HILL LATER NEWS.

THE WEEKLY NEWS, CAPTURE OF SEVASTOPOL.

The Bulletin, which is published on the first and third Tuesday of each month, contains the following account of the capture of Sevastopol by the French and Russian armies:

The attack on Sevastopol was made on the 15th of August, and the French and Russian troops, led by General Douhet, succeeded in capturing the city after a fierce battle. The capture of Sevastopol was a great victory for the allies, and was a blow to the Ottoman Empire, which had been holding the city for several years. The French and Russian troops were led by General Douhet, who was also in charge of the capture of Constantinople.

The Returning
BRIDGEWATER, Mass. -

The weather was sunny and bright, and a light breeze was blowing. People were out and about, enjoying the pleasant day. The street was bustling with activity, and the sound of laughter and conversation filled the air. The shops along the street were open for business, and the aroma of freshly baked goods wafted through the air. The overall atmosphere was one of happiness and contentment.
