KLAN STAGES SPECTACULAR PROCESSION

S. GLENN YOUNG AND WIFE SHOT; GUNMAN DEAD

FORMER FEDERAL ENFORCER WHO LED IN CLEANUP OF WILLIAMSON COUNTY, ILLINOIS, ATTACKED BY FOUR ASSASSINS IN ROAD WAY NEAR ORAVILLE, ILL.

Mrs. Young Seriously Wounded and Her Husband Shot in Leg—Contestatory Kills Gunman and Wounded Companion in Frenzied Battle at Outskirts of Herrin—Machine Gun Found in Their Car—Another Chapter in Williamson Cleanup Campaign

HERRIN, Ill., May 26.—Jack Skelton, notorious gunman, runner, and bootlegger, is dead here, and his companion who gave his name as Brown, is wounded and in a Herrin hospital, as the result of a battle between the two men and officers of the Illinois constabulary force at the edge of the city Saturday morning.

The officers were guarding all roads leading into Herrin, Pa. on Saturday morning. At 10 o'clock, Mrs. Young, near Oraville, Ill., Mrs. Young is in a serious condition from the wounds inflicted by the assassins in the leg. Both are in a hospital at Belleville, Ill.

The attempted assassination took place on the Atlantic-Pacific highway in the Ohio river bottoms, as retired farmer and Ira B. Blackstock, way in an automobile from Harrisburg, Ill., to St. Louis.

Vicious Boycott Against Americans at Jeffersonville

Four men were in a closed car which came from behind the Young car. As it passed the Young car, three of the men opened fire with automatic pistols and a sawed-off shotgun. The Young car was thrown into the ditch. Mrs. Young and thus escaped death. Mrs. Young was wounded in the face and head,

Credit Due Policemen

The police force of Indianapolis is deserving of great credit for the splendid work in co-operating with the Klansmen to hold the city in Indianapolis Sunday night. Inspector White promised E. M. Hardin, grand marshal of the parade, that ample police protection would be provided, and Herman Ribbing, what Inspector White promised. Not in the history of Indianapolis, probably, has a large crowd had better police protection than on the night of the parade. Young policemen, who are, in general, clean, brave, and every city official who had in any way anything to do with making the Klan parade a success.

The celebration was the outcome of several false fire alarms. Two men brought fire apparatus in the crowd in Washington street at two places. The first of these men was a member of the fire department and was held to blame. Chief O'Brien gave all the services he possibly could to the parade officials, and they have a most kindly feeling toward him.

Summed up, the success of the whole undertaking is placed at the feet of Emmet M. Hardin, the man who put it over, probably done by his own hand. He is a man of many parts, and his experience with many big affairs of this sort. Several of these men were the first to congratulate Mr. Hardin and his efficient assistants.

So the People May Know

What is the province of a newspaper? Years ago, in the days of the Credo Blade, Greeley of the New York Tribune, Harrison of the Chicago Democrat, and many others may not quite so well known our grandfathers and grandmothers read the daily newspapers as religiously as they did their Bible. They believed what they read and they got their news of the nation unfiltered. They then had a right to say: "I saw it in the paper, and it is true."

Our fathers and our mothers, children when in the homes, were taught to regard the newspaper as an institution. They grew up in that belief and in a measure brought it down to the present generation. It was a fine thing to know that your home newspaper tried and in great measure served the news of the day in a simple, direct, and uncolored way. It is a sad commentary on the press of today when one is compelled to note here and there that this story is colored to suit the situation, that article is padded to make a certain date; this is propaganda, issued from some person, to put over the plan of the business office; the angle of the editorial is not the better of the editor, but the better of the editor's pocket; the editorial is not the better of the editor, but the better of the editor's pocket.

Some claim, indeed, that the most dangerous thing in the nation today is the Ku Klux Klan. They have spread their wings and are spreading their wings. They have spread their wings and are spreading their wings. They have spread their wings and are spreading their wings. They have spread their wings and are spreading their wings.

The Ku Klux Klan is a religious organization. It is not a political organization. It is not a social organization. It is not a business organization. It is not a religious organization. It is not a political organization. It is not a social organization. It is not a business organization.

There are two factors in this town that the lawless element tries to exploit. One is the Klan and their friends, the Texas Rangers.

That Klansmen are still being persecuted in certain parts of the country is a fact that is well known. Two police men of the Pasadena forces were suspended for an alleged reason that they belonged to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

One of the officers suspended has been on the job several years. Both men accepted the suspension rather than resign from the order.

CHURCHREPORT FAVORS WIDER LABOR POWER

METHODISTS URG WORKERS ARE EXITING TO LARGER SHARE IN INDUSTRY

Report Disfranchises Wealth Earned and Unearned

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., May 25.—A report issued by the Methodist Episcopal general conference at Springfield, Mass., on the subject of "The Church and the Worker," has been widely discussed.

Worth according to the holders through monopoly values or social privileges, or through large opportunities for costless savings," the report said, "is not earned."

A phrase declaring that the wealth of society "belongs to society," was taken out as too socialistic in implication.

The report favored a living wage and the safeguarding of the health and security of workers. It recognized that the church must stand for the principles of a larger conception of social service.

Property rights possess an inherent sacredness, the report continued, "which puts them beyond the reach of criticism and revision by the state."

The report advocated the encouragement of self-determination and self-conservation in all workers, and declared that pride in workmanship and loyalty in service should be the motives animating industry.

MINERS GET FIRST-HAND INFORMATION ON HERRIN AFFAIR

Officers Failed to Do Their Duty and Klansmen Were Forced to Protect Women

Delegate to Convention Tells of Misrepresentation in News-paper Reports

PROMA, Ill., May 26.—(Continued from page 1.) The delegates to the county caucus caused a short debate in the Illinois coal miners' convention, when Delegate J. D. Pridden, of Herrin, asserted that the official publication of the miners had assumed a government organization when it was clearing up Herrin.

"Herrin has been a rough town," he declared. "It was unsafe for any man's daughter to walk the street. But along with the rough times are the rough people. We got together and got a list of men to office who would clean out vice and punish law violators. On our political ticket we had some miners."

"While our campaign was in progress the Illinois miner continued to be misrepresented," Pridden declared. "The news matter always referred to our faction as 'them Ku Kluxers.' I wrote several protests, but in return pieces were published. I believe the Miner should have been only trying to clean up the town."

Editors Didn't Write It
President Frank Farrington said the editors of the Miner should have been only trying to clean up the town.

KLANTAQUA IS HELD IN ILLINOIS TOWNS

MARION, Ill., May 26.—A successful four-day Klantaqua closed here Saturday night. The Klantaqua entered slightly from the entertainment program of the night. Klantaqua has been held in the town for many years. Men noted for their work in the Ku Klux Klan movement and speakers of prominence on the Klan platform were set out in forthright principles. Klantaqua was one of the series given in Illinois. It drew thousands of Klansmen into Williamson county from many points. The Klantaqua was a success. The musical features were varied and interesting.

BOANOE, Va.

The Robert E. Lee Klan is holding a joint initiation of candidates featuring the act of belonging to the Klan. Two very crossy lighted the field where the ceremonies were held and several thousand persons assembled and witnessed the initiation.

McKeesport, Pa.—Two thousand members of the Junior order of the Klan attended a meeting of the Klan at McKeesport on an occasion to bid the initiation of 88 candidates. The degree work was in charge of the famous team of John R. Martin, council, No. 20, of Philadelphia. Following the McKeesport initiation, the Klan was held at Akron, Dayton, and Detroit.

WEST MIDDLESEX, Pa.—Nearly 1,000 Klansmen are attending the Klantaqua at West Middlesex on Saturday night. Several speakers, including ministers from nearby towns and a woman from Pittsburgh, gave talks. American flags and a large checkered cross formed the background for the Klantaqua. In the evening three crosses were kept burning on the hillside in an adjoining field.

Klan Activity in Indiana

WASHINGTON, Ind.—Two hundred Klansmen assisted the F. & A. M. who had charge of the funeral of Mrs. Rittenhouse on May 14. The service was very impressive and a large number attended the services.

PETERSBURG, Ind.—A large Klantaqua was held at the foot of the hillside on May 14. The Klantaqua was held in the afternoon and night which was manifested by the fact that approximately 1,000 were in attendance on that day. The Klantaqua was held in the town of Petersburg, Ind. Delegates from all parts of central Indiana are expected to attend.

The Klan Membership
In addressing an audience recently at Paduca, Ky., the speaker, Dr. Edward G. Taylor, made the statement that the new governors, senators, congressmen, business men and preachers of the West Klansmen and found among them the best men on earth.

On the other side he found bootleggers, moonshiners, hoodlums, who owed allegiance to the crown head on the river, the ex-governor Allen, Jack Walton and the devil lined up against the Klan. He exhorted his audience to judge not by those who are against it.

There are two factors in this town that the lawless element tries to steer clear of—the Ku Klux Klan and their friends, the Texas Rangers.

That Klansmen are still being persecuted in certain parts of the United States is proved by the fact that two policemen of the Pasadena Police Department were arrested for force when they belonged to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

CONVICTION OF 200 BOOTLEGGERS NOT REGARDED AS NEWS

Willing in Williamson County Was Page One Stuff for Press Few Weeks Ago

Man Could Then Be Blamed in Public Eye—Herrin in Recent Piece to Live in Now

HEBURN, Ill., May 29.—How strange it is, the thought occurred to a reporter in Williamson County today to ask the press associations and the daily newspapers which a few weeks ago were carrying the news headlines stories of riot and Klan terrorism.

That battle and the smoke were the result of the smoke of battle of the government organization Williamson county; Herrin and Marion have become fit places in which to live.

In the background of all times in these newspaper stories were the authorized officers of the law who refused to do their duty. They were the lawless in the eyes of the public.

Back of those officers was another crowd, officially known as Williamson county as the Planning Circle, Klan organization. This organization was the lawless.

The unlawful arrests of S. Glenn Young and his assistants was a reading for the publications fighting Americanism. They thought they hated the Ku Klux Klan.

H. U. Johnson Loose Again

Henry U. Johnson, of Richmond, Va., is the Roman Catholic hierarchy in America. He is apparently proud awake for a minute by the results of the Indiana primary, and Mr. Johnson forthwith takes his pen in hand.

"HENRY U. JOHNSON," Attorney, Colonial Bldg., Richmond, Va. Johnson can fool no one in this country. He never has been able to get away with his lies. He might say against any poster for that person or organization. The enemies of the Ku Klux Klan are welcome to him, so far as the Klan is concerned.

"Billie" Will Wake Up

FRANKLIN Ind., May 24.—"I will stick to my anti-Klan position," said Billie Hill, a member of the Ku Klux Klan, in a statement. He ever there was an organization founded on the principles of the American government.

Now that William has this of his chest, he, too, will have an opportunity for sober thought before the election. He has an inclusive reverence to an inclusive reverence.

Mr. Editor: The Republicans of this state have chosen as their candidate for governor a man who is beyond question a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He is a member of the Ku Klux Klan, too.

VICIOUS BOYCOTT AGAINST AMERICANS

Catholic patrons they had the better of their own. The Roman Catholic hierarchy in America is apparently proud awake for a minute by the results of the Indiana primary, and Mr. Johnson forthwith takes his pen in hand.

What will Rome do with Americans when that great day the rope is looking forward to arrives? Are American Protestants going to contribute to the support of an organization of the pope, specially makes inroads into America?

RIOT RESULTS IN GREAT INCREASE

being cursed freely, the Protestant population began to realize that the Ku Klux Klan was not a mere organization of the riot was a great increase. The Ku Klux Klan was making physical assaults upon all persons whom they suspected of being Klansmen.

It expresses himself in this manner: "Before the campaign is ended, I hope that no one in the whole of Indiana will be so stupid as to vote for the man who has made a name for himself by his unscrupulous and unprincipled conduct that should never have been injected into politics." Never fear, William, the voter is not going to forget you in November. He will remember you, and stand at the Indianapolis stockyards.

governor a man who is beyond question a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He is a man of high character and high ability, and one who is not only a member of the Klan, but also a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He is a man of high character and high ability, and one who is not only a member of the Klan, but also a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

This, the first story of S. Glenn Young, is a story of a man who is not only a member of the Klan, but also a member of the Ku Klux Klan. He is a man of high character and high ability, and one who is not only a member of the Klan, but also a member of the Ku Klux Klan.

But the last July story was the bond story. S. Glenn Young, Indiana's first grand jury, was required to place bonds totaling more than $1,000,000. His associates indicted with him by this "special" grand jury were required to place another $1,000,000. The grand jury was composed of the members of the Ku Klux Klan, and the grand jury was composed of the members of the Ku Klux Klan.

Not Such Good News
Finally, Callahan and his chief deputy were indicted by a federal grand jury at Indianapolis. There was a grand jury at Indianapolis. There was a grand jury at Indianapolis.

Since then, the real constructive work has been done. The grand jury has been organized. The grand jury has been organized. The grand jury has been organized.

Therefore, when 200 bootleggers were indicted by the grand jury, it was a grand jury. The grand jury was organized. The grand jury was organized.

pygmy intellect has battled against progress. Since the beginning of time progress has withstood the ravages of ignorance. The Klan is merely the crystallization of a thought for centuries. It is the thought of freedom; the thought of progress and the thought of equality. The Klan is teaching love; it is teaching Christianity and a freedom of thought wherein each person for himself and not bound to the dictates of one man reared by thousands of miles and who lives in total ignorance on the riches accumulated through a gigantic system of aims spreading throughout the world.

In all sincerity and charity, it may be said that many, no doubt, are opposing the Klan organization through ignorance of what it really stands for and because of the propaganda spread against it by those who profit by the system against which the Klan stands. The Klan does not harbor any hatred toward the victims of this system; neither do Klansmen desire to take from them one right guaranteed them by the Constitution of the United States which each Klansman has taken oath to uphold. Klansmen do object, however, to seeing that system bear down the institutions of America, and this the Klan will not permit.

Adherents of this system, to which the Klansmen of America are opposed, quite recently staged a riot, and among other things, tore down and trampled American flags. When such actions have become a reality in this country can not one well realize why the Klan, a century-old thought of freedom, is now a breathing, living reality in America?

Emergence of the Klan

An Editorial in the Gary Post-Tribune

The sweeping victory of the Ku Klux Klan in the Republican primary in Lake county and in the entire state marks the emergence of a new and unknown factor in politics. What does it mean? Is there a significance that is not apparent on the surface? What does it portend for the future?

These are questions that thoughtful people are asking themselves and for which, thus far, no convincing answers have been given.

As far as the character of the ticket is concerned there can be little fair criticism. For the most part, the candidates are good citizens who ought to serve their county well. Indeed we might go further and say the ticket as a whole is one of the best that has been named in many years in Lake county.

And we have no question that if this ticket is elected Lake county will enjoy an era of law enforcement which will be the beginning of a new day. It is high time, and if the Klan can be held responsible for such an accomplishment it will have much to its credit.

Of that part of the Klan program we have no fear. One of its basic principles of the order, we understand, is law enforcement, and it seems to be the general belief of these men, if elected, will enforce the law.

No, we believe there is nothing to fear from the Klan. It is the religious and racial feeling that is being fostered going to lead us.

For the Klan is not a local issue. The tremendous vote given Ed Jackson for governor means that the Klan is militant over the entire state. It means that the people of Indiana, in every section of the state, have been aroused to the point that they have combined for political action. That is a most significant condition. It means that people have broken away from their old political moorings, broken away so quietly that only the most observant have not been astounded by the political bombshell exploded Tuesday.

There appear to be only two possible explanations. The first is that the people have become disgusted with the failure of law enforcement since the county went dry and are now going to break away from the politicians and put into office some men who have no political debts to pay. The other explanation is religion and this is the explanation that most people give to the emergence of the Klan. The issue is too newly created for anyone to attempt to explain it, but there is no question that both the lack of law enforcement and the feeling created by religious differences whetted into it.

In an orderly attempt to enforce the law either the Klan or any other organization will get much public support as the people are heartily sick of this era of bootleggers and criminals. But an intensification of religious differences is being kept deep.

Good Americans will keep this a country in which all may worship according to the dictates of their own consciences.

The Klansman who shows his Americanism by joining the anti-Federal organization that is uniting patriotic must expect to encounter a party that is not so easily won. If he should lose his confidence and turn out for all the mountains and hills that get in his way, he would repeat a crooked path, leaving the Klansman to the victory that shall come at last.

There are few Klansmen who thank goodness who fall out with their ministers and will pay nothing for their support. But in the isolated still said their churches by helping to pay the sextons.

That Canal

The Canadians do not want the United States to build a canal from Chicago through the Mississippi to Detroit. They are afraid that if they do, they will have to pay for it. They do not want to know exactly why they do not want to do it, but their instinct of self-preservation arises. They are afraid that if they build the canal, they will have to pay for it. They are afraid that if they build the canal, they will have to pay for it.

Attitude is Justified

The Klansman perhaps as a society in aggressive never flourish without production. The result of human labor is a product which must be so adjusted and paid that the worker can have joy in his task. Real Americanism provides for satisfied labor and the disposal of its product. Tempering with the American out of the work and prosperity out of the scheme of life. Contrast the living conditions under American ideals with those of Europe under the tyranny of selfish and despotic wisdom of our early counselors becomes apparent, and the Klan attitude is justified.

The Wily-Washy Pose

An eastern publication that has always enjoyed the confidence of a large number of the Klansmen is following to say regarding immigration: "Our immigration law ought also, we believe, to allow the entry of political and religious refugees. America may be closed to inferior people who suffer for conscience sake can not be held to be inferior. They provide backbone to any people. We must never cease to be a refuge for the oppressed."

It is needless to say that this attitude is not only a disgrace to the people, but it is a disgrace to the Klansman who will instantly see that far from providing "backbone to any people," the taking down of the bars to permit the entry of political and religious refugees would make for trouble, lower the vitality of non-northern American tendency, and eventually color forever both moral and religious endeavor in America.

There can be no condemnation of such an attitude, no contempt for such a policy. The Klansman who persist in promulgating notions of such an inhuman character as these referred to. There must be a stern effort to prevent such a policy from within the gates of this nation who are to be the constructive desires of the "Immigrant Liberal."

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 26.—Crave managers to get together before the summer campaign starts in earnest, a gentlemen's agreement to any one party, but to the politicians. The reason is that the politicians do not want to believe that the Klan was a Klan fight will lead. Hence it is not in politics, that it stands for certain principles and is rather for certain issues and not parties. That is beyond the comprehension of the average politician nowadays and he thinks the Klansman who tells him that the Klan is the case is only fooling. The average politician nowadays is reaching out for anything or any one that he thinks can win in the election and politicians of both parties are not saying much—they are thinking.

On the Democratic side several of the candidates are trying their best to kill off a certain candidate who hasn't said much either way. And the Democrats of Texas scrapped it and sent a former Klansman to the Democratic side of the Klan. He has been in the game since the beginning. He has been in the game since the beginning. Comment from the Coast

(By Felix Free)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 22.—A Los Angeles newspaper occasionally prints contributed articles, mercurial in their content and fulid in their style. The story of the "Life of St. Francis" by the Rev. Fr. Giovanni Papalini, in the "Life of Christ," published in serial form, is a case in point. The author, a priest, is a man of letters and a layman knows that in one of his volumes he refers to them as the "honorables of Luther." Do you think that a man of letters would do that? It is a pity that the author is not a man of letters. It is a pity that the author is not a man of letters.

Senator Johnson may yet "see the light." Two years ago he carried his name for the presidency with 330,000 majority. This time he carried it by 29,000. If Johnson will sit down and calmly think things over, he may be able to see where in California, his chief booster in Southern California, he will go a little further. He may discover that in California there are many of real, honest-to-God Americans interested in public affairs.

Two Million Laws

(Proctor's Journal)

It is declared that the total number of laws and ordinances now effective in the United States exceeds two million. No one can know it or not. But that would not be so bad if it weren't for the fact that new laws must be enacted every day for an ever-increasing army of lawbreakers. Some laws call for large additions to the public payroll. Usually, the number of public employees grows as the number of laws grows. It is a vicious circle. It is a vicious circle.

Court Rules a Wife Is Free to Bob Hair

CHICAGO, May 26.—Judge Burke, in the municipal court, ruled that a husband has no more control over his wife's hair than he has over her vote. The ruling was in the case of Jacob Silverman, arraigned on complaint of his wife, Jennie. She said she had her hair bobbed and when Jacob Silverman expressed his disapproval, she said she would cut it. "It would mind a plain bob," said Silverman. "But she is 32 years old and ought to know better than to get one of those what you call King bob."

ELECTRIC TRIUMPHS IN 1923 RECORDED

National Convention Hears Surprising Reports of the Year's Improvements

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 26.—A record of electrical development in the United States in the past year, advances in manufacturing methods and progress in the use of the new generation of electric power, were reported here by the president, Walter H. Johnson, of the Philadelphia Electric Construction of Niagara Falls, in the largest water wheel ever placed in operation, carrying 83,000 horse-power on a single shaft; completion of Brooklyn in the world and installation of the world's largest power lines in monster steel towers carrying 220,000 volts over hundreds of miles, were cited by President Johnson as evidence of the industry's growth in the last twelve months. The electrical world marked its advance by the substitution of electricity for other means of lighting and heating in 4,350,000 additional homes.

Court Rules a Wife Is Free to Bob Hair

CHICAGO, May 28.—Judge Burke, in the municipal court, ruled that a woman has more control of her own hair than her husband, and that a wife's haircut is her own affair.

The ruling was in the case of Jacob Silverman, arraigned on complaint of his wife, Jennie. She said she had been in the front of a restaurant, and that her hair had been cut by a man named Archie.

In response to Magistrate Stampson's questions, Louie said he had been here five years and had neither a first, nor second citizenship.

"Any man who doesn't take out his first papers after one year should be sent back where he came from," said the judge.

But when you use for the coun-try what you use for the coun-try, you are not a citizen, said the judge.

As Louie was mute the fine was imposed.

Through, Ulster has lost one-third of the population of Ireland, she never-theless saves 75 per cent of the taxes.

"The moral sense of pre-slavery ad-vocates in this country is not in the least sense of some men now seeking to 'make' America pre-dominantly Catholic," Drunken hoodlums, indecent demonstrations, in-fernal and impudent assaults, in-terference with the rights of the re-spectable citizenry, and the threat of violence against the foreign-born, are all governmentally approved in all genuine democracies.

Henry Ford always wins in the end. Biography and intolerance lose out. Associates of Elijah P. Love-joy found this out, and so will the friends of married Thomas R. Al-bright.

Charles F. Murphy, product of the West Side, boss of Tammany and therefore of New York, has passed out. In his younger days he was a fighter and a bar tender. He ac-quired wealth as the result of his political environment, the crookedest and most corrupt America ever knew. Murphy's place as one of the nation's chief manipulators, in the hands of the American people, pre-dominantly Catholic, will be difficult to fill.

I hope all Klansmen who have the opportunity to do so will see "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," "Chanchinoko," and "Jehar" are two films also worth while to see. "Esmeralda" was induced to "confess" by methods practiced during the time of Louis XI.

An acquaintance of mine, who was recently during the Span-ish-American war, and was in the line of a job because Japanese laborers with whom he was to have been employed protested. The incident happened in Idaho—near Plummer—where the American soil, "And still," there is a man who has been an American since he was against the immigration bill.

There is considerable strategic significance in the fact that the 1924 National Convention took place in St. Paul, Minn., a city which is to all intents and purposes foreign territory. Native white Amer-icans are in the minority there. The candidacy of "Alcohol" Smith, at first regarded as a joke, may yet prove all the noise desired to create an outward impression of a big de-mand for him at the psychological moment. You may be sure of that.

Charles Chaplin hits "The Pil-grim" down as one of the bits of the past year. This is the picture in which the little English Jew caricatures and satirizes a Pro-Testant minister. "The Pilgrim" was shown in several theatres because of its unfair portrayal of a clergy-man.

Hiram Johnson failed to get the endorsement of his own state. Among the list of delegates slated for the national convention, appeared the name of Joseph S. ... Protestants were dismissed from the police force at Pasadena, simply because they acquired membership in the Ku Klux

All Children in Public Schools, Michigan Slogan
WHI Michigan succeeded in sloganizing her constitution to public school education is made mandatory for all children? The question is to be submitted to the voters at the November election. It is a question which will affect all children from the age of seven to sixteen inclusive, in the public schools.
James Hamilton, President of the Public School Defense League of Michigan, says regarding the slogan: "The state has a right to demand that every child spend sufficient time in an American institution of learning to inoculate it with the fundamental of Americanism. Granting that, the only question remaining is, what shall be the child's school? The answer to this is: the public school. As long as it is required to be thoroughly grounded in these fundamental, that does not mean that religious sect or with its school. It means only that they must rearrange their programs to permit every child to get the public school training which today's demand for a high and sane citizenship require."
George William Moore, leader of the League, says that the slogan is not in the attitude of those newspapers and religious authorities who persist in reading into the proposal ideas not contained in it. He says: "The league was hamstringed by the fact that no newspaper of any size in the state would give it a hearing. They all insisted on calling it the anti-parochial school amendment, when as a matter of fact that is entirely wrong. The anti-church school amendment is not an amendment at all, but a regulation of the worship of any creed. If the propaganda which its foes have spread is a fair example of the American attitude they encourage them to be strong argument for the amendment."

Industry is Slowing Up
A general decline in industrial activity with a downward trend in the price of raw materials, according to the 314-Month Review of the Irving Bank-Columbia Trust Company. But this fact should be welcomed rather than feared by the rest of the country. The large holdings of gold in America must be distinctly advantageous to us from the standpoint of interest. The world economy, following its usual course, has turned into a depression. It is now possible a flooding of our markets with foreign merchandise coming from various countries, and that the present American tariff wall, which has long been evident that the tempo of a few basic American industries displayed such intense stimulation that it was only a question of time, inevitably begin and thus bring them into better balance with the whole business structure.

Va., are almost at the moment that the body of a man, killed in battle with alleged bootleggers, near Eastport, on Friday night, was lowered into its grave. The funeral was held at the residence of Patrick Ryan, a former New York City policeman, for first degree murder. Future of America and Japan

(Chicago Tribune)

The Japanese foreign minister tells the newspaper men in the Washington post shortly. It is plainly intimated that the gravest act with Japan consequent upon the signing of the immigration treaty is the American ambassador at Tokyo, Cyrus Woods, has resigned and is coming home.

BACK TO MELCHIZEDEN'S TIME

LONDON, May 26.—A discovery carrying the history of Jerusalem 800 years further than biblical legend conspiracy by Mrs. Remus and others.

It is alleged this whisky was re-imported from the East Indies, through the American consulate in London, and then to the American consulate in London, and then to the American consulate in London.

It is further alleged that $125,000 was paid for the whisky covering a total of 100 of this whisky, which was a Cincinnati bank, and that her husband, George Remus, paid $75,000 for it with a check.

What he unearched within the "christian wall" has convinced Fred McArthur that he has penetrated into the city of Melchizeden.

One of the first women living in the United States was Mrs. Susan B. Anthony, who was born in 1799, and who fills that office in Connecticut.
