The News-Letter.

BLOOMINGTON,

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 9, 1860.

E. B. CARLETON is our regular agent at Bloomington.

E. B. PALMER, the agent at Peoria, has been ordered by Mr. Abbot to visit his various stations in the Home Territory, and to send home accurate information as to the state of affairs there.

The Illinois Central Railroad Company have made an agreement with the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company, by which the two railroads will run through a common station at Princeton, and connect with each other at the same point, and the relative charges for freight and passenger traffic will be equal.

A. Bell, a man of about 30 years of age, was last seen at Bloomington, and has not been heard from since. He is supposed to have gone to Springfield, and is likely to be found there. Any one who sees him, or knows of his whereabouts, is requested to communicate with the editor of this paper.

Sandford Duncan, a young man, was last seen at Bloomington, and has not been heard from since. He is supposed to have gone to Springfield, and is likely to be found there. Any one who sees him, or knows of his whereabouts, is requested to communicate with the editor of this paper.
