Faithful and Beloved Kiansmen:

My Countrymen of The White Man's Breed—We have been assailed by the black spawn of hate. You are called upon to answer a solenn beheat of duty and stand true in this hour of triumph when we have routed and defeated an ungenerous foc, who knows not the etiquette of honor in battle.

Let us not become vindictive, and let us not be made to hate our Catholic neighbor because of the acts of a few irresponsible leaders of that political machine who have run annuck; but let us keep step to the drum beat of the inspired music of the Messah. Let peace reign. God is our refuge and our strength, and liberty shall not perish.

Ignore the mad passion of senseless individuals who are assaulting our foundations of government, and are throwing themselves against the pillars of American liberty. It is but a worm eating the dirt of earth which shall return to angle the said. We shall not make a summary against the said. turn to enrich the soil. We shall not make argument assessment we shall not array facts against falsebook, and will not present principles against prejudices? The last and indisputable word is in the personnel, the character and composition of our organization. Ours is a vast host incarnating the principles of the American Republic, and enshrining the ideals of our Master, Jesub of Nazareth. Enemies may resall opinion put into words—antagonists may attack cred, whether political or religious, when expressed in speech—sordid men may break ideals that are mere pictures upon the hort zon of time. But, no man, by any form of hostility, can aginsay or deny the great principles and purposes we have organized into human life, and have

We have joined issue with the enemy before Congress of the United

Therefore, the siar of glory will continue to shine, and the organization marches in resplondent honor, and, like the North star, guides the wanderer of the desert, the mariner of the sea, and the ploneer exploring trackless forests, so shall the klan guide the future hope of American and Americans. The flag of our country ripples in the breeze above us, unlowfed and unsulted by the polluting hand of the enemies who honor us by their earnity. Forever and always the emblem of the Cross, emblazoned in fire, will beckon us no to our appointed and glorious deatiny. The starry flag and the flery cross shall never fail. Klansmen, Raise Your Visors!

Attansmen, Kaise I our Visorss!

The public, daily becomes more and more in sympathy with and views with ever increasing admiration and approval the acts and jaffuence for good in our civic and social life, by the Knights of the Kn Klux Klux.

The Klan has become a real constructive force and influence, and commands the utmost respect of a great throug of estimable men, regardless of their religious, social or political beliefs, who are not Knaspien.

There is real work to be done, and mone should be left undone while Klansmen enages in parades and public demonstrations in Cell resails, mercily to afford public thrills, secure temporary applause, afford amusement and the same time gratify and strengthen the opposition by turnishing them with ready and inflammable fuel to feed the first of hate, prejudice and destruction.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are a new race, of men, dedicated and rendfirmed in their patriotism, reborn in a dediration of American ideals never before coordinately pronounced, and represent the vast majority of the best minds, and best thought of America today. Klansmen are not hunting popular applians: they are not ambitious to thrill America, they are not demagogues whose principles hang loosely upon them. Their uter inaccessfully and secrety is the bulwark of their strength which is all the more reason for secret gifts of alms, deeds of charity, and

The very claim that has been made by the public, by officials, and by the neutral as well as the opposition press, that the robe and hood is being used by others in actual perpetration of crime, and by still others to discredit the Klan, causes us to raise our voice to protest, and to discourage the use of the robe and hood by Klansmen in parade; this for its own protection and at the same time to allay the last vestige of reasonable cause for criticism. Klansmen, limit the use of your full regala to your naturalization work within, and on your own premises, and to attendance at funerals in a body of not less than twenty-five.

Limber Lunged Lew Lets Loose Again

Limber Lunged Lew Shank, serving in the office of mayor, as a result of a miscarriage of justice in the last city election, flops his cars and further airs his ignorance and impassioned hatrol for anything and everything that is clean and decent, in an interview recently given to the public press wherein he says he will order his police department to tear the masks off of Klatsmop.

Consistent with his usual ignorance, he asks the questions, "How are we have been of he delive men will not about that distrains."

Consistent with his usual imporance, he asks the questions, "How are we to know that a bunch of hold-up men will not adopt that disguises." How are we to know that some of the people who strongly oppose the Kian will not use to know that some of the people who strongly oppose the Kian will not use to seek shelter when disguise and commit acts to discredit the Kian." Exerybody in the State of Indiana with sufficient intelligence to seek shelter when the heavens ensitt moisture, knows that all the regalia of the Kian is kept under lock and key and in custody of a bonded Klansman. Every high school boy knows that this regalia could not be used under any cfreum stances except at religious services or on a public parade. When the Klansman's regalia is used at a public parade is then city authorities are notified spid the filmsy veil of a smoke screen, under which Limber Lunged Lew fratas, is too dimsy for intelligent people to conitenance.

If Lew Shank wants to do something for the safety of Indianapolis and for the safety of the citizens of Indianapolis and is the citizens of Indianapolis and is Limber Lunger Lew wants to do the Lith thing and earn one-half the salary that he is extorting from the city of Indianapolis, and if it really was through blatant ignorance that he let his health thing and earn one-half the salary that he is extorting from the city of Indianapolis, and if it really was through blatant ignorance that he let his height of the free department—O'Brien—conduct a hate meeting against 80 per cent. of the people of Indianapolis on March 17, he would much letter serve the position for which the office of mayor was primarily established, if he would gevote less time to airing his innorance in the newspaper localities.

Characteristic of the' brain of the man; characteristic ôf his line of thought; true to the nature of the individual, he plants concrete piers in the middle of the streets with the vidictive attitute of "hit" fer and olic, and set if (are.")
