Springfield, Illinois, February 17th, 1856.

Editor Republican: It is our painful duty to give you the particulars of the most disgraceful transaction, the most infamous fun," as they said. outrage that has ever occurred in our State

Yourself and readers are doubtless aware that, during the month of October last, a man named Ellington was killed in Charleston, Coles county, by another named Monroe. Both parties were men of instance of Monroe, for the purpose of procuring a change of venue to another county, so that he might be tried in the coming spring, and that his trial might not be delayed and he detained in custody until the next fall. When the Court met, a mob collected about the Court House and threatened the prisoner with instant execution should he apply for a change of venue; in fact, some persons in the mob had procured a rope for the purpose of langing him should he apply for a change

The prisoner, or his counsel, being overawed by the proceeding of the mob, dared not to ask for the change, but proceeded with the trial, which resulted in the prisoner being found guilty of murder by the Jury. He was sentenced to be hung on the 15th of the present month.

A short time previous to the time fixed by the Court for the execution, the Governor received various letters and petitions from respectable citizens, that a respite might be granted, and that the execution might be stayed until the 15th of next May; the letters and petitions stating that the prisoner had not the full benefits of the law—that he was prevented from obthe violence of the mob, and the time between his sentence and that fixed for his execution was unusually short. The Governor concluding that the law would be as twelve churches in a certain county in that well satisfied by delaying the execution State without ministers—the former preachers for three months, and for fear the prisoner's rights might be prejudiced, humanely granted the respite.

A messenger was dispatched on Wed nesday morning last, with the respite, to the Sheriff of Coles county.

Notwithstanding the respite of the Governor, the mob, with the same leaders who prevented the prisoner from taking a change of venue, collected on the day appointed by the Court for the execution. proke open the jail, and brutally and inmurdered him.

Below, I give you the proceedings of the mob, which I have collected from notes made by the messenger of the Governor, at the time; they may be relied on as correct for he was an eye-witness to the whole affair. He says:

"At the request of the Governor, I left ham. Springfield on Wednesday morning, February 13th, for Charleston, Coles county, containing a respite for Monroe, and also a letter from himself to the Sheriff. MR. FILLMORE'S VIEWS ON SLAVERY.

Mr. FILLMORE was President, by the death General TAYLOR, when the Compromise Measures of 1850, (the Fugitive Slave law included) were passed, and he signed them.

Under his administration they were put in

In his first annual message to Congress, Mr. FILLMORE was careful to record his adherence to the Compromise Measures of 1850.

He says; "The series of measures to which I have alluded, are regarded by me, as a settlement in principle and substance, a final settlement of the dangerous and exciting subjects which they embraced." It will be observed, olution adopted by the Convention that afterwards nominated Gen. Scott.

As to Mr. Donelson, the candidate for Vice President, he was a Democrat, and lately one fell out with President PIERCE because he would not feed him on Treasury pap. He then joined the Know Nothings, the general receptacle for sore heads and renegades, and in June, 1855, participated in the Know Nothing National Council, which adopted the famous twelfth section, or pro-slavery platform as it State Street, between Main and Market, bolted, and held a meeting at Cleveland Ohio where the great "Republican," party was born and christened.

The Fusion Convention of Indiana, of July 13th, 1855, fell in with this Republican party, under the guidance of HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts, one of its fathers.

A Wonderful Discovery

Has recently been made by Dr. Curtis of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the lungs. We refer to "Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innum erable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician remarks:—It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal breathing must come in direct contact with the breating an agreeate, hearing the properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the grial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the

WILLIAM PATTON,

This is a remarkably skilful work, and one which possesses intense interest for all classes. Its tone is that of high moral feeling, and while it glances at a hidden cause of feeble adolescence, a still feebler manhood, an impaired intellect, and too frequently also, of manded by said execution, I will, at the same time and place, offer the fee simple of said real estate to the highest bidder for cash in hand. The Modern Belle,

BY JOHN G. BAXE. The daughter sits in the parlof, And rocks in her easy chair! She is clad in her silks and satins, And jewels are in her hair:
She winks, and giggles, and simpers,
And simpers, and giggles and winks;
And though she talks but little,
'T is vastly more than she thinks.

Her father goes clad in his russet, And ragged and seedy at that; His coats are all out at the elbow— He wears a most shocking bad hat. He 's hoarding and saving his shillings, So carefully day by day, While she on her beau and her poodles, Is throwing it all away.

She lies abed in the morning, Till nearly an hour of noon; Then comes down snapping and snarling, Recause she was called so soon; Her hair is still in the papers, Her cheeks still dabbled with paint— Remains of her last night's blushes. Before she intended to faint.

She doats upon men unshaven, And men with the "flowing hair;" She 's eloquent over moustaches, They give such a foreign air; She talks of Italian music, And falls in love with the moon And though but a mouse should meet her, She sinks away in a swoon.

Her feet are so very little, Her hands so very white, Her jewels so very heavy, And her head so very light; Her color is made of cosmetics, Though this she will never own: Her body is made mostly of cotton-Her heart is made wholly of stone.

She falls in love with a fellow Who swells with a foreign air, He marries her for her money, She marries him for his hair; One of the very best matches— Both are well mated in life; She's got a fool for a husband, He's got a fool for a wife.

Jubilate.

Jubilate! I am loved! And his lips at length have said it; Long since in his eyes I read it. But I thought it could not be .-Ah! what happiness for me!

Now I am like a little queen. And very pleasant 't is, I ween; Whatso'er I do or say Seemeth good and right alway.

Jubilate! I am loved! To see him kneeling at my feet, Oh! 't is sweet—'t is very sweet! Every day and every hour Do I glory in my power!

Jubilate! I am loved! So dearly loved, that, till I prayed, I was more than half afraid;— Lord forgive my sins, and make Me pure and good for his dear sake!

Jubilate! I am loved! Lord! forgive my glorying! To thy dear cross I meekly cling! Let the love he beareth me; Led him--lead us both—to thee!

Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

THIS invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is gaining wide celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and most effective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily pouring in from all parts of the States, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other transfer proved ineffectual. Diseases which for warrs remedy proved ineffectual. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture readily yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless amilies rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you want the pure and gennine Sarsaparilla, that which is as different and superior to Bull's, Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sands', Guysott's, Cox's, or any other compound, as one thing is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases scattered through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, beyoud all doubt,

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Scrofula or King's Evil, Affections of the Bones, Syphilis, Debility, Habitual Costiveness, Erysipelas, Pulmonary Diseases, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Irregularities, Fistula, Skin Diseases, Diseased Kidneys, and as a great and powerful Tonic, purifying the Blood, and invigorating the entire System.

Unlike other compounds which, when first introduc ed, are said to possess medical qualities, but soon degenerate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated fluid Extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substan-ces, and warranted never to deviate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care devoted in combination, together with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Honduras or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and widespreading fame, coupled with unparalleled cures effect ad by its agency, have gained both public confidence and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SAR-SAPARILLA is the most valuable and wonderful medine ever offered to the world.

Oregon, Ind , Nov. 28, 1854.

Dr. Hurley—Sir: Your Sarsaparilla certainly deserves to supersede all other preparations of that medicine. Heretofore, the unsatisfactory results obtained from the use of Sarsap rilla, depended upon a want of skill in making proper selections from the different qualities found in our markets, and that which has been vended in the form of nostrums has generally been pre-pared by ignorant, incompetent and merce nary quacks, which, if containing any Sarsaparilla at all, was a very cheap and worthless article, and in the majority of instances left the sufferer in a much worse condition than before taking it. Having tested your Sarsaparilla, lam pleased to say that it is free from the imperfections alluded to, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to the confidence of the profession and to the afflicted public, and feel perfectly satisfied they will realize everything from it that is to be derived from the use of Sarsaparilla.

with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours tragether my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. I at length had the good fortune to procure Dr Curtis' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonbreath. In less than ten minutes from the time, I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest ossible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved mefrom. My advice to the suffering is—TRY IT.

MARGARET EASTON CONSUMPTION CURED! CONSUMPTION CURED!

New York, Dec. 27 1853.

I came to New York in the ship Telegraph; my native place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; bud pain in my left side, and was very week and emigisted. Wy friends, and provided. quently mixed with blood; bud pain in my leftside, and was very weak and emiciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily be lieve was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler; I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and be-

DR. LEWIS' MOTHERS' FRIEND

THIS compound I have proved by practice of more than twelve years, and it has ever proved efficacious in the cure of diseases for which it is recommended, where there was any hope.

M. L. LEWIS, Market st., between Second and Third. JEFFERSON Co., K y., arch, 1855. Dr. Lewis-I take great pleasure in informing you that I consider your other's Friend one of the very best compounds now offered to the public, and especially to afflicted females. For my wife it has worked wonders after a long and tedious trial of three years with other medicines. After she had become much de-biliated and almost helpless, from the long continued use of useless drugs, she resorted to your other's Friend in connection with other prescriptions which you recommended. These she continued for a short length of time, when she recovered, and now enjoys the blessing of good health. One of my neighbors who was afflicted in a manner similar to that of my wife, took the same articles and it produced a most wonderful and speedy cure. It should be found in every family.

per copy. The first edition, of 1,000 copies, was not sufficient for the demand and Mr. Appleton was so pleased with the readiness with which the book was sold, that he proposed to the author a new edition of 6,000 copies. Before any steps were taken to reprint, old Mr. Appleton died, and, as the work was not then stereotyped, his sons lost sight of it, and for more than nto obscurity, but now appears again to delight and interest a new generation of readers.

The New Purchase is a truthful story of the life of the author for a period of nearly eight years, a portion of which time he was a Professor in the University of Indiana, and enjoyed the society of many men emment in learning and politics. Amid the varied joys and or rearring and politics. And the variet joys and sorrows, trials and triumphs, which attend the career of the author while sojourning in the West, he kindly introduces the render to many of his cotemporaries, some of whom are painted by a friendly hand, whilst others are touched as if with caustic. Some of the characters are General John McCalla, of Lexington, Ky., and now of Washington City; Prof. Harney of the Louisville Democrat; Governor Wright, of Indiana; the late Governor Whitcomb: Prof. Bush of N.
