Note: The Apportionment Act of January 2, 1821, included Morgan County in a representative district with Greene and Owen counties. However, no provision was made for Morgan's inclusion in a senatorial district. More important, Morgan County was not finally created by statute until December 31, 1821, with an effective date of February 15, 1822.