VOL. II.

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 21, 1855.

NO. 21.

Bloomington News Letter.

THE Lenoir's, which has long been the oldest and most noted of the Kenoles, is now removed to the county seat. The writer who has been the editor of the Lenoir for the last three years, is now gone to Iowa to take up a farm. The present editor is Mr. J. B. Stouten, of the Lenoir. He has been for several years a resident of the country, and is well known for his ability and industry.

The American Journal of Science is now in circulation.

The Green River, which has been for several years a favorite resort of tourists, has been opened to navigation by the construction of a dam and a lock, which will enable vessels to pass the channel. The dam is now in course of construction.

The Illinois Gazette is now in existence.

The Chicago Times is now in circulation.

The political state of the Union has been the topic of much discussion for the past few weeks. The Republicans have been very active in attempting to prevent the passage of the Excess Tax Law, and have been quite successful. The Democrats have been equally active in supporting the measure, and have been just as successful. The Union is now in a state of equipoise.

The Southern States have been in a state of great excitement for the past few weeks. The negroes have been very restless, and have been demanding their freedom. The whites have been quite alarmed, and have been attempting to prevent the negroes from getting their freedom.

An Act of the New York State Legislature making it a crime to utter any threatening or abusive language against the person of the President of the United States, has been passed. This act has been strongly opposed by the Republicans, who have been very active in attempting to have it declared unconstitutional. The Democrats have been equally active in supporting the measure.

The Supreme Court of the United States has been in session for the past few weeks. The cases have been very important, and have been much discussed.
