Bicknell, Ind., April 11—A day spent here in the investigation of the shooting of Dr. James W. Evans, Atlanta attorney, has revealed many interesting facts about the condition of police in this town, which is typical of the many small, rural places where the Klan has taken control.

The town itself is a study in lawlessness, with no police force to protect the citizens. The only law enforcement agency is a group of boys who carry clubs and act as their own police force. They are known locally as the "Klan Boys," and are said to be the only law enforcement agency in the town.

FATHER VRAINIK IS FOUND DEAD AT KIRKWOOD, MO.

DEATH IN CARE OF HAND SHOT RECENTLY BY SHERRIFF

Killed by Officer in Front of Hotel with Officer

At 12:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, the body of Mr. John Vraik of Kirkwood, was taken by the police to the County Hospital where it was identified by friends and family.

The death of Mr. Vraik came as a great shock to the people of Kirkwood, and was a sad and tragic event for the community.

NOW THE WHOLE MATTER IS SETTLED

LET THERE BE NO MORE ARGUMENT BECAUSE THIS IS FINAL

The Indianapolis Catholic Recorder, as a matter of principle, does not comment on matters of politics or public policy. However, in this case, it is clear that the matter is settled and there is no more argument necessary.

EDITORIAL

Klansmen, Raise Your Visors!
The public does not forget nor does it forgive those who have perpetrated outrages on any section of our society and our life, by the Kingsmen of the Ku Klux Clan.
The Klan has been a menace to public morals, justice, and law; and it has always been a cause for public indignation and for resisting the laws of the land. It is now clear that the King clansmen are not only nuisances in America, they are enemies of American institutions and principles. They must be stopped by the people of America.

The Klansmen are not a law-abiding organization. They have acted without regard to the law, and their acts must be stopped by the people. The people must stand up against the law and resist the law.

We are not afraid of the King clansmen. We are not afraid of the law. We are afraid of the law-abiding public. We are not afraid of the law. We are afraid of the law.

Limbder Langed Lew Lets Loose Again

Limbder Langed Lew, aspiring to the office of mayor on a platform of "clean government." The city has been in a state of confusion and everything looks like a complete financial collapse. Lew's program is simple: to put an end to the city's financial collapse.

He plans to do the following: First, he will abolish all city taxes and borrow money to pay them. Second, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Third, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Fourth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Fifth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Sixth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Seventh, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Eighth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Ninth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Tenth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them.

In summary, Lew's program is as follows: First, he will abolish all city taxes and borrow money to pay them. Second, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Third, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Fourth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Fifth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Sixth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Seventh, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Eighth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Ninth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them. Tenth, he will sell all city property and use the money to pay them.

Advertisers:

If you were selecting an ideal salesman, you would select one who has the confidence of the people.

One who is conscientious, one who is honest, sincere and able to arouse the inspiration to buy.

One who calls on more people and willing to buy your product than any other salesman.

One who has the dignity to reflect the integrity of the merchandise he sells.

One who sells you at a profit, because his costs are consistent with the results.

The Fiery Cross is the only salesman whose weekly arrival is awaited and looked for in the homes of over 500,000 Klansmen.

It is the password to the heart of the people of Klando.
