“STRENGTHEN MILITARY OF ROMAN ORDER”

Frank X. Schwad, Chief Executive of Buffalo and Pioneer in the Roman Order, has told the Knights of St. John, a group dedicated to maintaining the purity of the Roman Catholic Church, that they must arm themselves to protect the Church against the increasing number of Klansmen who are organizing in the city.

Mr. Schwad, who is also the President of the Roman Catholic Union, met with the Knights at a special meeting last night. He said that the Knights must be prepared to take action to defend the Church.

“I have been told by reliable sources that the Klansmen are planning to organize a storm at the Roman Catholic Church in Buffalo,” said Mr. Schwad. “The Knights must be ready to meet this threat.

With impeachment proceedings hinted and the “passing of the buck” by Mayor Samuel Lewis Shank, the so-called drive against vice in Indianapolis has come to a dead end. Murder, hostage-taking, cattle rustling, hold-ups, and burglary continue to flourish in Mayor Shank’s city, as a result of which some of the residents have decided to take matters into their own hands.

(By Staff Correspondent) BUFFALO, N.Y., July 23—Confounding some quarters, it has been disclosed that the words of Mayor Frank F. Schuyler, of this city, who, in a speech before the Catholic Knights of Saint John, de- cidedly expressed his belief that the Boy Scout order, of which he is supreme head, should "continue on through the ages." Their was no "talking about" in his speech, the Buffalo mayor, who also announced the Boy Scout order of the Knights' activities is "now more essential than ever before.

It has been hinted in certain circles that the Catholic Knights of Saint John are prepared to take things easy. The prominent Catholics have spoken openly. While it was not made public by the Roman Catholic organizations have spoken of their intentions, it is believed that the Roman Catholic mayor should have his word carried, saying they are prepared to do their share of the work, and will take personal charge of the work of the Knights in the city.

The mayor then went on to say that the Boy Scout order would be a great benefit to the city of Buffalo. The mayor's statement was followed by a report from the municipal police department, which states that the mayor has been in Buffalo for the past few days, investigating the Boy Scout order.

Tells of Being Knocked Down and Kicked and of Viewing Attack on White-Haired Woman—Seals Letter to Gary Post-Tribune Which Refuses to Publish It

The following letter, written by a fifteen-year-old high school boy, who was in South Bend on the day of the riot by the Notre Dame students, was sent to the Gary Post-Tribune for publication. In order that the lad might be protected, it was added that his name not be printed although it was signed to better forward the Gary newspaper, it is understood. According to readers, action agency in this Post without signatures, but this was turned down by the editor.

The letter follows:

To: Editor Gary Post-Tribune.

If you are in the position of having the privilege of cutting a letter that appears in print, I have an important notice to give of the recent events in South Bend at the time the cowardly Notre Dame students smashed our anti-communist spirit. In this letter I shall prove that the students who do not want to see this side, of course, I cannot hope to convince. My friends informed me of the wire parade and we went to the high school. In the afternoon we happened to be at the North Indiana and South streets when a delegation from Gary and Hammond was seen. There were about 50 in number, of which about 100 women, immediately 50 or more gamblers from New York surrounded and arrested them. The students were attacked and some of them were taken from them. Many were robbed. A real riot occurred. No one but the students was attacked. The American citizen do that? Cifonda said that the students were armed with sticks and knives. About the time the Americans from Notre Dame broke the windows from the F. O. P. hall and tore up the banner that was given to the Notre Dame team. Old Glory, which Americans love, respect and adore, was torn. They were trampled upon it. Before God and the American flag, I do not know how I would do if I were not a Christian, but I must always remember the flag ever since my military training. I am a member of the O. U. T. at Notre Dame, and I do not care whether it be the American flag, I would fight for it.

Loudspeaker talks to many who say, "Don't fight. That's not our flag. That's not our flag."

Nonsensical Quibbling

Never before has the Protestant church been attacked so bitterly as now. Not only does the Roman Catholic Church claim innumerable people for members of its faith, but the Catholics themselves are now being called enemies of truth and justice by the Protestant press. This is a deliberate attempt to mislead and confuse the minds of the people. It is a typical example of the kind of untruthful attacks that are being made on the Catholic church today.

The articles in question are reprinted in this edition of our paper, and we would like to ask our readers to judge for themselves. We believe that the Protestant press has a duty to accurately report the facts, and we hope that our readers will not be misled by the false charges against the Catholic church.

The truth is that the Catholic church is a great and powerful institution that has been around for over 1800 years. It has a rich history and a great track record of helpful and generous acts. We believe that every person has a right to choose their own religion, and we do not believe that anyone should be forced to join a particular church. We believe that the Catholic church is a great and noble institution that should be respected and appreciated for all that it has done for humanity.

Federal Prohibition Commissioner R. A. Harney, speaking in Washington yesterday before a Senate committee, announced that the Government had been provided with information that the "underground," often cited by prohibition advocates as a separate system from legal channels, exists in various forms throughout the country and its influence extends to the economic and social life of the nation. The commissioner said that these operations are carried on under the guise of "legal" businesses, often using the same names and addresses as legitimate enterprises. He added that the Government has obtained information that the "underground" is involved in various criminal activities, including the distribution of illegal liquor, gambling, and prostitution.

The commissioner said that the Government has been able to obtain information on the operations of the "underground," which includes the provision of illegal liquor, gambling, and prostitution, by using a network of informants and undercover agents.
