VOL. II.

BLOOMINGTON, INDIANA, SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 29, 1855.

No. 34.

"Do or Die in California!"

We have in our possession a biography of General George Custer, who was killed in the battle of the Cowpens, after being captured by the British and Indians, and forced to surrender. The general was killed at the age of 35 years, as a result of his service in the war against the British. The story is of great interest, and every reader will want to read it. It is a story of bravery and courage, and of the sacrifice of the general who gave his life for his country. The story is of great interest, and every reader will want to read it.

PROCTOR'S COURT.
