Dr. Kane.

A SKETCH, BY DR. WILLIAM ELDER.

When a man's life is heroic, and his name has passed into history, the world wants to know him personally, intimately. The "grave and reverend chronicler," pass ing over his beginnings, presents him abruptly in his full-grown greatness; men render the admiration earned, but the sympathetic emulation awakened is concerned Biography answers them. Doctor Elisha Kent Kane is not quite

His collegiate studies suffered some postponement while his physical qualities pressed It was almost in the spirit of truancy that he explored the Blue Mountains of Virginia, as a student of geology, under the guidance of Professor Rodgers, and cultiwhich were to qualify him for his after services in the field of physical geography. But, in due time he returned to the pursuit had suffered no diversion-his muscles He graduated at the University of Pennsylvania-first, in its collegiate, and afterwards, in its medical, department. His The Philadelphia Ledger publishes a list special relishes in study indicated his natural drift: chemistry and surgery; natural science in its most intimate converse with substance, and the remedial art in its most heroic function. He went out from his Alma Mater a good classical scholar, a good chemist, mineralogist, astronomer and surgeon. But he lacked, or thought he lacked, robustness of frame and soundness of health. He solicited an appointment in the navy, and upon his admission, pointed upon the diplomatic staff as surgeon to the first American Embassy to China. This position gave him opportuter of Tael; lowered more than a hundred feet by a bamboo rope from the overhang-RECIPES. - For frost-bitten ears and noses aping cliff, and clambering down some seven hundred more through the scoriæ, he made a topographical sketch of the interior of this great volcano, collected a bottle of sulphurous acid from the very mouth of

From a speech of Hon. Howell Corn, the 6th of January:

It is peculiarly fitting for Democrats to associate on this day, because it is our province to meet together and extend to each other our congratulations on the glorious past of our country, and for the bright future which is in store for her we extend the hand of congratulation. We are not bound to pause and ask our brother, 'Where were you born and what is your religion?" (Applause and laughter.) It filled on this voyage. Fortunately no one was injured, but the escape of the hands upon the train and the passengers is most miraculous. On his examination before Esq. WHICH HAVE A COMMON ORIGIN IN MALARIA OR MIASMA.

THIS subtle atmospheric poison, which at certain seasous is unavoidably inhaled at every breath, is the same in character wherever it exists,—north, south, east, or west,—and will everywhere yield to this new ANTIDOTE, which neutralizes the poison, completely purifies the system, and thus entirely removes all the cause of disease.

The proprietor distinctly claims these extraordinary results from its use:

It will protect any resident or traveler, even in the the most sickly or swampy localities from any ague or bilious disease whatever, or any injury from constantly nhaling Malaria or Miasma. It will instantly check the ague in persons who have suffered for any length of time, from one day to twenty years, so that they need never have another chill, by

"THE MIRROR HELD UP TO NATURE."

Or, Early Years in the West. BY ROBERT CARLTON, ESQ.

OND EDITION, REVISED AND ILLUSTRATED. IN ONE YOL CLOTH. FRICE $1,25.

THIS work was first published by the Appletons, of New York, 1843, and was sold immediately at $1,50 per copy. The first edition, of 1,000 copies, was not sufficient for the demand and Mr. Appleton was sold, that he proposed to the author a new edition of 6,000 copies. Before any steps were taken to reprint, old Mr. Appleton died, and, as the work was not then stereotyped, his sons lost sight of it, and for more than ten years the book has therefore been out of print.

The publisher has now the gratification of offering a racy and brilliant book, which, for a time, had sunk UME. FOUR HUNDRED AND FIFTY PAGES. 1240.

a racy and brilliant book, which, for a time, had sunk into obscurity, but now appears again to delight and interest a new generation of readers.

The New Purchase is a truthful story of the life of the author for a period of nearly eight years, a portion of which time he was a Professor in the University of Indiana, and enjoyed the society of many men eminent in learning and politics. Amid the varied joys and sorrows, trials and triumphs, which attend the career of the author while sojourning in the West, he kindly introduces the reader to many of his cotemporaries, troduces the reader to many of his cotempo raries, some of whom are painted by a friendly hand, whilst others are touched as if with caustic: Some of the characters are General John McCalla, of Lexington, Ky., and now of Washington City; Prof. Harney of the Louisville Democrat; Governor Wright, of Indiana; the tate Governor Whitcomb; Prof. Bush of N. Y.; Hon. Paris C. Dunning; Austin Seward, Esq.; Rev. Andrew Wylie, D. D.; D. H. Maxwell, M. D.; Rev. Isaac Reed; Dr. R. Breckenridge, of Ky.; Rev. W. Martin, of Ind.; with many others whom it may not be advisable to mention.

On the death of Fuller, who was executed at Lawrence Burgh, Dearborn County, and Indiana. Wrote by Josiah I. Cooper, August 17, A. D., 1831, Clinton County, Indiana.

Ye sons of Columbia your attention I crave Whilst a sorrowful Dity I tell Which happened of late in the Indiana State On a hero who many did excele Like Sampson he courted and made choice of the fair Intending to make her his Wife Oh she cost him both his honor and his Life

A gold wring he gave her in token of love On the poesy was the image of the Dove And mutually agreed for to marry with Speed For she promised by the powers above His deportment was levely he was handsome and trim No man was more Loyal and Brave But I am sorry for to say instead of a wedding day Poor Fuller lies stient in the grave

For this feeble minded maid she Vowed again to Wead With young Warren a liver in that place
Which was a fatal blow for it prooved his overthrow
And added to her shame and disgrace
For Satan through the hands of the Woman laid a snare
To deprive these two heroes of their lives So young men be cautious be wise and be ware Of your Vows when you are courting of your Wives

For when Fuller came to hear that he was deprived o his dear Whom he had vowed by the powers for to Wead Straight to Warren he did go with heart so full of Woo And smiling unto him he said

Young man you have injured me to gratify your cause By Reporting I have left a prudent wife Oh acknowledge you have wronged me or the I Break

Oh Warren I'le deprive you of your life! Then Warren he Replied your Request must be denied

Unto your darling my heart it is bound And further I can say this is my wedding day In spite of all the heroes in Town
Then fuller by the passion of Love and anger bound Alas it caused many for to cry
For at one fatal shot he killed Warren on the spot And smiling said I am Willing for to Die.

A Poet's Miseries.

HIS FIRST APPEARANCE IN TYPE. Ah, here it is! I'm famous now; An author and a poet.

It really is in print. Ye gods!

How proud I'll be to show it—

And gentle Anna! what a thrill

Will animate her breast,

To read those ardent lines and know To whom they were addressed.

Why, bless my souli here's something wrong, What can the paper mean, By talking of the 'graceful brooks," That 'gander o'er the green?' And here's a t instead of r Which makes it 'tippling rill;'
We 'll seek some 'shad,' instead of 'shade,''
And 'hell' instead of 'hill.'

"Thy looks so" — what! — I recollect;
"T was 'sweet' and then 't was 'kind;" And now, to think!—the stupid fool! For 'bland' has printed 'blind. Was ever such provoking work? ('T is curious, by the by, That anything is rendered blind By giving it an i.)

Thou hast no tears, the t 's left out, 'Thou hast no ears,' instead: 'I hope that thou art dear.' I hope that thou art dead!' Who ever saw in such a space So many blunders crammed! 'Those gentle eyes bedimmed,' is here *Those gentle eyes bedamned!

The color of the 'rose' is 'nose,'
'Affection' is 'affliction.'
(I wonder if the likeness holds
In fact as well as fiction?) 'Thou art a friend.' The r is gone. Who ever would have deemed That such a trifling thing could change A friend into a fiend?

'Thou art the same,' is rendered 'lame;' It really is too bad! And here, because an i is out, My lovely 'maid' is 'mad,' They drove her blind by poking in An i—a process new— And now they 've gouged it out again, And made her crazy too.

I'll read no more. What shall I do? I'll never dare to send it,—
The paper's scattered far and wide,
'T is now too late to mend it,
O fame! thou cheat of human life, Why did I ever write? I wish my poem had been burned Before it saw the light.

Let's stop and recapitulate: L've 'damned' her eyes, that 's plain; L've told her she was lunatic, And 'blind' and 'dead' and 'lame.' Was ever such a horrid hash, In poetry or prose?
I've said she was a 'fiend,' and praised The color of her 'nose.'

I wish I had that printer here, About a half a minute;
I'd bang him to my heart's content, And with an h begin it.

I'd jam his body, eyes and bones, And spell it with a d; And send him to that hill of his That he spelt with an e.

Cheap Ice Houses.

A correspondent of the State Journal furnishes that paper with the following cheap and simple mode of erecting Ice Houses:

Take two inch oak plank and build a box eight feet square, seven feet high on one side, and ten high on the other, thus giving a pitch of three feet on the roof; leave it open three feet at the top on the ten-foot side for ventilation; double roof it with inch boards twelve feet long, letting them project out a foot at each end; set it in a shady place on descending ground, so that surface water will not accumulate; put a few loose boards on the bottom, and then fill in with saw dust eighteen inches; then procure the ice from eight inches to a foot thick, and build it up six square feet, (filling all the crevices with saw dust,) thus leaving a space all around the ice of one foot to be filled in with saw dust-throwing in all you can on the top. Thus you have an ice house complete, which will supply an ice house complete, which will supply any family. When you wish ice, hoe away the dust, take out your piece, and fill it up again, drop your ice into a bucket of water, and the saw dust immediately slips off from it. In this way, with only six cubic feet of ice, I not only had all I wanted for family use, but supplied a store, and had some for my neighbors besides.

Painting, and Linear Perspective,
Is about to form another class in Monochromatic Printing—that beautiful art. She learned of the sister of the inventor, (who understood it thoroughly,) and has had several years experience in teaching it.—She has her pupils to thoroughly understand it in all departments, or no pay; and includes in the course, drawing from Nature, so that pictures can be made from nature either large or small.

Mrs. G. will furnish good material to any scholar who desires it, at cost. Her terms for teaching either kind of painting are only half the usual price. Call at Mrs. Gillbert's residence and see specimens of her painting.

censure me unjustly or intemperately, I will fight them, but I hope to find them, as well as you, dear public, very kind friends of a loving author." In reviewing this work, the editor of the Criterion states: first, that he weighs 180 pounds; and secondly, that if the author can fight no better than he writes, he may as well stay at home.

Tennessee Democratic Convention.

The Democratic Convention of Tennessee, lately in session at Nashville, appointed two delegates from the State at large and two from each Congressional District resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That, in view of the difference of opinion as to the fittest persons to be selected at Cincinnati as candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, that the life as sured in saying he can sell goods in his stock consists partly of the following, to-wit:

600,000 lbs. Pumroy and Lousville Iron; the Presidency and Vice Presidency, that it is most expedient for this Convention not to express any preference for our fa-vorites, but leave to the General Conven-tion an unbiased judgment on the whole matter, recommending to them! the selection of a candidate from Tennessee for one of those offices, if it can be done without compromising the general welfare of the Democratic party.

Important to Postmasters.

Our attention has been called to the fact that some Postmasters are in the habit of sending back to the mailing office letters reaching them for delivery, because they were not prepaid by stamps, but by money. This is wrong, and arises from a misapprehension of the law. In no case, indeed, should a letter, after it has reached the office of delivery, be returned for postage, much less should it be returned because the postage was not paid by stamps. It is the general duty of Postmasters to see that letters are prepaid by stamps, but when (having been prepaid in cash, either through ignorance of the law, or inadvertance, or want of stamps on the part of the mailing Postmaster) they reach their destination, it is the duty of the Postmaster to deliver them the same as though prepaid by stamps. It will necessarily happen, in the introduction of the stamp pre-payment system, that supplies of stamps will fail to reach some of the signal remote offices at the proper full stock of Saddlery Hardware, and Saddlers' stock of Saddlery Hardware, and Saddlers' stock of Saddlery Hardware, and Saddlers' stock of Saddlers time, and it would be doing violence to the citizens of those localities to retain, and thus delay their correspondence, beand thus delay their correspondence, because of a circumstance so unavoidable. Department has instructed Postmasters, not having stamps, to forward letters as heretofore, when prepaid by money. If an unpaid letter, from any cause, gets into the mail, and reaches its destination, it should be delivered on payment of postage at prepaid rate.

AN INCIDENT THAT BEARS ITS OWN COMMENT. Isaac, a body servant of Gen. Quitman, arrived home a few days since. Shortly after the General reached Washington City, Isaac expressed a great desire to return home to Mississip'i. Upon being pressed for his reasons for so sudden a wish, he told his master that he had been repeatedly beset by two white men from Boston, who urged him to accept their aid to run from his master. He stated that he was afraid that he would be kidnapped into freedom, as he believed the two men were capable of any atrocity. The General gave Isaac a pass with which he safely reached home, to his infinite satisfaction .-Natchez Free Trader, 8th.

Justice from a Political Opponent.

A correspondent of the New Albany Tribune, a member of the Know Nothing party, Persons building will please call and examine our pays the following just tribute to A. P. WII. stock before purchasing elsewhere, July 28, 1855-22m6.

The Democracy of Indiana, I see by the papers, have brought out a strong ticket. Willard is undoubtedly the best man they could have selected for the gubernatorial race. Young, ambitious, daring, with a bold manly appearance—at home on the stump, in the caucus, "at the wires"—he is a foeman worthy the steel of any antagonist the Americans may select to lead them. With all his faults I like Willard. He has native genius, and native goodness of heart. He is a man of strong passions, but of strong affections. If he is uncompromising to his enemies, he is true to his friends—a rare quality in politicians. If he never forgives an injury, he never forgets a kindness. With rare intellectual powers, he has generous social qualities. If I had the unpleasant necessity of selecting a Governor from the Democracy of Indians, A. P. Willard would be my choice.

Knocking John Bull off Harlem Bridge!

Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

THIS invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is gaining wide celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and and has defective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily pouring in from all parts of the States, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other remedy proved ineffectual. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture readily yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless amilies rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you wantthe pure and genuine Sarsaparilla, that which is as different and superior to Bull's, Toward's Country of Country of the same of Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sands', Guysott's, Cox's, or any other compound, as one thing is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases scattered through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, bevond all doubt.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Scrof-ula or King's Evil, Af-fections of the Bones, Syphilis, Debility, Habitual Costiveness, Erysipelas, Pulmonary Diseases, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Irregularities, Fistula, Skin Diseases, Diseased Kidneys, and as a great and powerful Tonic, purifying the Blood, and invigorating the entire System.

Unlike other compounds which, when first introduced, are said to possess medical qualities, but soon degenerate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated fluid Extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substances, and warranted never to deviate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care devoted in combination, together with the important fact that it is combination, together with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Honduras or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and widespreading fame, coupled with unparableled cures effect ed by its agency, have gained both public confidence and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SAR-and business men of Indiana. Louisville, April 5, 1855 Hurley's Sarsaparilla is what is represented, and I believe it the most wonderful medicine before the public. Nothing under heaven could induce me to say so without proof of the strongest and surest kind; therefore I speak willingly and positively on the subject.

My daughter has been afflicted with skin diseases and stiffness of the joints for several years. I employed the principal physicians of this city, and they could not cure her. I gave her your Sarsaparilla, not expecting it would do much good, but, to my great astonishment, she rapidly got well, and, thank God, continues so.— Had she been taking any other medicine, I would not give this certificate; but your Sarsaparilla, the only remedy employed, leaves no doubt of its medical qualities, and that it alone cured her.

Signed,

LUKE REYNOLDS.

Any person requiring the truth and honesty of this statement, will find me at my residence, corner of Ninth and Walnut streets, Louisville.

DR. HURLEY—Sir: I have used your Sarsaparilla in Cholorosis, Ameorhem Leucorrhea, (Whites.) and many other diseases connected with the female organization, and always found a happy result within a shorter space of time than is usually expended in the treatment. It is decidedly preferable as a general tonic to quinine, or preparations of iron, and am fully satisfied that it will Respectfully yours ROBT. B. ABLETT, M. D. ELIZABETHTOWN, Ill.

Dr. Hurley—Sir: Your Sarsaparilla certainly deserves to supersede all other preparations of that med-Heretofore, the unsatisfactory results obtained from the use of Sarsaparilla, depended upon a want of skill in making proper selections from the different qualities found in our markets, and that which has been vended in the form of nostrums has generally been pre pared by ignorant, incompetent and merce nary quacks, which, if containing any Sarsaparilla at all, was a very cheap and worthless article, and in the majority of in stances left the sufferer in a much worse condition than before taking it. Having tested your Sarsaparilla, am pleased to say that it is free from the imperfection alluded to, and I therefore take pleasure in recommend ing it to the confidence of the profession and to the af-flicted public, and feel perfectly satisfied they will realize everything from it that is to be derived from the use of Sarsaparilia.

A NEW METHOD.

A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recent, a ly been made by Dr. Cuarts, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Infinitation. Dr. CURTIS HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPUR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. [See certificates in handles of agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid.—supply, ing the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine. Here is a case: Here is a case:

ASTHMA CURED. BROOKLYN. N. Y., Dec. 20, 1853

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for wantof breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—tax II.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

New York, Dec. 27 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my naive place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reachtive place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; but pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler; I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still weat the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and be the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

Dr. Lewis-I take great pleasure in informing you that I consider your other's Friend one of the very best compounds now offered to the public, and especially to afflicted females. For my wife it has worked wonders after a long and tedious trial of three years. with other medicines. After she had become much de-biliated and almost helpless, from the long continued nse of useless drugs, she resorted to your other's Friend in connection with other prescriptions which you recommended. These she continued for a short length of time, when she recovered, and now enjoys the bless ing of good health.
