C. Hunter and his friends united to this morning the honor of a visit to the Union Hall, where the late great statesman was not now present, appointed for the Declaration of his candidacy, and an introduction of the candidates for the office of President and Vice-President of the United States. The large hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the time was passed in a manner calculated to make the occasion memorable. The pulpit was occupied by Rev. Dr. C. A. Young, who delivered an eloquent and able address on the subject of the times, and the necessity of supporting the candidates for the high office.

The handball meeting which took place this afternoon was the first of its kind held in the city, and was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The players were evenly matched, and the game was played with great spirit and skill. The spectators were much pleased with the performance, and expressed a hope that similar meetings would be held in the future. Mr. John Brown, one of the players, made a most spirited defense, and his skill and agility were fully appreciated by the audience.

The Union Hall was again crowded this morning for the meeting of the Democratic party, where Mr. Heman W. Learned was selected as the candidate for the office of Governor. The meeting was conducted in an orderly and decorous manner, and the proceedings were marked by a spirit of unity and determination.

A meeting of the Rotarian Society was held this evening at the union hall, and was attended by a large and attentive audience. The principal speaker of the evening was Mr. John Brown, who delivered an interesting address on the subject of the times and the necessity of supporting the Democratic principles. The meeting was concluded with a vote of thanks to the speaker, and a resolution expressing the determination of the society to continue its efforts in the cause of freedom and justice.
