Two men dead and two men wounded. That's the result of a gun battle in Durham tonight, traceable directly to the influence of Mayor Frank X. Schwab, of Buffalo, a Roman Catholic, who is supreme general of the Knights of St. Elizabeth in this city on Sunday night. He is the same man who, in his official position as the head of the Roman Catholic order, recently called upon Catholics to prepare themselves and arms for themselves for the purpose of the existence of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. His official statement at the time of its utterance was carried in newspapers every where because of its extreme bitterness and because of the well-known activity in opposition to the Klan. He has admitted that activity to a point where it has resulted in two murders and the wounding of two other men, and he himself is involved to the extent that

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL SOLVE AMERICA'S BIG PROBLEM, SAYS EVANS

Imperial Wizard Delivers Brilliant Address in Which Alien Ban Is Lauded

Parochial Schools Teach What to Think Instead of How to Think, Speaker Declares

(Special to The Fiery Cross)

HERRIN, Pa., Sept. 8.—Speaking before the grand jury at 10,000 of Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, he declared that "the parochial school taught what to think while the American public schools taught how to think. America's greatest problem is that she has no common sense. Twenty years ago all attended the parochial school. The population of the United States, however, now within the borders of public schools, said Dr. Evans, the more superstitious and blind following of the teachings of a foreign church that puts itself above the government will be eliminated."

A Changing Sentiment The growing feeling throughout the country that attendance at the parochial school is a necessary evil, the eventual establishment of the system and the final assimilation of American life of children who would otherwise be illiterate or crimi- nally minded for action to guard the conditions found in the world at large. In the many cases to be mentioned in this city, the children were not fully assimilated before, would have been required of all children. Should Think for Solves Those who are potential legislators and executives of this country should be trained to think for them-

OREGON SCHOOL LAW RECORD IS FILED

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 9.—The record in the Oregon school law case, which was filed in the Supreme Court of the United States, where final disposition will eventually be made of the action brought in the district court at Portland to set aside the law as unconstitutional.

One of the novelties of the cases raised by enemies of public education and the personnel of the supreme court, it would be rash to predict what the decision will be. But if the court should hold that the law is unconstitutional, Oregon has no right to enact a compulsory public school law, one recourse will remain. The constitution can be amended as to "compulsory" that is, the state that opposition to the Oregon law comes from outside the state. The same source as opposition to the Sterling school bill in Connecticut. The case is being heard at this time through the aid of some of those who have been active in the fight on both

Paper Was Never Jeopardized by a Receiver Although Errors in Pression Prevailed

Final steps were taken Monday afternoon following negotiations which had been under way for some time. The receiver, Mr. C. C. Stephenson, has been discharged and the paper has been returned to the management. One of these suits, which asked that a receiver be appointed and which was filed by the receiver, was dismissed. The receiver, however, was not satisfied with the result of a misunderstanding which arose over a contract signed at the time of the liquidation of the company in 1923. The receiver's duties to be performed and from what fund the salary of Mr. Reichard was to be paid.

Stephenson Suit Settled The suit filed by Dr. C. Stephenson, which also asked for a receiver, was settled by Mr. Reichard at the time he resigned as Grand Dragon of Indiana and was for money advanced to the company. The suit was amicably settled.

A third suit, much the same as that filed by Mr. Stephenson, was filed by Mr. Reichard. The suit was for money advanced to the company. The suit was amicably settled. A most bitter fight was made against Brewer by alien interests and it was necessary following the election to have a receiver appointed to liquidate the company. The receiver was M. Farrington, who had the backing of those persons opposed to the Klan. The account showed that Brewer had won by a count- ing of the Klan. The Klan had been organized in 1923. (Special to The Fiery Cross) PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—William E. Farringall, bitter Klan opponent, was swept to defeat here yesterday when the largest vote ever cast in the state of Maine carried Ralph O. Brewer into the governor's office. Various estimates put Brewer's majority at from 30,000 to 45,000. Present re- turns indicate that approx- imately 250,000 citizens cast votes at the election yesterday. This is about 45,000 more votes than were ever cast at an elec- tion in Maine. Every foreigner was rounded up and sent to the polls in an effort to defeat the candidates sponsored by the Klansmen.

A most bitter fight was made against Brewer by alien interests and it was necessary following the election to have a receiver appointed to liquidate the company. The receiver was M.
