TAXES FOR HIS

This is a new and important tax law for the people of Monroe County, Indiana. It provides for the collection of taxes on land, buildings, and personal property. The tax rate is set at 2% of the assessed value of the property. The tax is due on October 1st and can be paid in three installments. Individuals can file for exemptions for certain types of property, such as agricultural land and personal property used for educational purposes. The tax is collected by the Monroe County Treasurer and is used to fund local government services.
