The Winchester (Randolph co.) Journal states that on the 16th instant an inquest was held on the body of PATRICK GREELY, of Union City in that county. It appears that GREELY, together with Frank Campbell, Ben. Fowler, and Wilson Linsey, procured a jug of whisky (the Maine law to the contrary notwithstanding) and repaired to his (G.'s) house to drink it. GREELY soon got drunk, and, with his wife. went to bed. The other three men took another bed in the room. Mrs. Greeky went to sleep, but was awakened by an unusual noise. She got up, and found her husband in bed with FOWLER and LINSEY, and CAMPBELL in her own bed. In the morning it was found that GREELY was dead. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that he came to his death by the immoderate use of liquor furnished him by the other men "for the purpose of reveling with the said GREELT'S wife."

[For the News-Letter.] MESSRS. EDITORS:—I wish to get my name in the News-Letter as a Know Nothing. I have been branded with the assertion that I am a member of the so-called order, and have been since its first organization in this part of the country. I have positively denied being a Know Nothing, which you know to be the best evidence that I am one, if the exposition be true; If I confess that I am one, I am perjured; if I deny it, that proves me to be one.

Since you addressed the citizens of Van Buen township, the general, and, I may say, the special topics of the day, have been Carlton, Know Nothingism, and the Liquor Law. I wish to give your numerous readers a summary thinks the more. of last Saturday's proceedings in the town of Stanford. In the first place, my business requires me to write two or more letters every mail day; on that day, it became necessary for me to write five. As usual, I was watched very closely, and as two of them were letters containing money, I tried to be as cautious as possible. The caption of one of the letters had your name upon it. After I had written a few lines informing you that I wished you to send me some blank executions, I was called away for a few minutes; when I returned, I discovered two young gentlemen, members of "Sam's" family, (by their actions) peeping through the railings of the letter-box, who seemed to be very much boasts of being a descendant of the Irish family, and strongly in favor of Know Nothingism. He put me very much in mind of my old friend's dream-he dreamed that all dreams were lies, and if all dreams are lies, then his dream was also a lie. Just so with this gentleman. He said Know Nothingism was the best institution that his information from the exposition, or some one has perjured himself by giving him any information on the subject; and, reasoning in the same way that he reasons upon the subject, we would come to the conclusion that his assertion is not reliable, as he obtained it from a perjured

If the exposition be true, (which is as good evidence as we can get,) he nor his family cannot enjoy any of the benefits from the order; if last fall, Mr. C. everywhere denied all conit be not true, how does he know anything relative to the order? He makes bold to say that tomed to do for some twelve months, deny being a Know Nothing, which is the first and best evidence that I am one. There were many other things said by this honest and patriotic Irishman, in holding up the new fledged party and trying to tear down the Democracy of this had been. If there is any little dark hole der to this most accursed of all despotisms be heard, and have persons pay great respect to ington, where a diminutive specimen of his opinions, but if auditors seem to take part in the conversation by trying to uphold Jackson

I will drop you a few hints by which you and your readers in this part of the country may know who favor the Know Nothing principles. I shall not give them as being Know Nothings, for then I should perjure myself if I am one. You have already had a description of the honest Irishman in the above.

In the next place I will give you a short description of the man who can boast of his scars made by bowie-knives, brick-bats, &c. He would not take advantage of a drunk man and pelt him, so that he would have to take refuge under the shelter of delicate females, and rush treaties. Such a man would not use a yard stick on a boy's head for no offence, nor interfere between two boys when disputing, and threaten to "knock Jesus Christ" out of the smaller one, for the sake of making the people think him a bully. Such a man would not threaten to egg one of his fellow-citizens, simply because he declares his principles to the people from the stump, and exposes the Know Noth-

The next character is a young man who is willing to endorse anything, he says, which is opposed to Democracy.

I next present for inspection a very slender specimen of the human family, in point of development, both of mental and physical structure. Such a man would not (of course) try to raise a fuss with an old man, because he won't believe the K. N. doctrines.

I next present to you a rather sickly Democrat, who seems to have suffered somewhat from the epidemic, (Know Nothingism,) but he appears to be rather in a state of convalescence, and I think, with good attention, he may yet be saved, although the case is doubtful.

Mount Vernon, Ind., July 6, 1855. DEAR SIR-The numerous letters addressed to me in relation to the will of the late William Maclure, deceased, compel me to adopt this mode of answering

William Maclure, a Scotchman by birth, died in the City of Mexico, on the 23d day of March, 1850, leaving an estate at that time probably worth $500,000; the largest part of which consisted of Spanish property, real estate in this country, and Pennsylvania and French Stock. The will, after making several specific legacies, provides that the residue of his estate, shall be distributed amongst the working classes, who earn their living by the sweat of the brow," upon the following condition, "that as soon as any institute, club or society of laborers, who work with their hands, shall establish a reading and lecture room, with a library of at least one hundred volumes, then and not till then, my Executors are authorized to aid and assist them with a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars." The Executors appointed by the will, vere Alexander Maclure and Anna Maclure, brother and sister of the testator, who resided in New Harmony, in this county. Alexander was qualified as executor, and gave bond in the penalty of only 30,-

Being advised by council, that the will vas void for uncertainty, and that he and nis sisters were the owners of the estate by inheritance, the will was wholly disregarded, and the property wasted and scattered, with a generous and careless hand. After a large part of the estate had been thus disposed of, the Probate Court removed him from his trust, and appointed me administrator with the will annexed. The construction of the will remained in doubt, until the November Term, 1854, of our Supreme Court, when it was fully settled in he case of Sweeny and others vs. Sampson, Executor; the Court holding, that the bequests to laboring men were within the Statute of charitable uses, 43 Eliz. Chap. 4th, and not void for uncertainty. The will, will be found at full length in that case; see 5 Indiana Rep. page 465, which will be published soon.

The amount that will come into my hands for distribution, probably will not exceed 70,000 dollars, the principal part of which, will be given to clubs, societies, and institutes, in conformity wih the provisions of the will.

The Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of this County having been engaged as council for Alex. Maclure, the former Executor, the business and settlement of the estate has been transferred to the Posey Circuit Court, and for my own safety I shall require in all cases the sanction of that Court in advance, before I shall aid any institute or club.

1st. That the Society has been organized as a Corporation, -see 1, Revised Statutes.

2d. That the Society has at least one hundred volumes of books and that it has established a reading and lecture room.

3d. A catalogue of books, the names and avocations of the members, with the constitution of the society should also be exhibited to the court.

My position as administrator, and the numerous applications presented, make it improper and impossible, that I should aid you further in presenting your claims. It will therefore become necessary, that you should send an agent to make the necessary proofs before our court, or that you should employ some attorney to attend to the business pertaining to your application. Should you adopt the latter course your business may be safely entrusted to either of the following gentlemen who are practicing attorneys, residing in this place-Hon. John Pitcher, Hon. George S. Green; Thomas B. Holt, Esq., or Joseph P. Edson, Esq.

As the funds will not be sufficient to ties which appear to be the most permament and useful will be preferred.

Respectfully Yours,

ALVIN P. HOVEY.

. Mr. J. C. S. CHIPMAN is respectably connected, and makes some pretensions to respectability himself; yet the assassin-like act which we have laid before the public, is characteristic of the man as he is known by those who are well acquainted with him; and, accordingly, we find that some time ago he was arrested in Louisville, for feloniously passing counterfeit money; and, although the evidence was clear, he escaped the penitentiary, by proving his good character by a respectable and credible witness, Dr. JOSEPH G. McPHEETERS, who seems to be always on hand when a little dextrous swearing is to tions, their slanders and their deadly hate, we be done.

And why? It is because we stand in the way of Dr. McPheeters' acquittal of the crime of perjury, with which he stands charged, and because we have brought to light the members of a foul conspiracy against the rights of the people and the purity of the ballot-box, and assailed their principles. Our assault upon this nest of moral traitors, of whom Dr. McPheeters is a leading member, was most opportune for his purposes. It enabled him to bring to his aid, in his dark work of wholesale defamation, his sworn confederates, whose secret oath of brotherhood bound them to aid him in his extremity, and whose vengeful fury at their detection and exposure, stimulated them to a faithful compliance with the letter and spirit of that unholy

The public can see well illustrated in this case, the working of these secret oath-bound, unhallowed combinations, and their fearful power over the characters and personal safety of men. While they maintain their reign of terror, no man is safe. We find they have possession of the streets of our village; though few in numbers, their concerted clamor gives their foul aspersions the appearance of embodied public opinion. Against them and their persecuappeal to the orderly and upright citizens of every class in town and country-and the appeal will not be in vain.

[From the Daily Pennsylvanian.] The Burial of Sam.

The following was found on one of the platforms in independence square on Saturday night, after the funeral of Sam had been adjourned by the rain, and it is the West

Many drums were heard and the fife's shrill note. As his corpse to the "culvert" we hurried;
Many throats were "wet," and many a coat,
On the night the rascal was buried.

We buried him darkly at the dead of night, While the rain in deluge was pouring,
'Neath no struggling moonbeams' misty light,
But the thunder incessant roaring. No useless coffin enclosed his breast;

We laid him away as we found him; And he lay like a loafer taking his rest, With his tattered rags around him. No hymn was sung, nor prayer was said, And we dropp'd not a tear of sorrow:
For now that our idol was hopelessly dead,
We had other thoughts for the morrow.

Tis true we all strove to keep him alive With "black drops" and pills, each sad mourner; But too much physic has settled his hash, And like his friend Poole, he's a "goner!" Dark and grimly we laid him down, In the den of his shame, damp and hoary; We carved not a line, we raised not a stone,

But we left him alone, the old tory! And now that our dirty work was done, And with 'lanterns' we were retiring, We heard the booming and distant gun

The victorious "Locos" were firing. Lighty they'll laugh o'er poor "Sam" who is gone, And for his dark crimes will berate him;

But little he'll reck, and doubtless sleep on.
Where the hands of the traitors have laid him! PHILADELPHIA, June 16th, 1855. A RETORT. BY GEORGE P. MORRIS Old Birch, who taught a village school,

He was as stubborn as a mule, And she as playful as a rabbit Poor Kate had scarce become a wife, Before her husband sought to make her The pink of country polished life, And prim and formul as a quaker.

Wedded a maid of homespun habit;

One day the tutor went abroad, And simple Kitty sadly missed him; When he returned, behind her lord She slyly stole and fondly kissed him!

The Husband's anger rose! and red And white his face alternative grew! Less freedom, ma'am!" Kate sighed and said, Oh dear? I did'nt know 'twas you?'

The following are the rates at which the Prairie City Bank, Terre Haute, is buying Indiana Free Bank Money, as taken from the Courier of that city. Some may ask why we quote at the Terre Haute rates. Our answer is, because the papers of neither Indianapolis The steamer Arago arrived off Sandy or New Albany publish them at all, so far as we have observed. We shall correct the list weekly, and our readers may rely on its correctness.

This shows that about one person in 9000 will be likely to live to that age. The French census of 1851 shows only 102 persons over 100 years old though their population was near 36,000,-000. SINGULAR PHENOMENON ON THE RIVER. The officers and others on the Memphis packet Tishomingo, on her trip up the Ohio river Thursday evening, saw a singular, and we may add frightful upheaving of the river or black water spout, just ahead of them, near Alton and Wolf Creek. The river, which is very deep at that point was in great commotion about the middle of the river, and a dense mass rose from the surface, having the appearance at first of a couple of laden coal boats up-ended in the river and then sunk down again .-This black mass, as it appeared to be, rose from ten to twenty feet above the level of the river four or five times, and then sunk down again. In the mean time the boat was approaching near the scene, and the last time, covering a space of thirty or forty feet, it rose or belched forth like a huge volume of black slime or froth, fully fifteen feet high, all of which was seen by the officers of the boat. As soon as it subsided the river was covered with patches of black looking slime and filth, which spread widely over the surface of the water in some instances, while other portions sunk immediately. The weather was clear and calm. No emotion, jar, or shaking was felt on the boat, and nothing unusual perceived on the shore. The cause of this black water spout, or water quake, we leave to philosophers to explain .- Louisville Courier.

An Editor Witness in a Liquor Case.-The editor of the Albany Knickerbocker Hugh J. Hastings, is a well known wit and wag. He was lately a witness in a liquor case, and testified as follows:

My profession is the newspaper profession; I am the proprietor and publisher of the Knickerbocker; I remember the occasion referred to by Mr. Johnston, the last witness; I had no malady at the time, except it was a slight thirst; I was not sick; I know Mr. Landon; Mr. Landon's barkeeper handed the brandy to me, and Mr. Johnston paid for it; never have been intoxicated on brandy, I cannot tell whether it is an intoxicating liquor; I am a pretty good judge of the quality of brandy; in my judgment it was not American manufac-tured brandy.

Medicated Inhalation.

A NEW METHOD. MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recent-

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curris, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS HYGEAN VAPOR ing been engaged in the above business for twenty years, flatters himself that he can execute work that wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the wonderful cures of Asthma and consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. [See certificates in hands of agents.] The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the lines being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid,—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine. Here is a case: ASTHMA CURED.

BROOKLYN. N. Y., Dec. 20, 1853.

For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr. Curtis' Hygean or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonnlied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoon ful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—ray rr. MARGARET EASTON.
CONSUMPTION CURED:

CONSUMPTION CURED!

New York, Dec. 27 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; bad pain in my left side, and cian pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily be lieve was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler; I found it relieved the pressure on of Syphilis, in the worst form, by Carter's Spanish Mixmy lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took he Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

"Think Close and Ponder Well," The Principles upon which it is claimed that the Chains The Principles upon which it is claimed that the Chains produce their marvelous cures, are, first—that all Nervous Diseases are attended and produced by a deficient supply of Nervous Fluid, and an agent that resembles closely Electricity, or Electro Magnetism; and second—that the Electro Magnetic Chains, by being worn over and upon the part and organ diseased, furnish to the exhausted Nervous system, by its powerful stimulating effects, the Nervous Fluid which is required to produce a healthy action through the entire system. No Disgusting Nostrum is allowed to be taken while using the Chains, but a rigid observance to the general laws of health are required. Brisk Friction upon the part diseased adds much to the effect of the Chains, by increase ing their Magnetic Power. ing their Magnetic Power.
