BRAZIL, Ind., June 2.—The biggest crowd that ever assembled in this city, attended to the great Klan celebration held here on Friday and Saturday.
More than thirty-five thousand people, it is estimated, viewed the parade, which was held on Saturday night and approximately sixty thousand persons visited Brazil on the two days.
The town was virtually turned over to the visiting Klansmen who came, many of them, from points as far removed as three hundred miles.

PRINCETON, Ky., June 2.—Scores of persons are today out of jail under bonds of $5,000 while others caught in the net which was drawn by city night and day. Yesterday Sunday who are alleged to have threatened officers, are still within the confines of the county prison. More than three hundred persons were brought in by the officers who went out in a last effort to hold back the waves of Americanism typified by the Ku Klux Klan.

APPLETON, Wis., June 2.—Merrily the fight against the Klan in this city goes on. And just as merrily does the Klan continue to grow.
The first intimation that the group of picketers had that there was any opposition to their "warfare" was told to take a crowd out of a ball diamond on which they were playing. The man in charge, whom they believed to be Merklin, informed them that they would have to move from the ball field to the park. just as soon as the ball players showed up at the park that the croquet set would be moved immediately. Half an hour returned and nickers from the place. It is charged.

The fact that some of the young ladies in the Klan, who are "very crosses" and that the man spoke with a foreign accent, is the only reason which the members of the party can attribute his bitter attitude and the sudden orders to get him out of the place. It is charged that he used abusive language in the presence of the young ladies.

That the ascending growth of the Ku Klux Klan during the winter months has dismayed the enemy is seen in the desperate attempt by the alien interests in some places to halt the steady march of Americanism, and in other places by anti-Klan organizations practically giving up the fight against the Protestant American order. Among the chief organizations which have virtually ceased to operate is the un-American Unity League, whose breath of life was blown into it by "Mad" Pat O'Donnell and Joe Roach.
