SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 22, 1855.

The New Albany Ledger of Monday contained the valedictory of Mr. J. B. NORMAN, who has so ably conducted that paper since it was first established.

Mr. J. M. Morrison is his successor.

The Clerk of the Vanderburgh Circuit Court, together with Mr. Ellis, a merchant, were committed to jail at Evansville, on Tuesday, for contempt of court in refusing to testify as to their knowledge of violations of the liquor law. They were the first occupants of the new jail in that city.

The most sorely afflicted city in the world, now-a-days, is Norfolk. The ghastly yellow fever has been, and is sweeping away its victims, by hundreds—the small-pox has com menced its ravages—the musquitoes, so large and rabid that they sting like bees, and are really an intolerable pest, come up from the swamps in clouds, and a horrid, noisome fly called the plague fly, infests the place in prodigious multitudes.

The Massachusetts Democracy.

The Democrats of Massachusetts held a State Convention at Worcester on the 5th inst., which was one of the largest and most enthusiastic assent lages ever assembled in the old Bay State, and shows that the spirit of loyalty to the Constitution, respect for the laws, and regard for the compromises of our fathers is not enirely obliterated in the land of the Puritans.

The convention was presided over by George B. Loring, of Salem, who, on taking the chair, made a most excellent speech, breathing the true Democratic spirit. The convention made the following nominations: For Governor, Erasmus D. Beach; Lieut. Governor, Caleb Stetson; Treasurer, Stedman Buttrick; Secretary of State, Jonathan E. Field; Attorney General, Nathaniel J. Lord; Auditor, Oliver Stevens. Two distinguished Whigs, Messrs Edmund Riddle and Ansel Phelps, jr., addressed the convention in able speeches, announcing that the Whig party being disbanded, and the Democratic being the only national party in existence, their only recourse was to act with

The resolutions adopted were of a truly national character, and are such as Democrats in the East and West, the North and the South, can cordially endorse. We subjoin them:

Resolved, That the present crisis in our country calls upon the Democratic party for a renewed expression of their adherence to the great doctrines promulgated by Jefferson, developed, sustained, and fixed by Jackson, and most triumphantly vindicated by the American eople in the election of Franklin Pierce upon the Baltimore platform of 1852.

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States, while it promises a common bond for our Union, guarantees to each State and to the people, their inherent and reserved rights; that a strict observance of its obligations and compromises is the only means of preventing that national strife which destroys the sovereignty of the people, and reduces State and Territorial immunities to a struggle between partizans and propagandists, in which all the ights of citizenship are set at nought; and that we will systain that interpretation of the Constitution which has already rendered our party illustrious, and which establishes that entire equality and that mutual confidence throughout our confederation, which are the only foundation of a genuine conditional reform of whatever evils exist among us.

Resolved, That the present national adminis tration has been governed in its policy at home and abroad, by true Democratic principles; and that for its enlarged and patriotic foreign policy; for its skilful management of the national finances, and its devotion to the dignity and integrity of our country, it is and receives our earnest and hear

These statements are from the most respectable and honorable men of the city, of both political parties, among others, James Speed. late Mayor of the city, GEORGE A. CALDWELL, F. S. J. Ronald, formerly city Marshal, and JOSEPH B. STEWART, who is a member of the Native American Party, but not now a K. They establish beyond all doubt that the Know Nothings were the aggressors, that they took the polls by force, and brutally beat and wounded unoffending citizens; in a word, that the Know Nothings instituted a perfect reign of terror, as brutal as that which deludged Paris with blood in the French Revolution, and as horrible as the bloodiest seenes of savage warfage.

We give, below, a few paragraphs from some of the statements, from which it will be seen, that whoever may have been the aggressors at QUINN's row, (concerning which we learn that the Times has affidavits showing the responsibility of the K. N.'s,) yet the naturalized foreigners had been treated in such a brutal and savage manner at the polls, that it would have been no wonder if they had been driven to desperation and madness. These statements show another thing: that the foreigners at the polls in no instance resisted, but suffered themselves to be beaten; indeed resistance was useless, they turning my head, I saw had been inflicted by could not contend with an overwhelming mob. Maine Election.

"Behold! how brightly breaks the morning." The recent election in Maine, which has resulted in a glorious triumph for the Democratic party, should teach the friends of civil and religious freedom, never to despair of the final success of their principles. In Maine, the Demoon the Southern part of the Court House front crats have elected a large majority to the Legising on Jefferson street. The building so inter-lature. AGUE AND FEVER—GREAT CURE.—I hereby certify, that for three years I had Ague and Fever of the most violent description. I had several Physicians, took large quantities of Quinine, Mercury, and I believe all the Conics advertised, but all without any permanent relief. At last I tried Carter's Spanish Mixture, two bottles of which effectually cured me, and I am happy to say I have had neither Chills or Fevers since. I consider it the best Tonic in the world, and the only medicine that ver reached my case. JOH Beaver Dam, near Richmond, Va. JOHN LONGDEN.

STILL ANOTHER CURE OF SCROFULA, -I had a very valuable boy cured of Scrofula by Carter's Spanish Mixture. I consider it truly a valuable Medicine. JAMES M. TAYLOR, Conductor on the R. F. & P. R. R. Co., Salt Rheum of 20 Years Standing Cured.

Mr. John Thompson, residing in the city of Richmond was cured by three bottles of Carter's Spanish Mixture, of Salt Rheum, which he had nearly twenty years, and which all the physicians of the city could not cure.
