Note: The small strip of land between Brown and Jackson counties was detached from Bartholomew County in 1838 and not attached to Jackson County until 1843. The Interim Apportionment Act of January 2, 1843, in effect for the 1844-45 session, assigned Brown and Monroe counties one representative each in lieu of two representatives jointly.