THE JOKE SHEET OF MUNCIE GOING NOT SO GOOD IN ELWOOD

Remains Fact That Prominent Citizens Remain in-Klan Movement

Minister Lends Organization Due for Series of Meetings Allied by Klansmen

(Special to Fiery Cross) ELWOOD, Ind., Feb. 5.—A most successful two-week series of religious meetings have just closed here in which the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan played a prominent part in their support of the meetings. The Klan in this city have done much to help the churches by their support and have received much praise.

"God is surely with the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan," declared Rev. R. Gabbart, speaking at one of the meetings. "I can see the hand of God more and more every day. The Klan churches for years have lacked unity but through this wonderful movement they are becoming united in a common cause. All I can say is that the Ku Klux Klan is the strongest body in Elwood."

FALL PLAYED IN PEPPY PLAY OF POLITICIANS

SENATE STAGES PURE POLITICS FOR HOME CONSUMPTION AND CAMPAIGN PURPOSES

Denby and Daugherty, Daugherty Doubts Drobbing

(Bureau Publication and Education) ASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The Senate today was playing politics in the province of the Ku Klux Klan, the truth and the facts to the contrary and let people draw their own conclusions about matters political as well as otherwise. The idea of analysis is that it is interesting to analyze what has taken place in the United States Senate this week.

The writer sat in the gallery of the Senate before writing this story and listened to the Senate as it acted to do what he had done two or three days ago in the way of appointing counsel and taking steps to correct the transmission of public domain interests for their own profit.

TERRE HAUTE PAYS TRIBUTE TO SECOND MURDERED KLANSMAN

Thousands Attend Funeral of John D. Smith, Killed by Thugs

Citizens Rise in Protest Against Rites of Lawlessness Under Davis Regime

(By Staff Correspondent) TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Feb. 5.—On a second occasion, Monday, Feb. 4, the city of Terre Haute, Ind., was honored by a large gathering of citizens who gathered to pay tribute to the memory of John D. Smith, who was murdered by thugs at the time of his death. In attendance at the funeral were many of the prominent citizens of the city.

It is a serious fact, the minister said, that the Ku Klux Klan has been the cause of much crime here, almost within the past week. There must be some reason for the influx of crime, and I believe that it is time the people waken and get at the root of the matter. In addition to the three murders which have taken place here, every day there are other crimes being committed.

connected to the station and deposited aboard the train by the police. Mrs. Milwaukee, the other man giving Des Moines, Ia., as his destination.

Hotel Man Indulgent

The Astoria newspaper carried the following statement signed by the owner of the hotel where Captain Brush and the lecturer were mobbed:

"In view of the fact that the mobbing was a very noisy and unruly affair, I made a statement in connection with the affair.

"Several days ago a gentleman came to my hotel and engaged a room and stated that he might later hold a meeting in the hotel. He stated, however, the character of the meeting was the same, so I had no occasion to refuse him. There was no suggestion or statement made regarding a banquet or the character of the meeting. I did not believe that anything would be held at the hotel and the meeting, as far as the Schmetzer hotel was concerned, had been called off, and no meeting was to be held there last evening.

"When I learned later, however, of the mobbing, I thought that I should encourage or countenance the performance of such an organization as was contemplated."

(Chief Went Home)

"Eventually I noticed the absence of the police chief, and asked an officer where he was. The officer said: 'Oh, he has gone home to bed.' Come home to bed, leaving two lives in jeopardy to protect? I demanded the officer call him and get him back to the office to escort us to the station. My demand prevailed and he came back. Then he was going to march us to the station, and I saw that he persisted in this and did not give us protection on the way to the station. I would put the matter before the governor. This argument prevailed and he called a closed auto-ambulance. We were taken to the station in safety.

"Then I proposed that we be permitted to enter the train from the platform of the rear coach, which was back several car lengths from the station platform. I arranged for the mob to take us through the rear coach open for receiving passengers. More persuasion and more threats of putting the affair up to the governor finally got the coach was opened and we were allowed to enter the train. Members of the mob prevented from blowing up church by action of Klan.

JAMESBURG, N. J., Feb. 2.—Once again the high principles of the Ku Klux Klan together with the members of that organization have triumphed in the cause of good. This time the action took place here, where because of the activities of the Rev. Mr. Eubank, pastor of the Jamesburg Presbyterian church, in attempting to clean up this community through the utterance of threats and were held away here for some time they would do so always. Agents of this vicinity have had a lucrative business for some time. Finally, conditions became unbearable and a cleanup campaign was undertaken and Mr. Eubank was not the least active in it. The bootleggers were chased and then the fun started. IMPRESSIVE SERVICE HELD FOR KLANSMAN

Ninety Members of Order Attend Funeral and Burial of J. W. Wolcott

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Feb. 2.—Gleadow cemetery, Eatontown road, West Long Branch, was the site of a day when ninety members of the Long Branch Klan paid tribute to Jesse W. Wolcott.

The services were conducted in the Ashbury M. E. church by the Rev. Dewitt Cobb, following which, the casket was borne to the funeral home by about fifty coaches containing friends of the deceased, entered the cemetery and started the quarter mile drive to the grave, a long Klansman was seen standing on the top of the opposite direction. A signal was given and another Klansman bearing a large silk American flag, followed by ninety other Klansmen. They timed their arrival to reach the grave at the same time as the hearse. The Klansmen were seen to salute as the hearse, and then stood with folded arms while the Rev. Mr. Cobb pronounced prayer.

The district Reagle paid a glowing tribute to the deceased Klansman present to carry on the work from which Mr. Wolcott had been called. Two short hymns were sung, after which a minister in one of the larger churches in this district offered prayer while the Klansman dropped a white carnation into the grave. Led by the flag and cross bearers, the Klansmen departed in single file, finally disappearing over the distant hill. A large cross of oak was placed at the head of the casket. The cross, standing about four and one-half feet in height.

TURNED LOOSE IN MOB

Teaching the outside of the hotel, the police chief was told that he was wanted in the hotel, and he released Captain Brush in the midst of the mob. This was what the mob wanted. Several men seized Captain Brush, and he was hurried into an automobile and away the mob went, headed for the country. That was the last I heard of him for three hours. I went in the hotel to get me. I demanded that the police chief take me to police headquarters and he finally started with me, with a moving mob at our heels. Arriving at the police headquarters, Milwaukee, this was retised. Then I demanded that the police get on the trail of the mob in
