FRIEND CARLTON: I confess I was somewhat astonished to see in the last News Letter that old, stereotyped slander against one referred to. what are usually termed the "Hardshel Baptists"—not because I supposed you really had any affiliation with, or sympathy for, religiously, a sect so humble in pre tensions, so weak in numbers, and every where so abundantly spoken against. True vou call it a libel, and pass it off withou dianapolis, and heard the same tale related the last persons to cast reflections upon by a dandy, to the great amusement of a bar room full of loafers. Here the conversation dropped low the impropriety of inserting such balderdash in your valuable paper is obvious to me, for two reasons—first, it shows worn-out anecdotes that everybody has heard many times before. Nothing is more insipid than to be compelled for manners' sake to sit and listen to a numbskull telling the same thing before he was born. You would at once set him down as a bore, and if he persisted in such things you would

Beware of stronghypocrisy enough in the Black Republican press to garble and publish that article as coming from, or sanctioned by, the editor of the News-Letter. They can easily leave out all you say about libel.

It is well understood here and elsewhere that your ancestry, in part, were what were termed Hardshell Baptists; and that you knew something of their history. It is some extent, the practice of these old Hardshells, and many of these reformers, let me tell you, are among the boldest proand perhaps claims affinity, by virtue of his wife, with the Christian Church here. The opinion appears to have gained ground to a considerable extent that Know Nothingism was defunct, and that the leaders of that widespread conspiracy had abandoned their attempt to govern this free country, by means of an unhallowed secret combination, unlawful in its purposes, and treasonable in its mode of promoting them. We had hoped this was the case. But we regret to say we have evidence to the contrary. Another effort is to be made to introduce the reign of terror and of blood. On last Monday night there was a meeting, and a pretty large one, of the secret order in this place. They are evidently drilling their forces and preparing for another war. Whoever will listen to the conversation of their little squads in public places, observe how they all sing the same tune, and mark the uniform malignity of their tone towards the Democratic party and all who sympathize with it, -will be convinced at once that the poisonous influences of the secret lodges are at work.

"NATURE'S GUIDE," By Dr. A. R. KINKELIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

THIS is a remarkably skilful work, and one which possesses intense interest for all classes. Its tone is that of high moral feeling, and while it glances at a hidden cause of feeble adolescence, a still feebler man hood, an impaired intellect, and too frequently also, of an early death, it contains no phrase or expression of an impure or immodest character. The author is known for his successful treatment of the mournful maladies The successful treatment of the mourn ful maladies which are the bitter fruits of indiscretion, and his book, dictated by the pen of experience, should be extensively read. It will generate grave thoughts and suggest useful reflections.

The Death of Fuller.

In accordance with the desire expressed by the New Albany Tribune, we have pursued our antiquarian researches in regard to the song concerning the death of Fuller, a part of which we published a few weeks ago. We are now able to lay before our readers the enof UNKY Pullen, Esq., who says he learned it from Esq. McCovnell, now living in Crawfordsville, formerly where the tragic scene occurred. We are further into a brother of the brave and lamented Fuller:

Ye sons of Columbia your attention I crave Whilst a sorrowful Dity I tell Which happened of late in the Indiana State On a hero who many did excele Like Sampson he courted and made choice of the fair Intending to make her his Wife But she like Delilah when his heart she did onsnare Oh she cost him both his honor and his Life A gold wring he gave her in token of love

On the poesy was the image of the Dove And mutually agreed for to marry with Speed For she promised by the powers above His deportment was lovely he was handsome and trim No man was more Loyal and Brave But I am sorry for to say instead of a wedding day Poor Fuller lies silent in the grave

For this feeble minded maid she Vowed again to Wead With young Warren a liver in that place Which was a fatal blow for it prooved his overthrow And added to her shame and disgrace For Satan through the hands of the Woman laid a snar To deprive these two heroes of their lives So young men be cautious be wise and be ware

Of your Vows when you are courting of your Wives For when Fuller came to hear that he was deprived of Whom he had vowed by the powers for to Wead Straight to Warren he did go with heart so full of Woo And smiling unto him he said

Young man you have injured me to gratify your cause By Reporting I have left a prudent wife Oh acknwledge you have wronged me or tho I Break

Oh Warren I'le deprive you of your life Then Warren he Replied your Request must be denied

Unto your darling my heart it is bound And further I can say this is my wedding day In spite of all the heroes in Town Then fuller by the passion of Love and anger bound Alas it caused many for to cry
For at one fatal shot he killed Warren on the spot "And smiling said I am Willing for to Die

Then Fuller was condemned by the Honorable Court Of Lawrence Burgh in Dearborn for to die That ignominious death to hang above the earth Like Haman on the gallows so High

The moments doth draw Nigh when brave Fuller has to die

He smiling Bids his audience adieu Like an angel he Did stand, For he was a handsome man And on his breast he wore a ribbon of blue

But the good God of Love looked with anger from above And the rope broke asunder as they stood But two Doctors for their prey

Murdered him as we may say

For they hung him by the main strength of Hand

Now his body it was Buried and the doctors lost their prey
And the harlot was deprived of the Groom

Whilst thousands of spectators smole upon their breasts And sorrowfully lamented his sad doom Its not a realizing sperit nor an avaricious mind No nor really is it my design Just look in Joshua King Samuel and Job And the truth of my story you will find That marriage is a lottery and theres few that gain

the prize

She had come, she said, with a glance full of melancholy, and a tone of more than womanly tenderness, to ascertain of the doctor, in person, whether she could secure private quarters for her husband, who was subject to intense fits of aberration of mind, but whose conduct towards her, bitter and cruel as it was, could not alienate her love for him, which was the all-pervading passion of her soul. The carriage drove away, the doctor's eyes followed in its wake, until it was entirely lost in view. Down to the bridge, along the crowded thoroughfare, over the pebbled way of Chestnut street to a fashionable, if not the most fashionable jewelry establishment of our city, the carriage I gazed again upon that place, the place where I was passed, its sweet and solitary inmate glancing out and smiling within, and growing radiant with a thought that requires another paragraph to learn.

She had picked up her wrong port-monnaie, she said, with bewitching sweetness, and she was vexed at her stupidity. She, however, could arrange it. She was the wife of Dr. —, the principal physician of the Insane Hospital, and she desired an attendant to accompany her to that place, when she would pay him at once. Who and others visiting Cincinnati, are invited to call and could resist such a request from a beautiful woman—a request spoken as much with the eyes as the voice? Not the clerk. certainly.

The two got into the carriage together and back it whirled to the Hospital. The lady jumped from the carriage, and was warmly greeted by the Doctor, who was at the entrance.

"Doctor, this is my husband," said she, with an air at once sweet and sorrowful.

The poor attendant started. He was struck aghast. He could not fathom her meaning.

Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

This invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is gaining wide celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and most effective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily pouring in from all parts of the States, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other recorder proved in offective. remedy proved ineffectual. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture readily yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless amilies rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you want the pure and genuine Sarsaparilla, that which is as different and superior to Bull's, Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sands', Guysott's, Cox's, or any other compound, as one thing is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases scattered through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, be-

System.
Unlike other compounds which, when first introduced, are said to possess medical qualities, but soon de-generate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated luid Extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substances, and warranted never to deviate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care devoted in combination, together with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Honduras or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and wide-spreading fame, coupled with unparalleled cures effect ed by its agency, have gained both public confidence and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SAR-SAPARILLA is the most valuable and wonderful medicine ever offered to the world.

Louisville, April 5, 1855. Hurley's Sarsaparilla is what is represented, and I pelieve it the most wonderful medicine before the public. Nothing under heaven could induce me to say so without proof of the strongest and surest kind; therefore I speak willingly and positively on the subject. My daughter has been afflicted with skin diseases and stiffness of the joints for several years. I employed the principal physicians of this city, and they could not cure her. I gave her your Sarsaparilla, not expecting it would do much good, but, to my great astonishment, she rapidly got well, and, thank God, continues so.— Had she been taking any other medicine, I would not give this certificate; but your Sarsaparilla, the only remedy employed, leaves no doubt of its medical qualities, and that it alone cured her.

Dr. Hurley—Sir: I have used your Sarsaparilla in Cholorosis, Ameorhoa Leucorrhea, (Whites,) and many other diseases connected with the female organization, and always found a happy result within a shorter space of time than is usually expended in the treatment. It is decidedly preferable as a general tonic to quinine, or preparations of iron, and am fully satisfied that it will become an established item in the physician's recipe. Respectfully yours ROBT. A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curris, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAP. R and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. [See certificates in hauds of agents.]

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine.

Here is a case:

ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN. N. Y., Dec. 20, 1853.

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has elieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—TRY IT.

CONSUMPTION CURED!

CONSUMPTION CURED:

NEW YORK, Dec. 27 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; bad pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler; I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its pearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took pearance upon the surface under the lunaier. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel numilling at present to dispense with it. feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

DR. LEWIS' MOTHERS' FRIEND.

THIS compound I have proved by practice of more than twelve years, and it has ever proved efficaed, where there was any hope.

M. L. LEWIS, Market st., between Second and Third. JEFFERSON Co., K y., arch, 1855.

Dr. Lewis—I take great pleasure in informing you that I consider your other's Friend one of the very best compounds now offered to the public, and especially to afflicted females. For my wife it has worked wonders after a long and tedious trial of three years with other medicines. After she had become much de-biliated and almost helpless, from the long continued use of useless strugs, she resorted to your other's Friend in connection with other prescriptions which you ccommended. These she continued for a short length of time, when she recovered, and now enjoys the blessing of good health. One of my neighbors who was afflicted in a manner similar to that of my wife, took the same articles and it produced a most wonderful and speedy cure. It should be found in every family.

Dear Friend—Thy letter has been received, and it is with pleasure that I certify to thee and the world that thy preparations called the Mother's Friend stands that thy preparations called the Mother's Friend stands without a rival in medical practice. I have used it, and its effects surpass' any preparations of that order I ever saw, in those distressing and weakening diseases to which the sex is liable. It quiets the nervous agitation, and restores the natural secretions. Therefore I can safely recommend it to the special attention of my female friends every where, believing they will find it a friend indeed.
