

The News-Letter. BLOOMINGTON: SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 20, 1855. FOR PRESIDENT IN 1856, HENRY A. WISE, OF VIRGINIA. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, JESSE D. BRIGHT, OF INDIANA.

THE ELECTION—ITS RESULT. Three Cheers for the Lion-hearted Democracy of Indiana!!! THE THUGS ANNIHILATED! BRILLIANT VICTORY!

The defeat of the Know Nothing, Abolition party last Tuesday week, was a terrible one, throughout the State of Indiana. The aggregate majorities of the Democratic party are 20 or 30,000. Considering the formidable array of factions and isms that we had to contend against, we have achieved the most brilliant victory that is recorded in the annals of political contests. Here is the way the contending hosts were arrayed:

ON THE ONE SIDE, Know Nothings; Abolitionists; Presbyterians; Sore-headed Democrats; Maine law fanatics; Nearly all the Protestant Clergy; Nearly the whole sectarian press; Disunionists; Broken-down Politicians; A Fusion, Mongrel host of Goths and Vandals, arrayed under the black flag of Abolitionism, and the bloody flag of Sam.

ON THE OTHER SIDE, The Old National Democratic Party, aided by some high-minded and generous Whigs, who would not consent to become Abolitionized, arrayed under the banner of the Union, and of Civil and Religious Freedom.

"Let the cannon to the heavens roar." Let the brave rejoice and the good sing songs! Indiana is redeemed, regenerated and disenthralled from the domination of the Abolitionists and the bloody hosts of Sam! From last Tuesday week, dates the end of the bloody career of Know Nothingism. Never again will Sam ride rough-shod and steel-corked, over the dearest rights of man and the Constitution of the Union. The liberties of this country were about to go down in a sea of blood! But it was reserved for the Old National Democratic party to add a new laurel to her brow by standing out boldly for civil and religious freedom. Let the political history of the State of Indiana, for the past eighteen months, be a perpetual warning, in all time to come, against secret, midnight political societies—against tyrannical, summary laws—against that malignant philanthropy, that pretended love of negro emancipation, which would wrap our Capitol in flames and dissolve our political bonds, for the accomplishment of their wicked and unholy purposes; and above all, let it be a deep and instructive lesson to all those who desire the advancement of Christ's kingdom upon earth, that the preachers of the gospel must not turn their pulpits into political rostrums, and become rabid, red-mouthed politicians. These political preachers, comprising a large majority of the Protestant clergy, have received a terrible blow in the late elections. Many had become quite arrogant and presumptuous—putting on dictatorial and disgusting airs, like a big nigger at an election, they had become so puffed up with pride—so petted by the sisters—so highly fed on yellow-legged chickens—loafing in ladies' parlors—scaring the women about the Devil and the Pope, while their husbands were hard at work,—that they were vain enough to think that the time had come for them to assert that power which they so long been endeavoring to acquire. Many of these men would make the land red with the blood of millions of martyrs, by rousing sectarian bigotry and intolerance, if the Clergy could thereby be made the first estate of the realm. The time was, when the Clergy was pure, that it was considered a terrible thing to say anything against preachers. But that day is past, and they have nobody to blame but themselves. The Democracy met the political preachers boldly and denounced them as they deserved to be denounced; and these preachers have lost more in the past eighteen months than they will regain the next fifty years. Let the lion-hearted Democracy of Indiana, henceforth, worship their own God, and vote their own ticket. Let them honor and revere the pure-hearted and humble Minister of the Gospel, who preaches peace on earth and good will to men; but as to the political preachers, who have sown the wind and reaped the whirlwind, let us stop their feed and cut off the supplies.

Since our last issue, the returns of the election continue to be of the most cheering character. Though we believed, and told our readers that we felt confident that the Democrats were going to achieve a great victory over the Abolitionists and Know Nothings, we were not prepared for the astonishing and overwhelming majorities that have been given for our party. Eleven out of every twelve, if not a greater proportion of the counties, have gone Democratic. The aggregate of these majorities will reach 20,000, perhaps 30,000! Glory enough for one day! The dark-lantern and Abolition papers are setting up a terrible howl over their defeat! They are as desperate as a rattlesnake surrounded by a ring of fire in the prairie.—They say that it is the unpopularity of the liquor law that has defeated them; and again, they say that the Americans(?)—i. e., the Know Nothings—didn't turn out to the election!

"Oh! most lame and impotent conclusion!" A poor excuse, indeed! And has Sam come to this? After the dark-lantern editors and speakers have been puffing and blowing so long, can't they summon to their black flag, the "True Americans?" "You may call on spirits from the vasty deep; but will they come at your bidding?" You may call on the hosts of Sam to rally around his blood-stained flag; but they can never be made to meet the eagles of the Democracy, with their eyes of fire and their talons of steel. Poor Sam! bloody Sam! gallant, glorious Sam!!! Like his great champion, BILL POOLE, "he's a goner." "He has fought his last fight, he has won his last battle; No sound can awake him to glory again."

Putnam and Politics. Second only to disgracing the pulpit with political harangue, is the prostitution of a Literary Magazine to the venal service of sectional fanaticism. In the October number of Putnam's Monthly is an article on the "Kansas Question," in which the writer becomes furious over the repeal of the "Missouri Compromise," avers as he is "to Compromises in general," wails over the corruptions of parties, clamors loudly for a reformation in public sentiment that will repeal the Fugitive Slave law, and rails at the South for his own imagined aggressions of the Slave power. Hear him decanting to his "small but desperate and determined knot of propagandists":

"Brave propagandists! It is to you we owe the breaking down of all old and sacred distinctions; (what distinctions does he mean?) to you the spirit of encroachment and aggrandizement that is abroad; to you the Fillibuster expeditions which disgrace our name; to you the Fugitive Slave law which would convert freemen into blood-hounds; to you the incessant agitation of slavery, and an insolence which hangs the fate of the Union on a constant subservience to its behests!"

This short extract reveals the whole political character of the writer. He, doubtless, belongs to the party, who, in 1812, were crying, "It's Jim Madison's war—let Jim Madison fight it out." It was of such men that DECATUR spoke when he complained of "Blue Light signals," given the enemy. Men of the same party would have Mexicans welcome the American soldiery with "bloody hands and hospitable graves." And he would, to-day, cast a fire-brand into the Temple of Liberty, and dance over its smouldering ruins, rather than fulfill his small part of a solemn contract made by his fathers.

But hear his railery against the South, concerning the Kansas outrages: "It (the South) has sustained and abetted the lawless invasion of Kansas by the armed marauders of Missouri. It has sent thither its agents or allowed them to go—which is the same thing—in order to subjugate the peaceful settlers, and to impose a peculiar social system upon them against their will."

The writer here pours out his wrath at the sacrifice of truth. The South never "sustained and abetted" the outrages committed by the Know Nothing outlaw, ARCHERSON, and his "dozen or two" (Putnam's estimate) followers. But this is enough to show the nature of the creature, who scribbles in politics as wrecklessly as he would dress a tale of fiction. And this worn-out novel-writer has room in Putnam's Monthly to abuse men whose disposition to attend to their own business is their chief sin.

But Putnam is no longer a purely Literary Magazine. He has become a partizan, and as such, we presume, he will afford a monthly rehearsal of the political exorcises that fall from the Abolition press of the North. Of course he expects his support from the North. Southern men will no longer give "material aid" to such a publication. If the non-interventionists of the West desire to keep posted on Abolitionism, they will read such publications as the New York Tribune, which is undisputed. This last article in Putnam is doubtless given for the purpose of picking up in the North what he has lost in the South, by previous displays of fanaticism.

Democrats Abusing Know Nothings. It is amusing to hear the pitiable howls of the Know Nothings about the Democrats "abusing the Americans!" How unreasonable they are in this and everything else. Let us remind them of a few facts.—During the past eighteen months until recently, no Democratic orator was allowed a hearing in the principal cities and towns, without the most brutal, indecent and cut-throat disturbances from this "decency party." DOUGLAS was insulted and put down at Chicago. WILLARD, at New Albany. Hon. HENRY A. WISE, at Brown's Hotel, in Washington. These devils incarnate, drunk with malignant philanthropy and vindictive piety, while their coadjutors, composed of wharf-rats, steam-boat-men, bullies and cut-throats were equally drunk on bad whisky, urged on by the incendiary appeals of political preachers, laboring under the delirium tremens of fanaticism, yelled, and hooted, and groaned, and hissed, so that the first men of the nation could not have a hearing. They called us, and still call us "pro-slavery men," "dough-faces," "whiskies."—DOUGLAS was denounced as a BENEDICT ARNOLD—they said that no honest man could oppose a prohibitory law—they called us the "corrupt Old-Liners," &c., &c. And yet when, because of the blood-red history that has been tracked by the cowardly and skulking footprints of Sam, we choose to speak of his acts in proper terms, and to express the indignation which we feel—when we see the streets of our cities rendered slippery with the blood of human beings, and ballot-boxes burnt up by this "moral reform" party, we are told that we are too abusive; and our editorials are copied for the purpose of showing what terrible things the Old-Liners say about the Know Nothings. We have never said anything about them that we would wish to take back. We have told the truth, but not the whole truth; and when a full history of Know Nothingism shall be written, it will present the bloodiest and darkest pages of our country's history.

The Glorious Result! We give below some returns of the election of the 9th instant, in this State, from which it will appear that the Democracy have swept the State like a hurricane, bearing down in its course every species of fanaticism which cursed the land. What a proud day for Indiana! What a proud day for those members of the Democratic party, and those old-line Whigs, who have been in the thickest of the fight, and have aided in bringing about this splendid victory, while they were exposing themselves to the malicious and cowardly guerrilla warfare of the midnight Thug party! Let there be shoutings and rejoicings; let there be music of the "timbral and the dulcimer, the sackbut and the harp; let the stringed instruments give forth glad sounds!"—let the old men rejoice, and the young men dance—let the young maidens put on their comely attire for an holy day—let there be bonfires and illuminations! for let much people have arisen in their might and said, they will worship their own God, and vote their own ticket.

"Oh! how happy are they," &c. And as for the sons of Belial who smote upon themselves strange oaths, with unholy hands upon wicked and corrupt hearts, and caused the widow to mourn and the fatherless to weep—who filled the land with pestilence and death—let a day of terrible retribution have come upon them! Their sceptor is departed forever! When they pray, let their prayer be that the mountains and the rocks shall fall upon them, and hide them! And as for the mighty Sam, let the day perish wherein he was born, and the night in which it was said Know Nothingism is conceived! Let that day be darkness; let it not be regarded from above, neither let the light shine upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it. As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined unto the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the days of the months. Let that night be solitary; let no joyful voice come therein, for Sam is dead and buried in his bloody winding-sheet! Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder? But let their fodder be taken away, their feed is cut off; they thought to divide among themselves much spoil, and to become the rulers and counselors of the earth; but the days of Sam's reign were swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and he is stripped of his glory and the crown is taken from his head.

Marion county has gone Democratic—electing Clerk, Auditor and Recorder, by a majority of between 400 and 500. Last fall the Know Nothing majority was 700. A change of at least 1100!

Clark county, 500 Democratic; last year, 70 Know Nothing. A change of 570!

Hancock county, Democratic majority 600.

Dearborn county, Democratic majority 600.

Hamilton county, Ind., 250 Fusion. [Hamilton county, O., 8000 Democratic.]

Shelby, 600 Democratic majority.

Boone, Democratic by 300.

Greene, Democratic by 200 or 300.

Tippecanoe, Democratic, 400. A gain of about 1200 since last Fall.

Scott, 454 Democratic majority. Large gain.

Johnson, Democratic majority 475. Large gain.

Decatur, Democratic majority 80.

Madison, whole Democratic ticket elected; majority 200.

Morgan, Democratic majority, 250; last year largely Fusion. Gain, about 500. Our old friend, JEFF. SCOTT, Old-Line Whig, with a Catholic wife is elected Clerk. Hurrah for Jeff!

Putnam, Democratic majority 326; last year 385 the other way. A change of 711 votes.—Hurrah for "Old Put!" Sorry for your friend PATRICK; but you were on the wrong side.

Miami, Democratic majority 300; last year, 300 Fusion. Gain, 600.

Jennings, 200 majority for the Abolitionists and Know Nothings.

Vanderburgh, largely Democratic.

Harrison, Democratic majority 250. Gain, 200.

Crawford, Democratic.

Floyd, Know Nothing.

Martin, Democratic by 200.

Knox, Democratic. Used to be the Gibraltar of the Whigs.

Washington and Orange, Democratic by tremendous majorities.

Daviess, too, is redeemed and disenthralled! The anti-Know Nothings after a severe and gallant struggle with just such bigots as they have at Louisville and New Albany, have succeeded in electing their candidate for Auditor; though they lost Clerk and County Commissioner by very small majorities. A tremendous change since last year. Hurrah for Daviess county.

Old Democratic Monroe county always remains dry land, and never goes under the floods of fanaticism. We had but one Know Nothing on the track, (a candidate for Auditor,) and he saw that the people of this county would no more elect a Know Nothing than they would exhumate the body of BENEDICT ARNOLD and put him in office; so he wisely withdrew from the track. We might give some further returns, but enough is given to show the astonishing and brilliant victory we have gained. Three cheers for Indiana's Indomitable Democracy!

Gov. Wright's Speech. We have read with interest, the speech of Gov. WRIGHT, of Indiana, at the New York State Fair, October 5th, 1855. It is certainly a masterly production, and shows a fervency and beauty of eloquence that are rarely equaled. The New York papers speak of the Address in the highest terms of commendation. We have reason to be proud of the honors that have been literally showered upon our worthy Chief Magistrate by the great Empire State. Gov. WRIGHT has built up a solid and enduring reputation in the affections of the people of the Great West that will live, and glow, and become brighter and brighter with succeeding years, when his upstart calumniators shall be lost in oblivion. He is emphatically a utilitarian man, and is continually exerting his powerful energies for the substantial amelioration of mankind. The oratorical labors of Governor WRIGHT, although abounding in many passages of great beauty, do not consist merely in the tinsel or gaudy ornament of rhetoric, "that plays around the fancy, but comes not near the heart;" but in home thrusts of reason, argument and true sentiment that find a response in the great heart of the masses. This is what makes him so deservedly popular among the masses of the people.

California Election. California has gone for the Know Nothings by about 4000 majority. The causes for this result are obvious and should not be a cause of discouragement to the Democrats. While we are free to admit that there is a large portion of the people of California that are estimable citizens, yet every body knows that that State is a rendezvous for cut-throats, swindlers, bullies, debauchees, rowdies, black-legs and thieves from every portion of the United States.—Then, adding to the respectable portion of the Know Nothings, who are misled by misguided religious zeal, the desperate characters above-named, (and such men are almost invariably Know Nothings,) it is not surprising that the Democrats should be beaten by the small majority of 4000.

Obituary. Died, on Wednesday night last, old Aunt JINNY, aged about ninety years. The deceased has long been known as an aged colored individual, the consort of ANDY, aged about one hundred and fifteen years, who fought in the Revolution, under WASHINGTON. Poor old Aunt JINNY! She's "gone where the good niggers go!" No more trouble about ANDY! No more trouble about the "hundred thousand million dollars!" On earth "she knewed it; but she couldn't talk it." But now she knows it and can talk it, too.

"The boast of heraldry and the pomp of power, And all that beauty, all that wealth e'er gave, Await alike, thy inevitable hour— The paths of glory lead but to the grave!"

Harvard University. We are indebted to our young friend, JOHN W. FOSTER, late a Student at this place, now a Student of law in Harvard University, at Cambridge, Mass., for a Catalogue of the Officers and Students of that University, for the Academic year, 1855-56, first term. It appears that the total number of Students is 371, exclusive of the law class and Divinity Students, &c. Of the latter there are 14, and of the law Students there are 111. Medical Students 104; Scientific Students 67; Astronomical Students 2; Resident Graduates 6. Law and Medicine run ahead of Divinity.

Three Cheers for Daviess County! We are rejoiced to learn that the Democrats have succeeded, in Daviess county, in electing their candidate for Auditor, MATTHEW L. BRETT, Esq., by a majority of 24. The Know Nothing candidate for Clerk, however, VAN TREES, on account of his former estimable character as a gentleman, (before he took the horrid Know Nothing oaths,) was elected by a majority of 43. Know Nothing County Commissioner also elected by 25 majority. Last year the county went for the Know Nothing, Abolition party, by from 250 to 350 majority. All things considered, this is a brilliant victory; and the Old-Line Democrats and Whigs who have so nobly fought the midnight hosts, are entitled to the highest praise. One hundred guns for the friends of civil and religious freedom in Daviess county! Down with the midnight conspirators! "Wait a little longer"—till next fall, and their black banner will trail in the dust!

Lieut. HENRY, of the second dragoons, and formerly of this place, was engaged in the recent severe fight with the Indians, in Nebraska Territory, and is spoken of in terms of high praise in Col. HARNEY's official report.

Mr. LEWIS, of Millport, Chenango county, N. Y., was awakened in the night by burglars, one of whom fired at her and struck her with a pistol. But she bravely seized her husband's gun, and following the rascals, fired at them as they were getting into their wagon. Her son also awoke to give them a parting charge. Afterwards a man named Miller, supposed to be one of them, was found to be mortally wounded in an adjoining town.

On Thursday, October 25th, there will be a total eclipse of the moon.

Rev. "Sham" Wright. Some weeks ago, we were requested by some friends at Bloomfield, to send several extra copies of the News-Letter, containing a communication about a liquor-law trial at Bloomfield, to certain distinguished citizens of that place, among others the Rev. ABRAHAM WRIGHT, of the Methodist Episcopal Church. During the absence of the senior editor, the publisher sent the papers to Bloomfield, and by mistake directed Mr. W.'s paper to Rev. "Sham" Wright. This godly gentleman, who is badly scared about the Devil and the Pope, took it in high dudgeon, forgetting the divine injunction, that "if thine enemy smite thee on the right cheek turn to him also the left;" and if he did not "swear terribly" as the army did in Flanders, he came very near it, and gassed, and used as elegant language as a fisherman's "doxy" at Billingsgate market. He tore up the News-Letter, with his mouth frothing and foaming like a mad boar, and praised the editors of the News-Letter in a very complimentary manner. If he is not a Sham preacher, then what is he?

The New York Herald, a constant calumniator of the Administration, acknowledges that the recent elections have scattered the elements of opposition to the four winds. It patronized the Know Nothing movement, so long as there was any hope of its success; but now that the miserable coalition has sunk into universal contempt, it calls for a combination of the factions under a new name and with different principles.

Ran Away. JOHN C. S. CHIPMAN and HENRY BATTERTON, charged in the Common Pleas Court of this county, with an assault and battery (together with GEORGE CUTLER and JAMES F. CARTER, Jr.) upon A. B. CARLTON, on Sunday night, the 20th day of July last, who had been recognized for their appearance at the present term of the Court, failed to appear, and forfeited their recognizance, $50 each.—JOSEPH M. HOWE was the bail of CHIPMAN, and ELLIS SLUSS the bail of BATTERTON.—CHIPMAN has run off to Illinois, and BATTERTON to Iowa.

P. S.—CHIPMAN has returned.

Gov. ADAMS, of South Carolina, in a late speech, said: "The Union has proved too strong for nullification, too strong for secession, and would prove too strong for Abolition. That fell spirit would be crushed whenever it was brought in collision with the federal government in Massachusetts. The people there would not involve the country in civil war and revolution in their opposition to slavery."

In another column will be found the advertisement of Mr. JOHN GORDON, wholesale dealer in Hardware and Cutlery, New Albany. His establishment is one of the most extensive of the kind in the west; and Mr. G.'s well-known business qualifications and gentlemanly deportment, will, no doubt, secure him a large share of public patronage.

Cause of the Indian Wars. The California papers accuse the whites of provoking the outrages that have been perpetrated on them by the Indians. At the time of the Indian difficulty at Yreka, the Indians of Scott Valley gave up their arms and placed themselves under the protection of the whites. An Indian boy of 15 years was a member of this tribe, and when the outbreak occurred he was sick and unable to move to Scott Valley. He was accordingly left there in charge of his mother and sister, whose intention it was to remove him to the valley as soon as he could walk. He was taken from the house where he lay by a man named Wm. Maul and others, and was ordered to run, which the poor lad attempted, and was shot in the back by Maul, and killed. Three others, named George Usery, McLane and Gillespie, were abettors and encouragers. Such an exhibition of unwonted brutality, by persons calling themselves white men, is painful to contemplate; and an outrage of the kind could never suggest itself to the mind of any other than the most abandoned and cowardly.—Boston Post.

No wonder California has gone for the Know Nothings. Perhaps WILLIAM MAUL graduated in the elegant accomplishment of killing by mauling the Dutch and Irish at Louisville, on the 6th of August.

WOMEN'S RIGHTS IN THE OLDEN TIMES.—Some of the earliest notices of boxing-matches upon record, singularly enough, took place between combatants of the fair sex. In an English journal of 1723, for instance, we find the following gage of battle thrown down and accepted:

Challenge.—I, Elizabeth Wilkinson, of Clerkenwell, having had words with Hannah Hyfield, and requiring satisfaction, do invite her to meet me upon the stage, and box me for three guineas; each woman holding half a crown in each hand, and the first woman that drops the money to lose the battle.

Answer.—I, Hannah Hyfield, of Newgate Market, hearing of the resoluteness of Elizabeth Wilkinson, will not fail, God willing, to give her more blows than words, desiring home blows and from her no favor. She may expect a good thumping.

The half crowns in the hands was an ingenious device to prevent scratching!

"A NEW MAP OF MONROE COUNTY."—See, in another column, a new advertisement, headed as above.

CONNECTICUT AGAINST DISUNION.—We have returns from 113 towns that elected boards of selectmen and town clerks, on the first Monday in October—leaving about forty towns to elect at a future day, mostly on the first Monday of November. The result is:

Anti-Know Nothing and Fusion, 62
Know Nothing and Fusion, 51
Majority against Fusion, 11
In most of the towns returned as "divided," the Democrats and National Whigs united upon a ticket in opposition to the Know Nothing and Abolition Fusionists, and carried the election. The same 113 if they vote the same way next spring, will elect a majority of over thirty members of the legislature opposed to Fusion and its injurious doctrines.—Hartford Times.

Altamont Summit, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, is 3,000 feet above the sea and is the highest point which a locomotive ever reached.

THE RATE AT WHICH WAVES TRAVEL.—A paper was read by Professor Bache before the American Scientific Association, stating that at nine o'clock on the morning of the 23d of December, 1855, an earthquake occurred at Simoda, on the island of Nippon, Japan, and occasioned the wreck of the Russian frigate Diana, which was then in port. The harbor was first emptied of water, and then came an enormous wave which again receded and left the harbor dry. This occurred several times. The United States have self-acting tide-gauges at San Francisco and at San Diego, which record the rise of the tide upon cylinders, turned by the scene of the earthquake, the first wave arrived twelve hours and sixteen minutes after it had receded from the harbor of Simoda.

It had traveled across the broad bosom of the Pacific at the rate of six and a half miles a minute, and arrived safely on the shores of California, to astonish the scientific observers of the coast-surveying expedition. The first wave, or rising of the waters, at San Francisco, was seven-tenths of a foot in height, and lasted for about an hour. It was followed by a series of seven other waves of less magnitude at intervals of an hour each. At San Diego similar phenomena were observed, although on account of a great distance from Simoda (four hundred miles greater than to San Francisco), the waves did not arrive so soon, and were not quite so high.

EVIDENCE OF SAFETY.
New York, June 11, 1855.
"I have made a chemical examination of Rhodes' Fever and Ague Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, and have tested it for Arsenic, Mercury, Quinine, and Strich-nine, but have not found a particle of either in it, nor have I found any substance in its composition that would prove injurious to the constitution."
JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

EVIDENCE OF ERIT.
"Lewisburg, Union Co., Pa., 2d, 1855.
Mr. J. A. Rhodes—Dear Sir: The box of medicine you sent me was duly received on the 11th of April. I have sold about one-half of it, and so far the people who have used it are satisfied that it has cured them.
It has certainly stopped the Ague in every one who has used it, and six of the cases were of long standing, yester, who has had it for five or six years back, and could never get it stopped except with Quinine, and that only as long as she would take it, is now,
I think, entirely cured by your remedy."
C. R. GINLEY.

CAUTION TO AGUE SUFFERERS.
Take no more Arsenic, Tonics, Mercury, Quinine, Rhefriges, Strichnine, or any other medicine of any kind.
The well known inefficiency of these noxious and dangerous remedies, and the certainty of their producing principles, or mercurial quacks. The only remedy in existence that is both sure and harmless, is RHODES' FEVER AND AGUE CURE.

Knocking John Ball off
Harlem Bridge!
Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

THIS invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is the greatest celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and most effective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily pouring in from all parts of the States, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other remedy proves inefficient. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture readily yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless families rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you want the pure and genuine Sarsaparilla, that is as different and superior to Bull's, Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sands', Guyton's, Orr's, or any other compound, as coffee is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases scattered through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, beyond all doubt,
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Scro-
ful or King's Evil, Affections of the Bones, Syphilis, Delirium, Hysteria, Costiveness, Erysipelas, Pulmonary Diseases, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Irregularities, Fistula, Skin Diseases, Disordered Kidneys, and as a great and powerful tonic,
purifying the Blood,
and invigorating
the entire System.

Unlike other compounds which, when first introduced,
are said to possess medical qualities, but soon degenerate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated fluid Extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substances, and warranted never to deviate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care devoted in combining the ingredients with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Honduras or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and wide-spreading fame, coupled with unparalleled cures effected by its agency, have gained it the confidence of physicians and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SARSA-PARILLA is the most valuable and wonderful medicine ever offered to the world.

Manufactured by the Manufactory, corner of Seventh and Green sts., Louisville, Ky.
For sale by druggists in this city and all through the United States.
Price, $1 per Bottle—6 Bottles for $5.

Louisville, April 5, 1855.
Hurley's Sarsaparilla is what is represented, and I believe it is the most wonderful medicine before the public. Nothing under heaven could induce me to say so without proof of the strongest and surest kind; therefore I speak willingly and positively on the subject.
My daughter has been afflicted with skin diseases and stiffness of the joints for several years. I employed the principal physicians of this city, and they could not cure her. I gave her your Sarsaparilla, not expecting it would do much good, but, to my great astonishment,
she rapidly got well, and, thank God, continues so.
Had she been taking any other medicine, I would not give this certificate; but your Sarsaparilla, the only remedy employed, leaves no doubt of its medical qualities, and that it alone cured her.

Signed, LUKE REYNOLDS.
Any person requiring the truth and honesty of this statement, will find me at my residence, corner of Ninth and Walnut streets, Louisville.
Dr. HURLEY—Sir: I have used your Sarsaparilla in Chlorosis, Anæmia, Leucorrhæa, (Whites), and many other diseases connected with the female organism,
and always to a happy result within a shorter space of time than is usually expended in the treatment. It is decidedly preferable as a general tonic to quinine, or preparation of iron, and I feel satisfied that it will become an established item in the physician's medicine.

Respectfully yours, ROBERT C. ABLETT, M. D.
EUGENETOWN, Ill.
Dr. T. A. HURLEY—Sir: From a knowledge of your Sarsaparilla, and through conviction that it is the best article manufactured, I cordially recommend it to all DOCTOR REASON.

Louisville, January, 1855
Dr. HURLEY—Sir: My wife has been afflicted with indigestion for ten years, and could never get cured—Four bottles of your Sarsaparilla effectually removed her complaint.
L. W. H. ELDRIDGE.
Having been engaged in the drug business for several years, I do not hesitate to pronounce Hurley's Sarsaparilla the best preparation now in use.

Dr. HURLEY—Sir: You Sarsaparilla certainly deserves to supersede all other preparations of that medicine. Heretofore, the unsatisfactory results obtained from the use of Sarsaparilla, depended upon a want of skill in making proper selections from the different qualities found in our markets, and that which has been vendued in the form of Sarsaparilla, has generally been prepared by ignorant, incompetent and mercenary quacks, which, if containing any Sarsaparilla at all, was a very cheap and worthless article, and in the majority of instances left the sufferer in a much worse condition than before taking it. Having tested your Sarsaparilla, I am pleased to say that it is free from the imperfections alluded to, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to the confidence of the profession and to the afflicted public, and feel perfectly satisfied they will realize everything from it that is to be derived from the use of Sarsaparilla.

Medicated Inhalation.
A NEW METHOD.
A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CIGERS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CIGERS' HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity, for which he has been ever known to man. It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. (See certificates in hands of agents.)
The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen,
without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid, supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine.
Here is a case:
ASTHMA CURED.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Dec. 20, 1853.
For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time
I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest
I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for hours together my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. At length I was induced to purchase one of Dr. CIGERS' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler, my distress was relieved, and I verily believed that I was cured. I was relieved in a great measure from the difficulty of breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—buy
MARGARET EASTON
CONSUMPTION CURED!
New York, Dec. 27, 1853.
I came to New York in the ship "Telegraph"; my native place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; but pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr.
CIGERS' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believed was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler; I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so,
my cough gradually grew better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I will wear the Inhaler, as I use it is very pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.
