BLOOMINGTON:

SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 27, 1855.

The notorious Miss DELIA A. WEBSTER, is on east lecturing on the "peculiar institution."

Be generous to those holding different opinions from yourself.

The Democrats will have five members of the Senate, and about twenty-five members of the House, in Ohio.

Woman lost Paradise to make man happy; he deserves purgatory if he makes her wretched.

How much we dreaded in our school-boy days to be punished by setting between two girls. Ah, the force of education! In after years we learned to submit to such things without shedding a tear!

Step-mothers are so called because the day after they are married they take "steps for kicking the first wife's children into the street."

The New Orleans Delta says, that in more than three thousand cases during the present season, inoculation for the yellow fever has been tested, and with entire success.

Husband and wife should run together on an equality; it is dangerous for either to take the lead. The most difficult driving is that of a tandem.

People never improve after marriage. The girl that is insolent to her parents, will be apt to give "sass" to her husband.

NEW REFRIGERATOR.—To cool the atmosphere, brag of another woman's good looks in the presence of your wife.

DISCONTINUED.—The Warsaw (Mo.) Democrat has the following: "We strike the names of two of our subscribers from our book this week, who have been hung in Texas. We do this because we are not advised of their present locality. We will take pleasure in sending the Democrat to their address, as soon as we hear from them."

A down-east militia captain, on receiving a note from a lady requesting the "pleasure of his company," understood it as a compliment to those under his command, and marched them all to the lady's house!

The Democracy of Old Greene have succeeded in electing JOHN M. HUMPHREYS, Clerk, over his Know Nothing competitor, by a majority of 381. JOHN JONES, Democrat, was elected County Auditor, by a handsome majority. The Know Nothings have gone into their holes to winter.

We understand from reliable authority, says the Louisville Times, that there have been over two hundred withdrawals from the Know Nothing lodges of that city within the last ten days.

The people of Texas have voted, by a majority of 1,471, not to accept the late act of Congress for the settlement of the debts of the former Republic of Texas to her creditors by the division among them of $7,750,000.

JOHN FORSYTH, Esq., the able editor of the Mobile Register, at present on a visit North, writes to his paper from New York: "What I have seen there has all been calculated to make me calm, thoughtful and serious. I find all parties (especially the Know Nothings, or rather what is left of them,) thoroughly Abolitionized, and the only living element of fidelity to the Constitution and to the South residing in the Democracy."

Standard vs. Jean Baptiste Dussard.

The editor of the White River Standard, at Bedford, devotes considerable space in his last week's paper, to personal abuse of a little boy, sixteen years old, who has set in to learn the printing business at the News-Letter office. Mr. PEARSON charges him with two heinous crimes—first, he was born in France, and secondly, his name (Dussard) sounds like buzzard. This valiant knight of the Standard exhibits his chivalry in an eminent degree in attacking a mere boy; there is something so puerile in the attack that we will not interfere, but let the two boys fight it out. Though we will say for JEAN BAPTISTE DUSSARD, there is not a more intelligent, a better read or more moral boy in Monroe county of his age. We give below Mr. PEARSON's elegant article, to which is appended the answer of JEAN:

From the Standard.

PILING ON THE FRENCH.—This is a common phrase, and is used to denote an overbearing desire for the fastidious. When we see an individual who carries his character upon his back and his brains in his breeches pocket, studiously avoiding common-sense expressions, and a common-sense action, forthwith it may be called common-place, we say "how he piles on the French." But when we see an individual so fanatically and irrevocably plunged into a state of fastidiousness, as to be unable to see nothing good in anything that is purely American, nor acknowledge any virtue or honesty with an antagonistic party, we most emphatically assert such an individual to be piling living coals upon his foreign-loving pate, that will sooner or later temper his hot brain into something like consistency.

We wot of some persons who have become thus phrenzied. A few weeks ago, an editor, not one hundred miles from here, advertised for an apprentice, who must have certain qualifications, and among them was that he must not either be of the American faith or politics; not satisfied with the proscriptive qualification the editor did not want an apprentice whose parents were Americans in sentiment. Said editor, we understand, has succeeded in getting a boy of the prescribed qualities. We don't wish to be misunderstood, we mean that the editor has procured the services of a young Napoleon, who is supposed, from the best information that the editor could obtain, to have been sired somewhere between the Pyrenees and Vasagee's mountains. That his principal diet was Grape-juice, and that he was especially trained for the position that he is about to fill. The only objection our friend can have to him, is the very vulgar and semi-American cognomen that his parents have innocently entailed, being called Dussard, which, we suppose is a corruption of Buzzard. We congratulate our friend upon his great success, and hope the young buzzard will prove profitable to his keeper.

MR. PEARSON.—It is true, sir, I am a French boy, born on the other side of the Atlantic. I am sixteen years old, and have been in this country three years. If I am any the worse a boy for having been born in another country, I cannot see how I am to blame for it, because I could not help it; for, sir, the interesting event of my birth occurred at so early a period of my life that it was out of my power to choose the country of my nativity. As you are a very smart man and an editor, no doubt you could have contrived it otherwise. You abuse me and call me a buzzard because I am a French boy. I cannot see why you should treat me so, for you thought enough of me some time ago to try to get me to be your apprentice, yet sir, I did not want to work in a Know Nothing printing office; for I did not like the idea of sticking type for you at night, while you should be met with men who are sworn to degrade me and my father, because we are Frenchmen by birth. You think that foreigners are too ignorant to enjoy equal rights with you, yet, sir, although I am only sixteen years old and have been in this country only three years, I should be sorry if I could not spell Pyrenees better than you do; for you spell it Pyrene's, and if I shall live to be as old as you, I don't think I shall spell so many words wrong as you do. You call me a young NAPOLEON. Though I am but a boy I know more about NAPOLEON than you do. I have heard my father and the French people in France, talk about the great NAPOLEON, and I remember to have heard that he was a man of too big a heart to hate a person because he was a foreigner, and therefore he always rewarded merit wherever he found it, either in a foreigner or a native-born Frenchman. I have read, too, in the history of the United States that the French people were friends to the Americans when they were fighting for their liberty, and that LAFAYETTE and a great many French people (for I can read in two languages, though I am afraid you cannot read well in one; judging from your spelling) came to this country and helped the Americans in the Revolution. I have heard the poor French people, who love liberty as well as you, talk about how happy they would be if they could get to the land of liberty; and now it seems strange that you should abuse a poor boy and call me a "buzzard" because I was born in that nation which was the home of LAFAYETTE and the great NAPOLEON. I cannot boast of my learning, though I went to school seven years in the old country, and a good deal in America; yet if I were an editor and a lawyer, I should try to write more grammatically than you do. I am so humble and so young that I did not think that a big editor like you, as old as NAPOLEON was when he conquered Egypt, (about twenty-six years,) would go out of your way to abuse me, as I never did you any harm. I would have thought you would write against the President, or DOUGLAS, or CASS, and not against

JEAN BAPTISTE DUSSARD.

ALL FOR LOVE.—On Saturday, in Philadelphia, a young Irishman met a girl in the streets, embraced her and asked her to marry him. On her refusal, he discharged the contents of a pistol at her with but slight injury. He was arrested, when he tried to kill himself, but unfortunately failed.

The Indianapolis Sentinel thinks there were fifty or sixty thousand strangers in that city Thursday to visit the fair. The receipts at the gate for ticket sales that day amounted to 4,000. Total receipts up to that time $3,000. The fair is regarded as having been in the highest degree successful.

At the late session of the Shelby (Ind.) Circuit Court, GEORGE WELLS, of this State, who was indicted for shooting JAMES INLOW, was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars! As the offender was drunk, and merely shot Mr. I. for sport, without killing him, this is cheap enough!

The Wheat crop in the State of Illinois is expected to amount to 25,000,000 bushels the present season—which gives a bushel for every inhabitant of the United States, young and old. The crop heretofore has not been over 16,000,000.

AN EDITOR CATCHING THE HICKORY CLUB FEVER.—The Crawfordsville Journal, a Know Nothing sheet, lets off as follows about the election:

We speak but the sentiments of a majority of our citizens, when we say that henceforth and forever, the ballot-box shall be free from corruption and open fraud. We have seen the danger and shall hereafter insist upon our rights, and will maintain them.

The Know Nothings of Crawfordsville having been beaten fairly at the late election, the editor has begun "insisting" upon the usual mode of warfare adopted by his party at New Albany and elsewhere.

Late News from Texas.

The steamship Mexico, Captain Lawless, arrived yesterday from Galveston, whence she sailed on Thursday, the 11th instant.

The Mexico brought $8,635 in gold on freight, of which $6,000 was consigned to the Union Bank, and $2600 to order.

A political row occurred in Huntsville recently, in which several persons of both parties got badly "chawed" up.

The crop accounts from the interior, generally, are not favorable. The cotton crop will be short.

Three thousand five hundred bales of cotton were received at Houston in September, notwithstanding the fever.

A great freshet had occurred at Gonzales and vicinity, doing a large amount of damage to the cotton crop; carrying away bridges, &c. Judge Goss lost about 150,000 brisks.

From the 28th ultimo to the 6th instant, inclusive, there were eight deaths from yellow fever in Houston. No deaths occurred either on the 7th or 8th.

Very heavy rains have fallen at nearly all points in the interior, and a cold norther succeeded them.

THE INDIANS.—A TRADING PARTY ATTACKED.—We have a letter from Camp Leon, says the Galveston News of Thursday, dated the 4th ultimo, which states that a party of 21 men en route for El Paso, from Red river, which encamped in a little ravine on the head of the Pecos, were attacked by a band of Camanches, on the 26th of August, and six of their number killed.

The San Antonio Texan, of the 4th inst., says:

We received information yesterday that Major Neighbors, our Indian Agent, has sent down an express to the effect that there is a great want of protection from the Indians in the upper country.

Gov. Pease and Gen. Smith were both in San Antonio on the 4th ultimo, and several petitions were in circulation, asking for a call for Rangers.

A recent freak of female fashion is said to have produced a singular effect.—Eastern papers say: "The umbrella men in New York have been compelled to fit out a dozen whalers for the purpose of getting whalebones enough to keep up their business. The ladies have put their whole stock on hand into their petticoats."

A retail merchant in Buffalo, says that his business increased from $11,000 to $37,000 in a single year, by adopting a thorough system of advertising.

The New England Spiritualist had a "communication" last June, stating that Dr. KANE had recently passed from earth, his ships had been broken to pieces, &c. The "spirits" must rap again.

Can a Methodist be a Know Nothing?

The attention of that portion of our Methodist Clergy who have fallen into the meshes of Know Nothingism, set for them, doubtless, by the devil himself, is particularly directed to the following article, which we copy from the Vicksburg Sentinel:

Under ordinary circumstances, we would not feel justified in asking such a question as this. A man's religion should never be appealed to, to influence his politics. It is not, however, our fault that the religious element has been mixed up in this canvass. Everywhere, and on all occasions, the advocates of Know Nothingism, many of whom, like Simon the sorcerer, who bewitched the people of Samaria, are themselves "in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity," address all their arguments to the religious prejudices of the community; and if we, in our turn, appeal to what we may call their religious reason, it lies not with them certainly to make objection or complaint. We ask, then, can a Methodist, consistently with the profession he makes, be a Know Nothing? We answer, no. We prove it by citing the following passage in the Discipline of his Church:

"As we confess that vain and rash swearing is forbidden Christian men by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by James, His apostle, so we judge that the Christian religion doth not prohibit, but that a man may swear when the magistrate requireth in a cause of faith and charity, so it be done according to the prophet's teaching in justice, judgment, and truth."

This "Article of Faith" is avowedly based upon what is said by our Savior in Matthew, v. 34:

"But I say unto you, swear not at all; neither by Heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; neither by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. But let your communication be, yea, yea; nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil;" and on the injunction in the General Epistle of James, v. 12: "But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, NEITHER BY ANY OTHER OATH: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation."

The Methodist Church, it is true, does not construe these passages in the strict sense in which they are taken by the Quakers; but certainly it considers them as prohibiting and reprobating all such extrajudicial oaths as are found in the Know Nothing ritual. The "Discipline" is conclusive on that point. In addition to what is there said, we quote the following passage from the Commentaries of Dr. Adam Clarke, in his day and generation, an honor to the learned world, and the brightest ornament to the Methodist Church:

"He that uses any oath, except that which he is solemnly called by the magistrate to make, so far from being a Christian, does not deserve the reputation of decency or common sense."

What can the Methodist Know Nothing have to say in reply? Nothing. Like a sheep before its shearers, he must stand dumb. And if so, what is his imperative duty as a conscientious man to do? Clearly to remember whence he has fallen, and repent, and do his first works over.

In one of the Sicily Islands, about 500 years ago, the entire library of the population, comprised a Bible and the history of Doctor Faustus. The Island being populous and the people fond of reading, they were handed from house to house, until by perpetual thumping, but little of them was left. In this juncture a meeting was held and the proposal submitted that they should send for a supply of books. The debate was very high concerning what books should be ordered, and the result was, they sent for another Doctor Faustus, and nothing else.

I feel it in my bones that at six o'clock to-morrow evening, I shall be the Judge of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit.—Judge Orth's Speech at the Court House, Monday Evening.

There is great anxiety to learn how Mr. Orth's bones "feel" since the election. The Courier can't tell, and the Journal won't. We shall probably have to wait until Stephen can raise money enough to get out an edition of the Weekly Gazette, when we shall know all about it.

Since the result of the election is known, we have no doubt Mr. Orth is ready to say with the poet:

Now I'm growing old and weak,
My bones are getting sore;
Oh, carry me back to Pennsylvania,
To Pennsylvania Shore.

—Lafayette American.

Many a true heart that would have come back like the dove to the ark after its first transgression, has been frightened beyond recall by the angry look and menace—the taunt, the savage charity of an unforgiving spirit.

A coxcomb, talking of the transmigration of souls, said, "in the time of Moses, I have no doubt I was the golden calf." "Very likely," said a lady, "time has robbed you of nothing but the gilding."

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

Late European News.

THE WAR IN THE CRIMEA.

The latest official dispatches report the south side of Sevastopol occupied by detachments of French and English troops, who have had distinct quarters of the town assigned to them.

The Russians concentrated their forces in the northern forts, and were occasionally firing upon the town, to which the allies replied from the two forts which remained intact, (Nicholas and Quarantine,) and from the ruins of the other forts. Prince Gortschakoff, in his reports, describes the fire of the allies as heavy.

The British and French engineers are making preparations, by the sinking of immense mines, to destroy the splendid docks, arsenals, and ship-building yards of Sevastopol, and thus destroy the fitness of the place for a naval stronghold. Though there is no official information on the subject—the allied Generals, for obvious reasons, being silent on their future operations—there are various premonitions of a vigorous campaign in the open field.

Prince Gortschakoff, on the 23d ult., reported that 26,000 men had been landed at Eupatoria, and that on the 26th this force was increased to 30,000 men. He has since reported that "imposing masses" of the allied troops continue to threaten the left wing of the Russian army, from the valley of Baidar, while a force amounting to between 30,000 and 40,000 men threatens the right wing of the Russians from Eupatoria.

It is uncertain and will remain so for some time, which of these threatened attacks is for the real one; but there is quite enough in Prince Gortschakoff's despatches to show that he considers himself seriously threatened in front and on both flanks. Another significant fact is that the English land transport corps are in full activity; that the field batteries of the artillery are in marching order; that large numbers of the French cavalry have embarked for Eupatoria; and by the telegraphic accounts (from Vienna) it is stated that the allied fleets had left Sevastopol on some secret expedition.

It is again asserted from Vienna, that the Russian army is retreating.

The London Times correspondent, writing on the 21st, is not at all sanguine that the Russians will be forced to abandon their position on the approach of winter.

"The belief gains ground that the Russians are preparing to evacuate the north side of the harbor of Sevastopol. The extensive earthworks which have been lately constructed, and others in course of construction, are regarded as simply intended to cover the retreat, and protect the rear-guard of the Russian army. Carts have come in empty from the direction of the Mackenzie heights, and have gone away laden it is supposed with provisions."

"These arrangements are supposed to indicate an intention to retire. It is still understood that a combined movement is to take place against the enemy's position on the Mackenzie heights. A direct attack from Bakshi-Serai is spoken of, the approach from the South being made by a route which is kept secret and which will have the effect of avoiding the enemy's fortified intrenchments."

Le Nord, of Brussels, takes a hopeful view of Russian affairs in the Crimea. A writer in that journal says:

"The situation is not entirely to our disadvantage, and the honor of our arms has been in no way compromised. Our men will no longer be obliged to offer themselves up as a holocaust, but will now be able to defend themselves in a close fight, and sell their lives at a high cost."

The same paper states that out of the 10,000 seamen who had undertaken, with their officers, the defence of Sevastopol, only a fourth survive, with six or seven officers.

The allies are reported to have established 120 mortars at Sevastopol, with which it was expected they would soon render the north side untenable.

The Oesterreichische Zeitung says, the bombardment of the Northern forts of Sevastopol began on the 29th. The Russian army is in full retreat, and on the 20th was at Akak, (?) which is three days march from Mackenzie.

The intelligence relative to the retreat requires confirmation.

THE RELIGION OF PAYING DEBTS.—One of our exchanges has the following just remarks on this subject:

Men may sophisticate as they please. They can never make it right, and all the bankrupt laws in the universe cannot make it right for them not to pay their debts. There is a sin in this neglect as clear and as deserving church discipline as in stealing or false swearing. He who violates his promise to pay, or withholds the payment of a debt when it is in his power to meet the engagement, ought to be made to feel that in the eyes of all honest men he is a swindler. Religion may be a very comfortable cloak under which to hide, but if religion does not make a man deal justly, it is not worth having.

The Old Belle and the Fast Girl.

The old belle and the fast girl are sketched by the a Newport correspondent of an eastern paper:

A melancholy spectacle is the old belle—not the contented matron, who, having enjoyed the prestige of beauty in girlhood, subsides with grace and dignity into the domestic woman or old-school lady—but the unfortunate creature whose only pleasure consists in admiration, and whose life-long motive is variety. The affectation of youthful costume, the childish lisp and inane ogle, the artifices of the toilet, the eagerness for notice, and an insatiable appetite for compliment, are, morally speaking, in hideous contrast to gray hairs, crows' feet, and the full-grown evidences of maternal responsibility. To see these traditional charmers on the qui vive for beaux among younger and fairer aspirants, to watch the sickly smile, the fiftful glance of triumph or envy, the faded yet uneasy look and dubious complacency, and to associate these with one who has gone through the deepest human experience, and yet remains frivolous and vain, is far more provocative of sorrow than of mirth; it is old age without the love and honor which should attend it—a phantom of folly, an effigy of worldliness. Such a one was found weeping in the corridor of the hotel here; and when asked the cause of her tears, sobbed out, "No one admires me now." An old horse pastured in a lonely field to die in peace, is a more dignified spectacle.

At the other extreme of perversion is the fast girl; one who tries to make capital of bold eccentricity; the deliberate hoyden—the Lady Gay Spanker on a small scale. You know her by the loud and shrill tone of voice, by an incapacity of blushing, by a half swaggering air, an eye that never quails, a tongue that rattles without cessation, and utters sarcasm, broad hints and rude comments, calls young men by their first names, ignores delicacy, and disconcerts modest people; she affects invariably the antagonistic, and delights in an opportunity of attracting notice by some unusual dress, procedure, or manner. The character is anomalous, it is Di Vernon's masculine spirit, without her elevated sentiment; Lady Macbeth's self-assurance, without her moral courage; Madame De Staël's feminine tone, without her redeeming intellect. It is brusquerie unrelieved by wit; hoydenism, unsustained by native grace. The fast girl is the horror of good mothers, and the delight of brazen dandies.

The Free Lovers.

The New York Times and the Tribune have, within a few days, published long accounts of a new sect which exists in that city, called "The Free Lovers," and the principles which govern them are in the highest degree abominable. It is nothing more nor less than practical prostitution of both body and soul. It has not even the semblance of morality which Mahomedanism and Mormonism affect. It is governed altogether by lust, and its effects upon the community must be demoralizing in the extreme. It affects a philosophical sentimentalism; it strikes dead all home feeling; it makes purity and virtue a mockery and shame. It sets at naught divine revelations, and puts a ban upon the marriage contract. It is, without exception, the worst spawn of infidelity, and shows the most hideous features of human depravity. The gloss of philosophy thrown around it only makes it advocates the more detestable, as it couples guilt with hypocrisy.

The founder of the "Free Love" is a woman, whose name is Mrs. Gove Nichols, who, we understand, has taken up her residence in this city, where a Free Lover's church is soon to be gathered. We trust that proselytism in Cincinnati will fail of success. No virtuous person, unless corrupted by the teachings of the priests and priestesses of this new profanity, can ever enter within its dark and deadly portals.

It is a secret organization; its members have to be initiated, and are sworn not to disclose its obligations; therefore the whole iniquity has not been developed. Enough, however, has leaked out to prove its character. There are doubtless many dupes within its fold, especially among the female sex, but no one can doubt that the mass of its male members have become converts that they may gratify their lustful passions.

We think that a society of this kind should be placed under the ban of legal restraint, and we do not see why the secret lodges of the "Free Lovers" should not be placed under the same restrictions that houses of ill-fame are, for they are no better, and may be much worse.

The subject is hardly fit for newspaper discussion, and we have only spoken of it at this time because of the report that an attempt is to be made to open a lodge and form a league in this city—which, if formed, must have a demoralizing effect upon the community.—Cincinnati Gazette.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says, had it not been for the abominable lie telegraphed through the State about MERRILL and the guns, we believe the latter would have been elected.

There are 214 lawyers and 125 physicians in Chicago.

COLD WEATHER.—During the present week we have had quite cold weather, for the season. Snow fell on Thursday.

Hon. U. F. LINDER made one of his characteristic, eloquent and witty speeches, at Vincennes, on the 17th inst. He will be in attendance at our Monroe Circuit Court, next week.

The receipts of the Illinois State Fair amount to upwards of $13,600.

Value of Indiana Free Bank Money.

The following are the rates at which the Prairie City Bank, Terre Haute, is buying Indiana Free Bank Money, as taken from the Courier of that city. Some may ask why we quote at the Terre Haute rates. Our answer is, because the papers of neither Indianapolis or New Albany publish them at all, so far as we have observed. We shall correct the list weekly, and our readers may rely on its correctness.

As a SPRING and SUMMER MEDICINE, Carter's Spanish Mixture stands pre-eminent above all others. Its singularly efficacious action on the blood; its strengthening and vivifying qualities; its tonic action on the liver; its tendency to drive all humors to the surface, thereby cleansing the system according to Nature's own prescription; its harmless, and at the same time extraordinary good effects, and the number of cures testified to by many of the most respectable citizens of Richmond, Va., and elsewhere, must be conclusive evidence that there is no humbug about it. A single bottle will satisfy the most skeptical of its benefits.

The condition of the stomach is of vital importance. No man, woman or child can be healthy unless the work of digestion is regularly, thoroughly, and vigorously performed. The stomach is the source of the life, and yet the remedy is within the reach of all. Hood's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Hood, Philadelphia, will as surely create a regular and healthy action of the stomach as oil will lessen the friction of machinery. Let the victim of dyspepsia or indigestion in any of its forms, try it, and he will find the same time and place offer for cash in hand. Taken as the property of Alexander Sutherland and William Chambers, and sold by the said Sutherland, Joseph Beck, and Hiram Butcher.

Has recently been made by Dr. Curtis of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the lungs. We refer to Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician remarks—"It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the aerial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at all the drug stores throughout the country. (From the New York Dutchman of Jan. 14th.)

Knocking John Bull off
Harlem Bridge!
Hurley's Sarsaparilla.

THIS invaluable compound, so fully appreciated by the American people, is gaining wide celebrity, and has become permanently established the best and most effective medicine of the day. Certificates are daily pouring in from all parts of the States, and the afflicted now rejoice that there is help when every other remedy proved ineffectual. Diseases which for years proved a source of misery and agonizing torture yield beneath its irresistible influence, and countless smiles rendered happy and cheerful by its extraordinary efficacy. If you want the pure and genuine Sarsaparilla, that is as different and superior to Bull's, Blackwell's, Townsend's, Sands', Guyot's, Cox's, or any other compound, as one thing is capable of being to another, then take Hurley's, for out of thousands of cases treated through Alabama, Mississippi, Wisconsin, Indiana, Missouri and Kentucky, it has never in a single instance been known to fail, and will cure, beyond all doubt, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Scrofula or King's Evil, Affections of the Bones, Syphilis, Debility, Habitual Constipation, Erysipelas, Pulmonary Diseases, Liver Complaint, Piles, Female Irregularities, Fistula, Skin Diseases, Disordered Kidneys, and a great and powerful Tonic, purifying the Blood, and invigorating the entire System.

Unlike other compounds which, when first introduced, are said to possess medicinal qualities, but soon degenerate into injurious trash, this highly concentrated fluid Extract, is prepared with the greatest accuracy and chemical knowledge, entirely of vegetable substances, and warranted never to deviate in strength. The powerful machinery employed with care, devoted to combination, together with the important fact that it is the only preparation in America containing Houdou or Para root, establish beyond all doubt that it is the sufferer's remedy. Its extensive popularity and widespread fame, coupled with unparalleled cures effected by its agency, have gained both public confidence and professional reliance. Therefore, henceforth let it be understood, for the proofs are too numerous and overwhelming to be questioned, that HURLEY'S SARSAPARILLA is the most valuable and wonderful medicine ever offered to the world.

For sale by druggists in this city and all through the United States.

Price, $1 per Bottle—6 Bottles for $5.

Louisville, April 5, 1855.

Hurley's Sarsaparilla is a medicine, and I believe it the most wonderful medicine before the public. Nothing under heaven could induce me to say so without proof of the strongest and surest kind; therefore I speak willingly and positively on the subject.

My daughter has been afflicted with skin diseases and stiffness of the joints for several years. Physicians of this city, and of the State, could not cure her. I gave her your Sarsaparilla, not expecting it would do much good, but to my great astonishment, she rapidly got well, and, thank God, continues so. Had she been taking any other medicine, I would not give this certificate; but your Sarsaparilla, the only remedy employed, leaves no doubt of its medicinal qualities, and that it alone cured her.

Signed, LUKE REYNOLDS.

Any person requiring the truth and honesty of this statement, will find me at my residence, corner of Ninth and Walnut streets, Louisville.

Dr. HURLEY—Sir: I have used your Sarsaparilla in Cholera, Amœbias, Leucorrhœa, (Whites), and many other diseases connected with the female organization, and always found it a happy result within a shorter space of time than is usually expended in the treatment. It is decidedly preferable as a general tonic to quinine, or preparations of iron, and am fully satisfied that it will become an established item in the physician's recipe.

Respectfully yours, ROBT. B. ABLETT, M. D.

Dr. HURLEY—Sir: From a knowledge of your Sarsaparilla, and through conviction that it is the best article manufactured, I cordially append my name.

DOCTOR REASOR.

Louisville, January, 1855.

Dr. HURLEY—Sir: My wife has been afflicted with indigestion for ten years, and could never get cured. Four bottles of your Sarsaparilla effectually removed her complaint.

WM. ELDREDGE.

Louisville, March 19, 1855.

Having been engaged in the drug business for several years, I do not hesitate to pronounce Hurley's Sarsaparilla the best preparation now in use.

GEORGE MULLIKIN.

OREGON, Ind., Nov. 28, 1854.

Dr. HURLEY—Sir: Your Sarsaparilla certainly does serve to supersede all other preparations of that medicine. Heretofore, the unsatisfactory results obtained from the use of Sarsaparilla, depended upon a want of such a purifying and purgative action from the different qualities found in our markets, and that which has been prepared in the form of nostrums has generally been prepared by ignorant, incompetent and mercenary quacks, which, if containing any Sarsaparilla at all, was a very cheap and worthless article, and in the majority of instances left the sufferer in a much worse condition than before taking it. Having tested your Sarsaparilla, I am pleased to say that it is free from the imperfections alluded to, and I therefore take pleasure in recommending it to the confidence of the profession and to the afflicted public, and feel perfectly satisfied they will realize everything from it that is to be derived from the use of Sarsaparilla.

Medicated Inhalation.
A NEW METHOD.

A MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, for the cure of Asthma, Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Lung Complaints, by Medicated Inhalation. Dr. CURTIS' HYGEANA, or INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR and CHERRY SYRUP, has accomplished the most wonderful cures of Asthma and Consumption in the City of New York and vicinity for a few months past, ever known to man.

It is producing an impression on Diseases of the Lungs never before witnessed by the Medical Profession. (See certificates in hands of agents.)

The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen, without the least inconvenience, the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate part of the fluid—supplying the lungs constantly with a healing and agreeable vapor; passing into all the air-cells and passages of the lungs that cannot possibly be reached by other medicine. Here is a case:

ASTHMA CURED.
For about eight years I have been severely afflicted with the Asthma; for the last two years I have suffered beyond all my powers of description; months at a time I have not been able to sleep in bed, getting what rest I could sitting in a chair. My difficulty of breathing, and my sufferings, were so great at times, that for years together my friends expected that each hour would be my last. During the past six years I have had the aid and attendance of some of the most celebrated physicians, but have received no permanent benefit, and but little relief. At length had the good fortune to procure Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup. At the time I first obtained it, I was suffering under one of my most violent attacks, and was in great distress, almost suffocating for want of breath. In less than ten minutes from the time I applied the Inhaler to my stomach, and took a teaspoonful of the Cherry Syrup, I was relieved in a great measure from the difficult breathing, and had a comfortable night. I have since continued with the greatest possible benefit, and am now comparatively well. God only knows the amount of suffering this medicine has relieved me from. My advice to the suffering is—try it.

MARGARET EASTON.

CONSUMPTION CURED.
NEW YORK, Dec. 27, 1853.

I came to New York in the ship "Telegraph," my native place is St. John's New Brunswick; when I reached this city my health was very poor; had a very bad cough, raised a good deal of matter, which was frequently mixed with blood; bad pain in my left side, and was very weak and emaciated. My friends and physician pronounced my case Consumption, and beyond the reach of medicine. I accidentally heard of Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, and obtained a package, which I verily believe was the means of saving my life. Soon after wearing the Inhaler, I found it relieved the pressure on my lungs, and after a while the disease made its appearance upon the surface under the Inhaler. I took the Cherry Syrup as directed, and continued to do so, my cough gradually growing better, until it entirely left me, and I now consider myself cured. I still wear the Inhaler, as the use of it is rather pleasant, and believing it strengthening and purifying to the lungs, I feel unwilling at present to dispense with it.

DR. LEWIS' MOTHERS' FRIEND.
THIS compound has proved by practice of more than twelve years, and it has ever proved efficacious in the cure of diseases for which it is recommended, where there was any hope.

M. L. LEWIS,
Market st., between Second and Third.
Jefferson Co., Ky., March, 1855.

Dr. Lewis—I take great pleasure in informing you that I consider your Mother's Friend, one of the best compounds ever offered to the public, and especially to afflicted females. For my wife it has worked wonders after a long and tedious trial of three years with other medicines. After she had become much debilitated and almost helpless, from the long continued use of useless drugs, she resorted to your Mother's Friend in connection with other preparations which you recommended. These she continued for a short length of time, when she recovered, and now enjoys the blessing of good health. One of my neighbors who was afflicted in a manner similar to that of my wife, took the same articles and it produced a most wonderful and speedy cure. It should be found in every family.

SAM'L WORME.
NEW ALBANY, 1854.

Dr. Lewis—I have used and thoroughly tried your Mother's Friend, and find it to be one of the best compounds for female weaknesses now extant; and further say that it may well be styled the Mothers' Friend for after all specifics have failed, it has performed cures that appeared almost incredible.

JOS. CADWALADER.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., 1854.

Dr. Lewis—Dear Sir: I cannot withhold my testimony as to the value of your Mother's Friend. It has ever saved freely in my family in distressing complaints, and always with the best effects. It is decidedly the most valuable medicine for female complaints generally, I have ever known.

WM. C. TAYLOR.
WORTHINGTON, Ind., 1854.

Dr. Lewis—I have sold for the last two years your female medicine called the Mothers' Friend, and I never saw an article that gave better or more general satisfaction.

R. E. ANDREWS.
SLEM, Ind., 1854.

DEAR FRIEND—Thy letter has been received, and it is with pleasure that I certify to thee and the world that thy preparations called the Mothers' Friend stands without a rival in medical practice. I have used it, and its effects surpass any preparations of the kind I have ever seen. In those distressing and weakening diseases to which the sex is liable. It quiets the nervous agitation, and restores the natural secretions. Therefore I can safely recommend it to the special attention of my female friends everywhere, believing they will find it a friend indeed.

DR. J. TRUEBLOOD.
HANSVILLE, OHIO.

Dr. Lewis—I have been using your Mothers' Friend in my practice, and it acts promptly as directed and for the uses for which it is recommended. One of my patients had been afflicted in a manner to be unable to ride on horseback for four years, but after taking one bottle of your Mothers' Friend, she rode six miles and back the same day.

DR. EDWARD SMITH.
CHARLESTON.

Dr. Lewis—I have used two bottles of your medicine called the Mother's Friend in my family, and feel disposed to recommend it as the best medicine in the limits of my knowledge for weakly females, and especially for those who are afflicted at what is termed the change of life.
