Credentialed of All Kamella Field Men Are Automatically Canceled—Degree Trans Now Being Formed to Confer Second Degree to All Certified Klansmen Throughout All Regions

By MILTON BLUM

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 12.—According to advices received here today from Atlanta, all differences between Dr. H. W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and Col. William J. Simmons, Emperor of that organization, have been amicably settled. The settlement includes the payment of $100,000 to Col. Simmons and his resignation as Emperor.

Advices also state that degree trans are now being formed which will leave Atlanta at the earliest date possible and will be distributed to all certified Klansmen throughout the country.

This settlement, coming at this time when the Klan is spreading all parts of America and its strength is increasing, is a most gratifying and satisfactory result to all concerned and will be received with the greatest rejoicing among the millions of Klansmen throughout the country.

The prediction made by The Fiery Cross that the Klan would be amicably settled has at last become a reality. The Fiery Cross has never entered into the controversy and has maintained that the difference of opinion between the two organizations should be settled for the welfare of the Klan.

'CLEAN CITY FIRST,' CITIZENS OF TERRE HAUTE ASK OF DAVIS

Attempt Made to Slug Minister Called Liar by Mayor—Thuggery Continues

Allen Takes Numbers of Cars in Funeral Cottage—Klup Infiltrates Two Big Classes

(Special to Fiery Cross)

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 11.—Among the most interesting events in this city under the administration of Mayor Ora Davis, professed candidate for governor of Indiana, is that of the attempted slugging of Dr. H. W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, at the Liberty Avenue Hotel, Terre Haute, where Mayor Davis called him a "mon, dirty liar." The attempt was made last night as the pastor was on his way to the church to deliver his evening sermon. "The minister, Dr. Evans, is a dirty liar," he is believed here that the attack was indirectly caused by Mayor Davis' trade against the minister in the local papers.

One of the pledges by Mr. Davis, is that, should he be elected governor, he would clean up the state. "I am aware of the fact that the conditions that exist in the city of Terre Haute at this time where thugs, murderers, footpads, burglars and hoodlangers ply their trades week in and week out. It would be a disgrace for the city to have leaders, holdups and robberies in the streets."

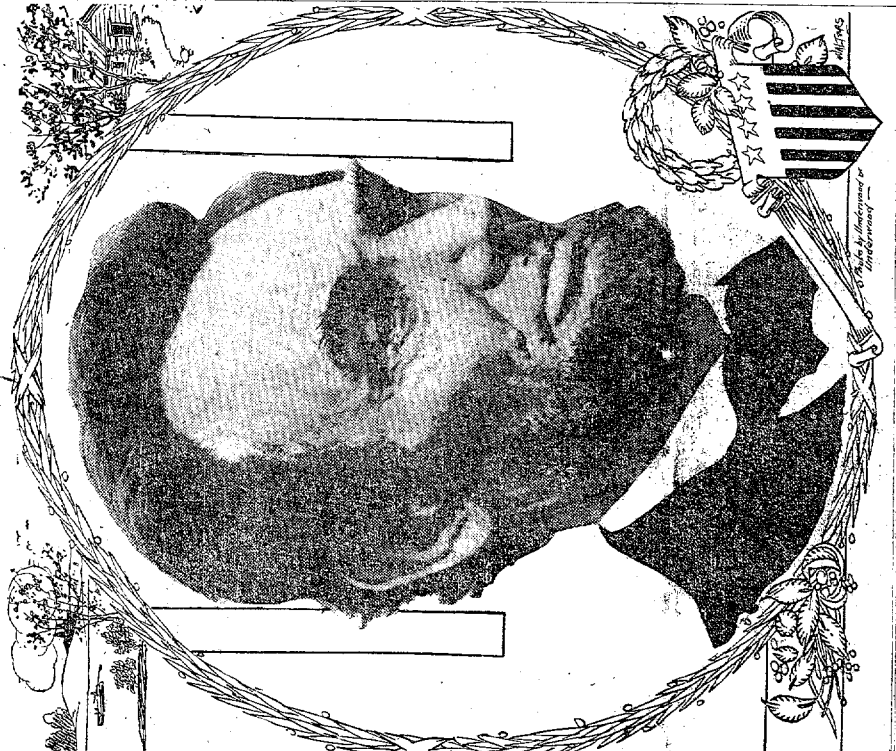

Terre Haute within the last month has had a record for the worst of its kind. The condition is growing worse instead of better.

Citizens of Terre Haute, according to the report of the mayor, are now making campaign speeches, promising to clean up the state, in cleaning up Terre Haute.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Life of Constitutional Government Now at Stake, Declares Klan Head—U. S. School System Repugnant to Pope, Speaker Says—Array of Vital Facts Set Before Huge Audience in First Public Appearance in Indianapolis.

America Now in Midst of Crucial Struggle to Balk Collapse of Public School System and Roman Hierarchy Is Deadly Enemy to America's System of Education, Is Assertion of Imperial Wizard, Who Enters Into Exhaustive Resume of School Question as It Now Stands in America

Before a most enthusiastic audience which jammed the huge Caddie Tabernacle Wednesday night, Dr. H. W. Evans, Imperial Wizard of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, delivered a ringing message to the American people, in which he set before them an array of facts that are of the most vital importance to the welfare of America and Americans.

Choosing as his subject, "The Public School Problem in America," Dr. Evans struck straight from the shoulder and in unvarnished words declared that the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic church stands against America on the public school question.

HIGHLIGHTS IN ADDRESS BY IMPERIAL WIZARD

"The national safety, prosperity and happiness could be obtained only through free public schools, open to all and through for all and attended by all."

Our ideals and traditions are being won by the direct and indirect influence of the common school, but their own success. Our schools are in every way inadequate; they have not the institutional backing to not prevent illiteracy, not often they promote patriotism; too often they teach a divided allegiance.

"The public school," said the Imperial Wizard, "in its present aspect and result, is a menace to the Pope's papal dream of world-wide temporal dominion."

Dr. Evans declared that "Democracy itself, the very life of constitutional government, is at stake," and that a crucial battle for the future of the kind and quantity of public school education.

In prefacing his speech Dr. Evans referred to Abraham Lincoln the Emancipator, and said:

Have the entire story and carried it to the public. The story is that Secretary of the Interior, Charles D. Ickes, has been accused of having turned over to a private citizen, Mr. Charles R. The story is that the money was given to Mr. Brewer in the form of a check, and that he has been using it to pay the debts of the government. HIGHLIGHTS IN ADDRESS BY IMPERIAL WIZARD

The national safety, prosperity and happiness can be obtained only through free public schools, open to all, good enough for all and attended by all.

Our ideals and traditions are being weakened by disrespect and intolerance. Our politicians seek to compromise with the forces of evil. Our schools are not free, but are controlled by the forces of evil. Our schools are not free, but are controlled by the forces of evil.

In all things, public and private, truth is the only basis of action. That means intelligence, means liberty and justice, the safeguarding of our traditions, the fulfillment of our ideals.

USE OF CHURCH IS GRANTED KLANSMEN

Series of Meetings Open at Lebanon—Crawfordsville Minister to Conduct Service

LEBANON, Ind., Jan. 12. A series of meetings for the purpose of organizing a Klan in this city, opened here last night at the First Christian Church, under the leadership of the Rev. W. W. Roberts, an evangelist of Crawfordsville. It is the first series of meetings of this kind ever held in this part of Indiana.

The public will have the opportunity to learn more of the principles of the Klan movement. It will be interdenominational in scope, and will be held in the church, and those who accept the opportunity will name the denomination with which they wish to affiliate, and cards will be given them to the church selected.

The First Christian Church recently, by unanimous vote, decided to issue the invitation to the Klan organization of the county to hold the services at the church, and the offer was accepted. The revival of the Klan in this city is a period of ten days or two weeks.

The "System" is a record of having been in the hands of the government for many years. The "System" is a record of having been in the hands of the government for many years.

How well the above quotations fit into what follows. There is in Washington today a rapidly crystallizing sentiment that the acts of the government are a part of the system. The "System" is a record of having been in the hands of the government for many years.

Take for instance the Teapot Dome oil scandal in which the government is mixed up. One sensation on top of another has been heaped upon the public mind. The "System" is a record of having been in the hands of the government for many years.

Ohio Protestantism in Action

The Rev. E. M. Lewis, pastor of the South Main street, M. E. church, Sunday evening preached the third of a series of sermons on the Home, the School, the Government, and the Church, or some time the services have been held in one of the large school auditoriums, while the pew church is being erected, but to accommodate the ever-increasing crowds in attendance, it became necessary to engage the army.

The subject Sunday evening was, "run rampant with vice of every kind is the American Government in the and our government forces seem to be out of balance." The text was, "Right, helpless to cope with it, there is need of a nation but sin of alarm as to the future. The home is the future of all government. A nation without a home is a nation without a future." Proverbs 14, 34.

"The open Bible," said the Rev. Dr. Lewis, "is the foundation of our nation of strength. Children who have no government in the home have no government in the nation. The Protestant church has little regard for it in the nation. If home and marriage ties wane, the nation will lose its guidance to the Bible, otherwise it will have we left upon which to maintain our government? It leads our country astray."

"The President of the United States takes his oath of office on the Holy Bible.

The things that prey most on our American government are the civil wars within the land. We learned during the world war that there place were many people receiving the blessings of our land who were not allowed to defend it.

Wherein Governed My Fall

When the eighteenth amendment to our Constitution was adopted, our people said, and still are saying, that it could not be enforced. I am glad that they say this, then, I am glad that they say that. I am glad that the American government is the best government in the world, because it is that the leadership in the church is not a spiritual reality. It can only be formed from within.

"Our government will stand in relation to us as it is practiced with the love and the justice of the individual citizen. We must keep the heart of the individual in the nation right except God. It is the love that makes patriots. Our political support must be given to true patriots. This pattern is to be maintained. When our sixty senators

Mr. Ryan Proves a Point

Voicing "fear for the future of democracy" in America, because of the move now being made throughout the country to regulate education and strengthen the public schools, James H. Ryan, writing in the Atlantic Monthly, asserts that the Catholics "feel that they have a real grievance against the state" and would regard further moves along this particular line as "religious persecution."

Although the article is cleverly written, it fails to explain just why the Catholic church should be so concerned about the furthering of facilities for education in America. That is, why the Catholic church should be put in the position as resenting any move made to standardize and promote education. The entire article was in reality, a protest against the system of education as planned in America, although the system may not be operating to the best advantage at this time—to certain influences and just such articles and propaganda as the one in question.

"The state, even at its best," declares Mr. Ryan, "is mechanical, wooden, soulless," and the education it supplies is so dingy and colored by mechanical ideas that it would be little short of miraculous if it succeeded, as a general rule, producing anything superior and individual."

Inasmuch as the foregoing condemnation is made of the public school and Catholic parochial school is so well spoken of by the writer, it can only be surmised that the whole article is written in defense of the Catholic opposition to the public school. "There is no valid reason," declares Mr. Ryan, "why the state must educate all children in public schools." In those words the writer upholds the Catholic idea most emphatically.

Profound as it may seem, Mr. Ryan, despite his other statements, says that "democracy is essentially a religious ideal." In that statement he lays himself open to so many questions that it would take columns of space to reply to them. That is, he does because of the fact that he makes it quite apparent that he favors the Catholic parochial school and finds much fault with the public school.

Democracy is a religious ideal—but wholly a Protestant ideal. This is not a prejudiced statement but is based on absolute facts which Mr. Ryan can not refute. America is a Protestant nation and the first republic to exist. It has used the public school system for education. For Mr. Ryan successfully to refute this statement that democracy is wholly a Protestant ideal, he would be forced to name countries known as Catholic countries, wherein the Catholic church has held full sway, that are democracies. This Mr. Ryan can not do as such countries exist.

If, as Mr. Ryan states, "democracy is essentially a religious ideal," why has not the world democracies where the Catholic church has ruled for centuries and America has had universal education, or a public school system, and is a Protestant country, a republic, should not Mr. Ryan have said that democracy is "essentially a Protestant religious ideal?" "Nothing," says Mr. Ryan, "could be more dangerous to the continuance of our democracy than a system of schools." To substantiate this statement, the writer says that it would "engender bitter prejudices, distrusts and even hatred among certain important groups." Just who does the writer mean by "important groups?" He has already said that the Catholics would resent such a move to strengthen the public system of education: does he mean that the Catholic church is so bitter against education that it would not want to have its children educated?

Wig-Wags From Washington

How certain things do come back to plague or tease a politician or a political party, especially when stenographers take down notes, transcribe them and then find their way to the public. And that's another piece of the political puzzle.

Senator Willis of Ohio has had read by the secretary of the senate into the Congressional Record the nominating speech of some fellow who in the last Democratic national convention in San Francisco placed Edward L. Doney in nomination for Governor of California. The speech was also discussed by Senators Edge, New Jersey, and Pepper, Pennsylvania.

Senator Bruce, Maryland, again brook with his soul and tongue the resolution, because it not only sought to deny the inalienable right of an American citizen to a trial before his peers, but because it sought to exercise a power the Senate did not possess.

Passed a large number of bills of minor importance.
Made public the text of the treaty of friendship, commerce and consular rights negotiated with Germany.

An investigation of the affairs of the shipping board and the Emergency Fleet Corporation is provided for in a resolution by Senator King, Kentucky.

Just who does the writer mean by "the Catholics" who would resent a system of education? Does he mean the Catholics who are the backbone of the system of education in Alabama with hatred and distrust because American education facilities in the United States are so much better than in Alabama?

To lend weight to his argument, he would close the doors of Harvard, Yale and other private schools, condemn them as "anti-American and anti-Christian in their very essence." religious ramifications, upon the monarchical idea of the individual as subject instead of citizen.

Public school education is demonstrated to be a failure. The system is being waded by and for Catholic parochialism, which is the essence of monarchy.

The failure to provide adequate, adequate, and democratic, for public school education lies not so much in the strength of the opposition as in our own national weakness.

The pioneers who made America had before them the struggle of government. They, at least their immediate ancestors, knew from personal experience the perils and presentations of religious control.

Now, suddenly after half a century of unperceived growth, the un-American power that developed out of the one-sided freedom has arisen to curtail and confound our progress in behalf of democratic education.

The only soil in which that free and untrammelled American sovereignty, strictly by an untrammelled sovereignty, is to be found is in the soil of the untrammelled sovereignty.

Democracy is not dead, nor is the constitutional government, based on the consent of the governed, going to die.

The eternal right of mankind to self-government is being challenged throughout the world.

There is but one unyielding defense against every kind of alienation in America; it lies in adequate education.

No religious organization ever has or ever can dominate education without an aftermath of disruptive strife.

I do not for a moment contend that the church is to be abandoned to a degree of church control. The church which would say to the state, "I do as I please," is the church which I would say to the state, "I do as I please."

The present system is a gross mismanagement of our material wealth. A survey of the state of our schools, in terms of an exact and scientific scale, of the much more vital human values has never been attempted. It happened, however, quite incidentally, that the nation was permitted to get a glimpse of the state of affairs through a national indegree survey. Much of our young manhood was conscripted for service in the great war; they were examined, mentally and physically; tests were made and recorded; the results are known. At last we have a glimpse of the state of our youth, about our composite humanity.

Flag Given Each School
at Kewanee by Klansmen Kewanee, Ind., Feb. 9.—Each school in Union Township and the several rooms of the schools in Kewanae received a fine large American flag recently from Klansmen of the community. The flags were distributed by the Klansmen last week.
Several weeks ago the women processed a Bible to each school room.
A letter, calling attention to what the flag stands for, was presented with each flag.

MINISTER RECEIVES
GIFT OF KLANSMEN
CLAY CITY, Ind., Feb. 9.—Klan-son of Clay City did a handsome thing for the community. The com-tee was sent to the home of the
F. A. Parker, of the Free Methodist Church, a small and struggling congregation, and left a sizable cash contribution, and a shower of canned goods, groceries and various registered. The gift was last night
Mr. and Mrs. Parker and their four children several months. The gift Klansmen were well repaid for their efforts by the sunshine brought to the home of the father and mother and children.
