Another Phase of Knoxington.

A new phase of Knoxington has been revealed by a brotherly office, and its. is that of an auxiliary office, and its name is "The Knoxington Ledger." The office is located at the corner of Main and Market Streets, and is under the direction of Mr. John Brown, a well-known journalist, who has been associated with the late Mr. Robert L. Smith in the management of the "Knoxington Journal." The office is said to be well-equipped with the latest printing machinery, and to be in a position to turn out a thorough-going weekly newspaper, that will be of real value to the citizens of Knoxington.
