

Sam—Again.

ANSWER TO OUR BEDFORD CORRESPONDENT.

Be thou a spirit of health or goblin damned,
Thou comest in such a questionable shape,
I'll speak to thee.—HAMLET.

On Monday we received the following letter:
Bedford, Dec. 18th, 1855.

Mr. CARLTON,—Dear Sir: I like you because you are a gentleman; and like your paper because it belongs to the same party as myself, and for the news and other useful matters which it gives. But, for heaven's sake, let the Know Nothings alone. I am opposed to them myself, but have been heartily tired of hearing you ding-dong so much about them without cause, wit, or sense. When they find they are wrong, they will stop; but you will never make an American repent by abusing him, and it's no use trying. You had as well try to make harmonious music on a "harp" as on a string. The more you try to drive a hog in a pen the more he gets his tail toward the door, "an it's no use a trying."

A FRIEND.

That the above letter was written by a friend, we will not entertain a moment's doubt, although the author does not favor us with his true signature; and we have puzzled our brains in vain to determine the author. We will venture to assert, however, that he is an old-line Democrat, who suffered himself to be inveigled into a Know Nothing lodge, and has become heartily sick of his bargain. If such be the case, we deeply sympathize with him in his contrition and mortification. Let it be a perpetual warning to him never again to desert the old lines marked out by the fathers of the Republic, and go astray into by-paths and side issues after an ignis fatuus leading him into a morass or precipice of destruction.

In our writings, hitherto, against Know Nothingism we have often felt deep and sincere pity and sympathy for such men as our correspondent, who desired only an opportunity of repentance, and to be let alone that they might return to their first love. Accordingly, we have often been careful to discriminate between such men and those fanatics and bigots whose hearts are lit up with the sulphurous fires of hell,—who laugh with fiendish joy over the smouldering bones of men and women sacrificed upon the altar of religious bigotry,—and who pursue their victims into the Sanctuary, the City of Refuge, and the social circle. In regard to this class of Know Nothings, we take this occasion to put in a plea of justification in regard to our past course, and we submit the issue to the country, at the same time disclaiming any intention of wounding the feelings of our correspondent, to whom we do not intend our strictures to apply; for

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return."

Then, let the repentant prodigal come back; let us receive him with open arms; let us kill the fatted calf. Surely, he has had enough to bear in the strange company he has been keeping. His soul has been sickened with the steam, and stench, and pollution, of the horrid Know Nothing orgies. The glare of burning cities has scorched his eye balls. The rich streams of sweet mortality, burning and frying among blazing rafters, has been a "sweet savor" to his nostrils; gay, brilliant, beautiful death-lights have glimmered on his eye-sight, among the rows of "goodly dead"—mere Irish and Dutch—the victims of Know Nothingism. No wonder, then, that our correspondent has "become heartily tired" of hearing of the brilliant and magnanimous doings of the ubiquitous Sam!

Then, our dear correspondent, if you are really a friend, and are sincerely repentant, we deeply sympathize with you;

"And we would rather stop the unclashed dove,
When back returning to its home of love,
And round its snowy wings new feathers trim,
Than turn from virtue one pure wish of thine."

But, let us see. We think we can detect, in our correspondent's letter, a secret longing for the flesh-pots of Egypt. He says: "You will never make an American repent by abusing him." We suppose he means by "an American," a Know-Nothing. Stop, friend.—Such nomenclature don't belong to the old-liners. We will not agree that this monstrous iniquity, ye!pt Know Nothingism, shall appropriate to themselves the name of "Americans." Our correspondent says we "ding-dong" "without cause, wit, or sense." As to the wit or sense of our articles we submit to the judgment of our readers; but we hope we may be permitted to say, without vanity, that men possessed of equal and (if it were possible) higher mental capacity than our correspondent, have thought differently, and some of our humble effusions have been copied into papers in half the States of the Union.

But our correspondent says we have been "ding-donging" without cause. How is this?—You say you belong to our party. Then, you are a "square-cut," uncompromising, old-line Democrat. Is this the language of an old-line Democrat—"without cause?" Then, we ought not to have said anything against them, for a man should never act without cause. If you think there is no cause to oppose Know Nothingism, then you are a Know Nothing yourself.—You may claim to be a Democrat; but the cloven foot will stick out. (By the way, the name Democrat has become so honorable that all sorts of isms and new-fangled parties claim the name.) You remind us of the ground hog that had been away from home visiting, and coming back to his hole in the evening, he espied a strange looking animal at his threshold. "Good evening, sir,—how do you do, and who are you?" said the ground-hog. "I am a neighbor ground-hog that has come over to see you," said the other. "Well," said the ground-hog, "you may be a ground-hog, but you look to me mighty like a pole-cat."

So, our correspondent may be a Democrat, but he writes very much like a Know Nothing. You say we oppose the Cayennes without cause. Let us see. What is our duty as the editors of a National Democratic newspaper, when we see arising in our midst, a secret political party,—unconstitutional, illegal, unchristian, immoral, mendacious, striking at the very foundation of civil and religious freedom,—conceived in sin, brought forth in iniquity, swathed in perjury, and baptised in blood?—Would we not be recreant in our duty, if we failed to speak our sentiments like a freeman? We have done so, without fear or favor. From the time the Black Knight first made his appearance, our foot has ever been in the arena, and our shield always hung in the lists.

So much for our general duty as an editor, showing sufficient cause, we think, why we should oppose Know Nothingism.

But there are other "causes," of a personal character, which, in deference to the frailties of human nature, should be entitled to some weight. We are not a stoic, nor a stock, nor a stone. We have human feelings and sensibilities, a fact which many Know Nothings about here and the adjoining counties, seemed disposed to overlook. Hence it was, that, for simply expressing the convictions of our judgment against the principles of Know Nothingism, in a firm but temperate manner, we were set down by these midnight prowlers as a mark for hate and ruin. We were to be proscribed in business, and our character overwhelmed with falsehood.

Wherever we went the Know Nothing curs and fists were barking at our heels. Into the sanctuary and the social circle, the Know Nothing reptile followed us, and dragged its filthy form along amidst its slime and pollution, spitting its venom, and glaring with green eyes upon us. Even the holy Sabbath was no protection, but we must be attacked by violence at night. If we went to the neighboring towns upon our private business, our advent was heralded by all the little Know Nothing papers in the adjoining counties with villainous slander, too gross for credulity itself. This is the course that has been pursued toward us for twelve months past, by a cowardly, cringing, craven gang, with just courage enough to propagate a lie, or stab in the dark; but who shrunk into cowardly insignificance when they encountered us face to face, in broad day light. It is true that we have triumphed over these difficulties, at the price of a good deal of ink and paper, hard work, stump speaking, and loss of money. We have lived to see Know Nothingism in Monroe county, more odious with the great mass of the people, than blue-light Federalism; and more hideous than the unveiled features of the Prophet of Khorassan. But, you may say, "why should you trample on a prostrate foe?" We will not do so: Whenever the Know Nothing lodges throughout the country, shall abandon their organization, and their members take their stand as good citizens, on the Constitution of their country, we will let them alone. But so long as they show a disposition to rekindle the fires of religious persecution, intolerance and bigotry—those scourges of mankind, which have, from age to age, in this world's history, converted the earth into a smoking ruin, and a vast, illuminated hell, we are ready to endorse the motto of the glorious old State of Virginia,

"SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS!"

If there is anything on this earth for which we have a deep, unutterable, fathomless loathing, it is a tyranny over the conscience—that religious bigotry which seeks to punish, to ruin, and to disgrace our fellow beings, because they cannot believe as we do in matters of religion.

Oh! it were far better to go back to the days of ancient barbarism—better that the religion of the blessed Redeemer should be driven to the fastnesses and the rocks, than that its pure and crystal waters should be poisoned by the lust of power, and ensanguined by the bloody footsteps of the red-eyed bigot:

"One of that saintly murderous brood,
To carnage and the prayer-book given,
Who think through unbelievers' blood
Lies the direct road to heaven;
One who will pause and kneel unshod,
In the warm blood his hand has poured,
To mutter o'er some text of God,
Engraven on his reeking sword."

Dancing and other Amusements.

We are pleased to find that, "at this present writing," a movement is on foot to get up a dance in our town, on Christmas eve or Christmas night. We hope it will not fall through. Although our "dancing days" are over, we think there is no amusement more pleasant, innocent and healthful, than a dancing party, when properly conducted. It was an evil day for mankind when dancing fell under the ban of the clergy. Notwithstanding it has been practised in all ages and in all countries, by the best and most refined people, there are many persons so superstitious as to believe it is sinful or criminal. Such notions are legitimately descended from the gloomy and lugubrious views of the Puritans of England. By them, dancing, the drama, and all other amusements, were deemed sinful. It was a sin to hang garlands on a May pole, to celebrate Christmas, to drink a friend's health, to fly a hawk, or read the Fairy Queen. The Puritan was known from other men by his garb, his lank hair, the owlish solemnity of his face, the upturned white of his eyes, and the nasal twang with which he spoke. He hated bearding, not at all for the pain it gave the bear, but the pleasure it gave the spectators. Good Lord deliver us from the religion of PRAISE-GOD BAREBONES, and the zeal of TRUS OATES. And yet there are many persons at this day who consider that religion consists entirely in upturned eyes, long nasal prayers, and mortifying groans.—For our part, we see nothing in the Christian's creed that proscribes healthful exercises and a cheerful spirit.

The Owls, the Bats, and the Eagles.

"The liberties of a people are never more certainly in the path of destruction than when they trust themselves to the guidance of secret societies. Birds of the night are never birds of wisdom. One of them received this name, but it was from its looks, and not from its moral and intellectual qualities. They are for the most part birds of prey. The fate of a republic is sealed when the Bats take the lead of the Eagles."—JOSIAH QUINCY.

Such were the sentiments of that great and good man, the distinguished lawyer and true patriot, JOSIAH QUINCY. It would really seem that when he penned these words, he was looking down with prophetic vision, to these times, sick and bleeding with gory wounds inflicted by a secret political society, founded on the worst passions of the human heart.

Verily, the fate of the republic would be sealed if the "Bats should take the lead of the Eagles." Bats and Owls may do for the secret cloister, and the dark, damp and slippery vaults of the Venetian Council of Ten; but for a republic like this, give us the proud and soaring Eagle, with his bold pinions, glancing in the sunlight, with his talons of steel, and his eye of fire! These secret, oath-bound, political societies are at war with the natural instincts of a noble hearted man. There is something in a true man that raises his feelings above the dull, dark mists of earth's valleys, where the Owls, the Bats, and the Reptiles dwell; and he delights to revel in the sunlight, to bask in the pure mountain air, and to wander in the dream-land of the azure skies, bespangled with glittering isles of light.

For a crafty old demagogue, whose heart is dry as summer dust, who spends his days like a spider, watching where to rise by human frailties, whose eye is gangedrened with hate for mankind,—it is no wonder that he should be a Know-Nothing.

But, for a young man, with feelings fresh as morning dew, with a good education, who has drunk of the pure waters of classic lore, and worshipped at the shrine of classic liberty, who has been taught to despise all things mean, and low, and fraudulent, and to emulate all that is noble, free and generous,—how can he be a Know Nothing, is beyond our comprehension.

Look at the long array of the names of the gifted dead—to whose tombs the world resorts "as the Palestines, the Meccas of the mind,"—the Orators, the Poets, the Authors, and the Statesmen, who have ennobled and dignified the name of man;—such men as CURRAN, EMMET, BURKE, BYRON, MOORE, and PHILLIPS, in the old world; and such men as JEFFERSON and IRVING, CLAY and WEBSTER, in our own country,—and you will find that, capacious as were their minds and great as were their hearts, there was no room there for the vile and devilish spirit of religious bigotry and intolerance. But, on the contrary, their writings and speeches glow with thrilling tributes to religious freedom, and are illuminated with the lightning flash of their indignation against despotism over the mind and the conscience.

We were happy to meet, this week, our esteemed friend, Colonel LEMUEL GENTRY, our present County Treasurer and Collector. He has been sick for several months, so as not to be able to attend to the duties of his office, in person. He is now rapidly convalescing, and has come up to town to enter upon his duties. Colonel G. is a whole-souled, genuine gentleman of the old school, and we are always happy to take him by the hand.

We hope that Hon. George G. Dunn's health will be sufficiently restored, so as to permit him to become a candidate for reelection, should he be so disposed.—Religious Times.

We fervently hope for the speedy and complete restoration of Mr. Dunn's health. And then we want to see him hurried and rubbed down and put on the track again for Congress; for Judge HUGHES will be the Democratic candidate, and when he gets after Mr. Dunn, the latter will find it a hard road to travel. As a ready, fluent and able debater, HUGHES has no superior in the West. When the lightning of his wit begins to play around Mr. Dunn's devoted head he will feel more concerned than when "GREXLEY and the Devil" were after him, the other day, in Congress.

Rev. Sidney Dyer's Lectures.

On Tuesday and Wednesday next, we were favored with lectures by Rev. SIDNEY DYER, of Indianapolis, the distinguished song-writer.—The audiences, we regret to say, were not very large, though select, comprising a large portion of the elite of the city. The first lecture was on the "Philosophy of Criticism," and the second on "Lyric Poetry and Song-Writing." These lectures were very entertaining and instructive; but to use Mr. DYER's language, "brains are the cheapest commodity in the market." And, we venture to assert, that such is the morbid and perverted taste of the times, a larger audience could be collected in this place, to hear a concert by a company of Ethiopian serenaders, than to hear CHILDS HAROLD'S PILGRIMAGE declaimed by the author himself, if risen from the dead.

We are indebted to the Peoples' Express Company for frequent favors. This Company are entitled to great praise for their promptness and spirit.

We are indebted to G. H. ANDERSON, of the American Express Company, for files of the Indianapolis daily papers, delivered on the day of publication, twenty-four hours in advance of the mail.

The Law School of Judge HUGHES, commenced on the 1st instant. The Students, speak in the highest terms of the Judge's eminent ability as a Jurist and a Teacher.

We think the people of Gosport, ought to be interested in the New Purchase, from the fact that the author gives some reminiscences of the olden times, at that place (Glenville.)

Mr. DUNN has made the important announcement in Congress, that he will do his duty in spite of GREXLEY and the devil.

Our thanks are due Hon. JESSE D. BROWN for the "Addresses on the Presentation of the Sword of General JACKSON."

GORDON TANNER, of Indianapolis, State Librarian, well known to many of the citizens of this place, where he went to College a few years ago, is a candidate for Reporter of the Supreme Court. From an intimate acquaintance for six or seven years, we take pleasure in bearing testimony to his high qualifications for the duties of the office.

To

"They know not my heart, who believe there can be One stain of this earth, in feelings for thee! No—beaming with light as those young features are, There's a light round thy heart that is lovelier far: It is not that cheek—it is the soul dawning clear Through its innocent blush makes thy beauty so dear—As the sky we look up to, though glorious and fair, Is looked up to the more because heaven is there!"

Mr. PEARSON, of the White River Standard, need not trouble himself about the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district.—His attacks upon Judge HUGHES, and those of other Abolition Know Nothing papers, only show that the Judge is the man whom they most dread as a candidate for Congress. Never mind, gentlemen, the Democrats know their own business best, and are well aware that all they have to do, is to put Judge HUGHES in nomination in order to carry terror and defeat in the camp of the Know Nothing, Abolition, Mongrel, ring-streaked-and-striped hordes.

Colonel D. McClure, for Secretary of State.

We see that this gentleman is extensively spoken of as a candidate for Secretary of State. From a long personal and professional acquaintance with Colonel McClure, we take pleasure in saying that his nomination and election would afford great pleasure to numerous warm and admiring friends in this part of the State. Colonel McC. was a candidate for the Senate last year, in Morgan county; and was defeated and overborne by the tide of fanaticism at that time sweeping over the land. But the gallant manner in which he then bore the Democratic banner entitles him not only to the thanks of his party, but also more substantial rewards.

A Live Hindoo!

A great Hindoo Rajah, whom we have met in our travels, sends us word that he will be in Bloomington shortly, and will deliver a series of lectures about his native country—its History, Customs, Religion, &c., &c. He is a man of considerable learning, and practices the healing art. Wonderful cures are attributed to him. Look out for the great Hindoo!

School Exhibition.

The pupils of Mrs. McFerson's (Monroe County Female) Seminary gave an exhibition last night, at HEILROD'S Hall, consisting of Tableaux, Calisthenics, and Dialogues. Seldom have we been better entertained than at this exhibition. The Tableaux were well represented; and the Calisthenics were performed with such skill and grace as to personify the very poetry of motion. The Dialogues (barring a little forgetfulness of the role now and then) were spoken with a correctness, naturalness and spirit that were truly charming. We hope that the young ladies of this School will frequently favor us with similar exhibitions, and that Mrs. McFerson, the model teacher, will long remain in our midst as the Principal of this most excellent Seminary.

Read "A Fashionable Church in New York," on the outside of this paper.

The wings to the Court House are now approaching completion; and we may soon expect to see it fly away, as it looks more like a fly-up-the-creek than anything else.

He who has never edited a paper can have but a faint conception of the trials and difficulties attending the duties of an editor.—He frequently finds himself beset and abused by men whom he has always treated with kindness and courtesy; for no other reason than a difference of opinion. If he acquires any prominence as an editor he is made a mark for the shafts of a mean, low, and despicable malice from small-fry editors, without character or brains, and whom he cannot notice without humiliating condescension and a feeling of self-degradation.

Hurley's Sarsaparilla has performed some miraculous cures, and is now considered a sovereign remedy in Phthisis, Asthma, Bronchitis and all affections of the organs of respiration. It is moreover a sure cure for rheumatism and dyspepsia, and not unfrequently prescribed by the regular practitioner for those ailments, to the entire exclusion of Cherry Pectoral, or any expectorant now in use. The field of its usefulness is not alone confined to this city, for we repeatedly see cures chronicled in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan and many other States; by the timely use of this specific. And some idea of the magnitude of Dr. Hurley's business may be gleaned from the fact that his last order to Mr. DOUGLAS' Kentucky Glass Works for "Sarsaparilla" bottles amounted to the immense number of five hundred gross. We speak thus warmly in reference to this compound, and shall always feel pleasure in advising the afflicted community, "so far as comes within our knowledge" of not only the most popular, but likewise the best medicine extant, and when we say "palman qui meruit ferat," we only do a justice to our enterprising citizens, Dr. HURLEY and his medicine.—Lou. Times.

Remember, that on Saturday, the 29th instant, will be held the Democratic Mass Meeting, in Bloomington, to appoint delegates to the 8th of January Convention, and to organize for the coming canvass.

The interesting communication from our Indianapolis correspondent in relation to the Washington Monument, will be published next week. We have not room enough this week. We would be obliged to him for frequent favors of the same kind; and we will put his name down as a free subscriber to the News-Letter.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday morn'g, the 18th instant, at Bedford, by Rev. J. G. Williamson, of Paoli, Mr. Davis HARRIS to Miss JOSEPHINE GOODALE, both of Bedford.

Not only for the delicious snow-white wedding-cake—not merely because, by general consent, marriage is deemed a "paying institution,"—but from feelings of time-remembered friendship, and an appreciation of the excellent qualities of the bride and the bridegroom, do we offer them our warmest congratulations on the happy event above chronicled. Our young and valued friend, Miss JOSEPHINE, has, 'tis true, left many of her old female friends behind to enjoy yet awhile longer the sweets of single blessedness; yet what young lady in the land would not commit matrimony when she could get as good a fellow as Davis? Who'll be the next, in Bedford?

"There's a bliss beyond all that the minstrel hath told,
When two that are linked in one heavenly tie,
With heart never changing, and love never cold,
Love on through all ills and loves on through all die;
One hour of a passion so sacred is worth
Whole ages of heartless and wandering bliss;
And oh! if there be an Elysium on earth
It is this, it is this."

A NEW BOOK COMING.

WE have the pleasure of announcing that we have in press, and shall publish about the first of December, a new work of fiction, entitled

ROSE CLARK;

A ROMANCE—BY FANNY FERN.
The last work, and first continuous tale of this brilliant authoress, "Ruth Hall," achieved a success unparalleled in the annals of letters. In the language of a leading periodical it "created a most profound sensation than any which has been issued during the quarter of a century." But it is unnecessary to allude to the success of "Ruth Hall." Judging from the number of copies of it we have sold, we judge that every body in the United States has read it. As respects the work we have now in press, Rose Clark, we can only say that we regard it as, in every respect, a greater, better work, and are confident it will not only sustain, but even increase the reputation of its distinguished authoress. We have reasons for thinking that "Rose Clark" will make a greater sensation than did "Ruth Hall."
It will form an elegant 12mo. volume of over 400 pages. Price $1.25, on receipt of which copies will be sent by mail, post-paid. It will be for sale by all booksellers.

Knocking John Bull off Harlem Bridge!
Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

THIS invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is gaining wide celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and most effective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily sent in from all parts of the country, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other remedy proved ineffectual. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture readily yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless families rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you want the pure and genuine Sarsaparilla, that which is as different and superior to Bull's, Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sand's, Goyette's, Cox's, or any other compound, as one thing is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases scattered through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, beyond all doubt,
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Scrofula or King's Evil, Affections of the Bones, Syphilis, Debility, Habitual Costive-ness, Erysipelas, Catarrhs, Piles, Liver Complaints, Piles, Female Irregularities, Fistula, Skin Diseases, Diseased Kidneys, and as a great and powerful Tonic,
purifying the Blood,
and invigorating
the entire System.

Unlike other compounds which, when first introduced, are said to possess medical qualities, but soon degenerate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated fluid extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substances, and warranted never to degenerate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care devoted in combination, together with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Honduras or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and wide-spreading fame, coupled with unparalleled cures effected by its agency, have gained both public confidence and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SAR-SAPARILLA is the most valuable and wonderful medicine ever offered to the world.

LOUISVILLE, April 5, 1855.
Hurley's Sarsaparilla is what is represented, and I believe it the most wonderful medicine before the public. Nothing under heaven could induce me to say so without proof of the strongest and surest kind: therefore I speak willingly and positively on the subject.
My daughter was born afflicted with this disease, and stiffness of the joints for several years. I employed the principal physicians of this city, and they could not cure her. I gave her your Sarsaparilla, not expecting it would do much good, but, to my great astonishment, she rapidly got well, and, thank God, continues so.— Had she been taking any other medicine, I would not give this certificate; but your Sarsaparilla, the only one which leaves no injury to its medical qualities, and that it alone cured her.
Signed,
Any person requiring the truth and honesty of this statement, will find me at my residence, corner of Ninth and Walnut streets, Louisville.
Dr. Hurley—Sir: I have used your Sarsaparilla in Ohio, and have been cured of many diseases, and many other diseases connected with the female organization, and always found a happy result within a shorter space of time than is usually expended in the treatment. It is decidedly preferable as a general tonic to quinine, or preparations of iron, and an fully satisfied that it will become an established item in the physician's recipe.
Respectfully yours, ROBT. B. ABLETT, M. D.
Bloomington, Ind.

DOCTOR REASON.
LOUISVILLE, January, 1855.
Dr. Hurley—Sir: My wife has been afflicted with indigestion for ten years, and could never get cured.— Four bottles of your Sarsaparilla effectually removed her complaint.
WM. ELDRIDGE.
LOUISVILLE, March 19, 1855.
Having been engaged in the drug business for several years, I do not hesitate to pronounce Hurley's Sarsaparilla the best preparation now in use.
GEORGE MULLIKIN.
OREGON, Ind., Nov. 28, 1854.
Dr. Hurley—Sir: Your Sarsaparilla certainly deserves to supersede all other preparations of that medicine. Heretofore, the unsatisfactory results obtained from the use of Sarsaparilla, depended upon a want of skill in making proper sections for the different qualities found in our markets, and that which has been vended in the form of nostrums has generally been prepared by ignorant, incompetent and mercenary quacks, which, if containing any Sarsaparilla at all, was a very cheap and worthless article, and in the majority of instances left the sufferer in a much worse condition than before taking it. Having tested your Sarsaparilla, I am pleased to say that it is free from all impurities, and alluded to, and therefore take pleasure in recommending it to the confidence of the profession and to the afflicted public, and feel perfectly satisfied they will receive everything from it that is to be derived from the use of Sarsaparilla.
A Family Journal, on application, will be sent free to all parts of the Union.

Medicated Inhalation.
A NEW METHOD.
A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CUR-TIS' HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR, and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for several years past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. (See certificates in hands of agents.)
The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen;
without the least inconvenience, the use of the body being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid, and applying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine.
Here is a case:
ASTHMA CURED.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1853.
For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time
I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest
I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours
I could not get up from my bed, and my wife would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. At length had the good fortune to procure Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, or in the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—try it.

CONSUMPTION CURED!
New York, Dec. 27, 1853.
I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John, New Brunswick; what I received this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; bad pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr.
CURTIS' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

DR. LEWIS' MOTHERS' FRIEND.
THIS compound I have proved by practice of more than twenty years, and it has been proved effectious in the cure of diseases for which it is recommended, where there was any hope.
J. LEWIS,
Market st., between Second and Third.
JEFFERSON CO., Ky., arch, 1855.

Dr. Lewis—I take great pleasure in informing you that I consider your Mother's Friend, one of the very best compounds now offered to the public, and especially to afflicted females. For my wife it has worked wonder after a most tedious trial of three years with other medicines. After she had become much debilated and almost helpless, from the long continuance of useless drugs, she resorted to your Mother's Friend in connection with other prescriptions which you recommended. These she continued for a short length of time, when she recovered, and now enjoys the blessing of good health. One of my neighbors who was afflicted in a manner similar to that of my wife, took the same articles and it produced a most wonderful and speedy cure. It should be found in every family.
SAM'L B. WAOAK.
NEW ALBANY, 1854.

Dr. Lewis—I have used and thoroughly tried your Mother's Friend, and find it to be one of the best compounds for female weaknesses now extant; and further say that it may well be styled the Mother's Friend for all her specific ailments. It has performed cures that appeared almost incredible.
JOS. CADWALLADER.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., 1854.

Dr. Lewis—Dear sir: I cannot withhold my testimony as to the value of your Mother's Friend. It has been used freely in my family in distressing complaints, and always with the best effects. It is decidedly the most valuable medicine for female complaints generally.
I have ever known.
W. C. TAYLOR.
WORTHINGTON, Ind., 1854.

Dr. Lewis—I have sold for the last two years your female medicine called the Mother's Friend, and I never sold an article that gave better or more general satisfaction.
R. E. ANDREWS.
SALEM, Ind., 1854.

Dr. Lewis—This letter has been received, and it is with pleasure that I certify to thee and the world that the Mother's Friend stands without a rival in medicine for the cure of female ailments, and its effects surpass any preparations of that order ever sawn in those distressing and weakening diseases to which the sex is liable. It quiets the nervous agitation, and restores the natural secretions. Therefore I can safely recommend it to the special attention of my female friends every where, believing they will find it a friend indeed.
DR. THOMAS HODGINS.
HODGINSVILLE, July, 1854.

Dr. Lewis—I have been using your Mother's Friend in my practice, and it acts promptly as directed and for the uses for which it is recommended. One of my patients had been afflicted in a manner to be unable to ride on horseback for four years, but after taking one bottle of your Mother's Friend, she rode six miles and back the same day.
Yours,
DR. EDWARD SMITH.
CHARLESTON.

Dr. Lewis—I have used two bottles of your medicine called the Mother's Friend in my family, and feel disposed to recommend it as the best medicine in the market for the cure of female ailments, and especially for those who are afflicted with what is termed the change of life.
